

ADOPTED

(D) In the event of litigation challenging nondisclosure by an agency, the court may review the documents in question in camera, and may condition disclosure upon such measures as the court may find in writing to be necessary to protect against endangerment of life, safety or public property.