

HOLLY J. CARTER
Deputy Legislative Counsel
LC 48

Holly J. Carter joined the Office of Legislative Counsel in December of 2018. Ms. Carter became a member of the State Bar of Georgia after obtaining her Juris Doctor degree from the Walter F. George School of Law at Mercer University. She obtained her B.A. in English Literature from the University of South Carolina.

Prior to joining the Office of Legislative Counsel, Ms. Carter served as an Assistant District Attorney with the Fulton County Office of the District Attorney, where she successfully prosecuted over 2,000 felony cases (2006-2009). After her tenure there, she went into private practice where she primarily handled criminal law, family law, and general trial practice matters (2009-2017). Ms. Carter also presided over 1,200 administrative appeal hearings for the Georgia Department of Labor (2011-2012).
