Senators Seabaugh of the 28th, Price of the 56th and Johnson of the 1st offered the following amendment:

Amend HB1000 by changing State General Funds (New) from "$52,141,320" to "$17,197,320" and deleting the paragraph that reads: "From the foregoing appropriation, $34,944,000 is specifically appropriated for the purpose of financing educational facilities for county and independent school systems through the Georgia State Financing and Investment Commission, through the issuance of not more than $416,000,000 in principal amount of General Obligation Debt, the instruments of which shall have maturities not in excess of two hundred and forty months, as a special appropriation for school capital outlay to replace $416,000,000 in unexpended state general funds from the special appropriation for school capital outlay for the State Fiscal Year ending June 30, 2001."
