

Senate Resolution 180

By: Senators Price of the 56th, Ray of the 48th and Paul of the 40th

A RESOLUTION

1 Proposing an amendment to the Constitution so as to provide for the creation of additional 2 counties and the merger of any portion of one county with another county; to provide for the 3 submission of this amendment for ratification or rejection; and for other purposes.

4 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

5 SECTION 1.

6 Paragraph II of Section I of Article IX of the Constitution is amended by striking
7 subparagraph (a) thereof and inserting in its place the following:

8 "(a) Except as provided in subparagraph (e) of this Paragraph, there ~~There~~ shall not be 9 more than 159 counties in this state."

10 SECTION 2.

11 Said Paragraph is further amended by adding at the end the following new subparagraphs:

12 "(d) The General Assembly may provide by law for the merger of any portion of one 13 county with another county which it abuts when the governing authority of the county into 14 which that portion is to be merged approves such merger, if the county from which such 15 portion will be removed by the merger will have a population of at least 200,000, according 16 to the United States decennial census of 1990 or any future census, immediately following 17 the merger, and if:

18 (1) All of the owners of property in the portion of the county to be merged, except 19 owners of governmental property, sign a petition approving such merger; or

20 (2) A petition calling for such merger and bearing the validated signatures of at least 21 20 percent of the electors in the portion of the county to be merged who were registered 22 to vote in the last general election is presented to the election superintendent of the 23 county in which such portion is located, who shall call a special election on whether such 24 portion shall be merged as specified in the petition, to be conducted in such portion upon 25 verification of such signatures, and a majority of the electors voting in such portion in 26 such election approve such merger.

1 (e) Additional counties may be created from contiguous areas of the state if:

2 (1) The area which is to constitute the additional county:

3 (A) Has a population of at least 200,000, according to the United States decennial
4 census of 1990 or any future census; or

5 (B) Includes the entirety of any county which existed at any time before 1950 but not
6 after that date;

7 (2) The county is created pursuant to:

8 (A) General law; or

9 (B) A petition which calls for the creation of such additional county and bears the 10 validated signatures of at least 10 percent of the electors who were registered to vote
11 in the last general election and who reside in the area which is to constitute the new 12 county, which petition is presented to the election superintendent of each county in 13 which such area is located, who shall call a special election on whether such county 14 shall be created as specified in the petition, to be conducted upon verification of such 15 signatures, only in the area which is to be included in the new county; and

16 (3) The majority of electors voting in a special election to be conducted in the area to 17 be included within the new county vote to approve the creation of the new county. The 18 General Assembly may provide by general law for matters relating to the creation of new 19 counties pursuant to and not in conflict with this subparagraph."

20 SECTION 3.

21 The above proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be published and submitted as 22 provided in Article X, Section I, Paragraph II of the Constitution. The ballot submitting the 23 above proposed amendment shall have written or printed thereon the following:

24 "() YES Shall the Constitution be amended so as to provide for the creation of 25 additional counties and the merger of any portion of one county with 26 () NO another county?"

27 All persons desiring to vote in favor of ratifying the proposed amendment shall vote "Yes."

28 All persons desiring to vote against ratifying the proposed amendment shall vote "No." If 29 such amendment shall be ratified as provided in said Paragraph of the Constitution, it shall 30 become a part of the Constitution of this state.