8 SECTION 1.

9 Chapter 6 of Title 5 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to certiorari and 10 appeals to appellate courts generally, is amended by striking Code Section 5-6-34, relating 11 to judgments and rulings deemed directly appealable, procedure for review of judgments,

21 below, except as provided in Code Section 5-6-35;

22 (2) All judgments involving applications for discharge in bail trover and contempt cases;

10 subject to direct appeal, certifies within ten days of entry thereof that the order, decision, 11 or judgment is of such importance to the case that immediate review should be had, the 12 Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals may thereupon, in their respective discretions, 13 permit an appeal to be taken from the order, decision, or judgment if application is made 14 thereto within ten days after such certificate is granted. The application shall be in the 15 nature of a petition and shall set forth the need for such an appeal and the issue or issues 16 involved therein. The applicant may, at his or her election, include copies of such parts of 17 the record as he or she deems appropriate, but no certification of such copies by the clerk 18 of the trial court shall be necessary. The application shall be filed with the clerk of the 19 Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals and a copy of the application, together with a list 20 of those parts of the record included with the application, shall be served upon the opposing 21 party or parties in the case in the manner prescribed by Code Section 5-6-32, except that

31 (c) In criminal cases involving a capital offense for which the death penalty is sought, a 32 hearing shall be held as provided in Code Section 17-10-35.2 to determine if there shall be 33 a review of pretrial proceedings by the Supreme Court prior to a trial before a jury. Review 34 of pretrial proceedings, if ordered by the trial court, shall be exclusively as provided by 35 Code Section 17-10-35.1 and no certificate of immediate review shall be necessary.

36 (d) Where an appeal is taken under any provision of subsection (a), (b), or (c) of this Code
37 section, all judgments, rulings, or orders rendered in the case which are raised on appeal

1 and which may affect the proceedings below shall be reviewed and determined by the 2 appellate court, without regard to the appealability of the judgment, ruling, or order 3 standing alone and without regard to whether the judgment, ruling, or order appealed from 4 was final or was appealable by some other express provision of law contained in this Code
5 section, or elsewhere. For purposes of review by the appellate court, one or more 6 judgments, rulings, or orders by the trial court held to be erroneous on appeal shall not be 7 deemed to have rendered all subsequent proceedings nugatory; but the appellate court shall 8 in all cases review all judgments, rulings, or orders raised on appeal which may affect the 9 proceedings below and which were rendered subsequent to the first judgment, ruling, or 10 order held erroneous. Nothing in this subsection shall require the appellate court to pass 11 upon questions which are rendered moot."

13 This Act shall become effective upon its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law 14 without such approval.

15 SECTION 3.

16 This Act shall apply to any case pending on or brought after the effective date of this Act.

17 SECTION 4.

18 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
