

CONNOR ZIELKE
Resolution Coordinator/Editor

Connor joined the Office of Legislative Counsel as Resolution Coordinator/Editor in August 2019 after graduating from Kennesaw State University with a bachelor's degree in Media and Entertainment Studies. Prior to working at the office, Connor worked as managing editor of The Sentinel, Kennesaw State's student-run newspaper. Part of his duties included editing stories, approving page layouts and story lists, communicating with section editors, and ensuring adherence to AP style.

Connor is originally from Michigan, but has called Georgia his home for the past seven years.
