

Senate Resolution 524

By: Senator Hill of the 4th

A RESOLUTION

1 Expressing regrets at the passing of Norman Warren Fries; and for other purposes.

2 WHEREAS, Norman Warren Fries was a prominent businessman, civic leader, and generous 3 philanthropist in Claxton, Georgia, where he was the largest employer in Evans County and 4 positively influenced the quality of life for his fellow citizens; and

5 WHEREAS, he was a native of Chatham County who after serving in the US Navy during 6 World War II and attending Duke University entered the poultry business in 1949, having 7 worked for his father, T.W. Fries, owner of Fries Poultry in Savannah's old City Market; and

8 WHEREAS, as an entrepreneur he invested his talent and industry and created Claxton
9 Poultry which formed the core of the local economy and today remains one of the last 10 family-owned broiler production companies in the United States; and

11 WHEREAS, he was a major figure in the state and national poultry industry, having served
12 as past president of the Georgia Poultry Processors, past director of the Georgia Egg
13 Association and Georgia Poultry Improvement Association, and past chairman of the Poultry 14 Marketing Advisory Committee for the Georgia Department of Agriculture; and

15 WHEREAS, in 1999 he received the Poultry Industry Lifetime Achievement Award from 16 the National Poultry Food and Distributors Association; Georgia Southern University named 17 their Distinguished Lectureship Series in his honor; and he currently served as the director
18 of the National Chicken Council.

19 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that this body expresses deep 20 regret at the passing of Norman W. Fries and conveys its sympathy to his beloved family.

21 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 22 to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to the family of Norman W. Fries.
