

REBECCA TEAFF
Editor

Rebecca Teaff joined the editorial staff of the Office of Legislative Counsel in October of 2017.

Prior to working at the Office of Legislative Counsel, Ms. Teaff was managing editor of Book Publishing for the American Cancer Society (ACS) at its national headquarters in Atlanta from 2006 to 2017. Books published by ACS during her tenure received more than 120 national book awards.

Before moving to Atlanta, Ms. Teaff was manager of Editorial Services at Duke Clinical Research Institute (DCRI) in Durham, North Carolina, and was a senior medical editor at Texas Heart Institute in Houston, Texas, where she received the President's Service Award. While in Houston, she served on the Board of Directors for the Southwest Chapter of the American Medical Writers Association for ten years.

Ms. Teaff has served as a conference panelist and roundtable leader and given presentations and seminars on such topics as medical writing, abstract writing, government grant proposals, and ethics in publishing. She was a presenter for DCRI's video conferences on Best Practices in Clinical Research in 2006. She has drafted or coauthored numerous publications during her career.

Ms. Teaff received a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and journalism from Auburn University, where she was a staff writer for The Auburn Plainsman. She received a Master of Arts degree in English from the University of Alabama.