

A RESOLUTION

1 Relative to officials, employees, and committees in the House of Representatives; and for
2 other purposes.

3 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that the following
4 provisions shall be in effect during the 2001 regular session of the General Assembly of 5 Georgia and for the duration of this General Assembly and until otherwise provided for by 6 resolution of the House:

PART 1

SECTION 1-1.

9 Subject to the availability of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the House of 10 Representatives and House Research Office, the Speaker of the House is authorized to 11 employ on behalf of the House of Representatives: a sergeant-at-arms, a postmaster or 12 postmistress, assistant postmasters or assistant postmistresses, assistant doorkeepers, pages,
13 aides, secretaries, stenographers, typists, clerks, porters, court reporters, consultants, and
14 other necessary personnel; and the Speaker is authorized to provide for a House Research
15 Office and to employ personnel for said office. The numbers and compensation of personnel
16 so employed pursuant to this section shall be fixed by the Speaker within the limitations of 17 funds appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the House of Representatives
18 and the House Research Office. Personnel employed pursuant to this section may be 19 employed on a permanent or temporary basis and on a part-time or full-time basis, as may 20 be determined by the Speaker. The assignment and duties of personnel employed pursuant 21 to this section shall be as determined by the Speaker; and any such personnel may be
22 assigned to House officers, committees, committee officers, caucuses, and caucus officers
23 as deemed appropriate by the Speaker, including without limitation assignment of aides to 24 the Speaker Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader, and the Minority Leader.

SECTION 1-2.

The Speaker is also authorized to secure the services of chaplains and interns and provide expense reimbursement allowances for them within the limitations of funds appropriated or otherwise available.

SECTION 1-3.

The Doorkeeper of the House and the Messenger of the House, who are elected by the House, shall be compensated in an amount to be fixed by the Speaker of the House.

PART 2*SECTION 2-1.

Subject to the availability of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the Clerk of the House's office, the Clerk of the House is authorized to employ for the Clerk's office: assistant clerks, reading clerks, calendar clerks, journal clerks, secretaries, copy readers, typists, Multilith operators, Xerox operators, collator operators, porter-machinists, roll-call operators, clerical assistants, terminal operators, camera operators, supply and mail clerks, document distributors, audio operators, porters, personnel to distribute bills and other materials for members, and other necessary personnel. The numbers and compensation of personnel employed pursuant to this section shall be fixed by the Clerk within the limitations of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the Clerk of the House's office. Personnel employed pursuant to this section may be employed on a permanent or temporary basis and on a part-time or full-time basis, as may be determined by the Clerk. The assignment and duties of personnel employed pursuant to this section shall be as determined by the Clerk.

SECTION 2-2.

Pursuant to the provisions of Code Section 28-3-23 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, the salary of the Clerk of the House shall be the same amount the Clerk was receiving at the time of adoption of this resolution by the House. In addition to that amount, the Clerk shall also receive the same percentage salary increase provided in the General Appropriations Act for employees of the legislative branch of state government. During the Clerk's tenure of office, he or she shall also receive the same expense allowance and the same mileage allowance or travel allowance as received by members of the General Assembly for each day of service rendered by the Clerk.

PART 3

SECTION 3-1.

Subject to the availability of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the Speaker of the House's Office, the Speaker of the House is authorized to employ interns, aides, secretaries, stenographers, typists, consultants, and other necessary personnel. The numbers and compensation of personnel employed pursuant to this section shall be fixed by the Speaker within the limitations of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the Speaker of the House's Office. Personnel employed pursuant to this section may be employed on a permanent or temporary basis and on a part-time or full-time basis as may be determined by the Speaker. The assignment and duties of personnel employed pursuant to this section shall be as determined by the Speaker.

PART 4

SECTION 4-1.

During any day or period of time during which the General Assembly is not in session, including without limitation any day or period of adjournment during a regular or special session, each of the following officers shall be a committee of one for each day spent on official business: The Speaker of the House, the Speaker Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader, the Majority Whip, the Minority Leader, the Minority Whip, the Administration Floor Leader, and the Assistant Administration Floor Leaders. For each such day spent on official business each of such officers shall receive the expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized by law for members of interim committees, provided that the Assistant Administration Floor Leaders shall receive such expense, mileage, and travel allowances only upon the authorization and approval of vouchers by the Administration Floor Leader.

SECTION 4-2.

(a) During any day or period of time during which the General Assembly is not in session, including without limitation any day or period of adjournment during a regular or special session, each member of the House of Representatives is designated as a committee of one for the purpose of carrying out legislative duties only within the State of Georgia. For each such day of service, each member shall receive the expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized by law for legislative members of interim legislative committees but shall not receive the same for more than seven days each year.

(b) In addition to the days provided for in subsection (a) of this section and without counting towards the limit specified in said subsection (a), each member of the House is designated

1 as a committee of one for the purpose of carrying out legislative duties on any weekday
2 which: (1) is a one-day recess or adjournment during a regular session; and (2) occurs after
3 Monday and prior to Friday. For each such day of service, each member shall receive the 4 expense and travel allowances (not including mileage which shall be covered by the weekly 5 round trip) for legislative members of interim legislative committees, if such member has 6 engaged in legislative business on that day, but not otherwise.

7 SECTION 4-3.

8 Pursuant to the provisions of law, in addition to any other compensation they receive as 9 members of the General Assembly, the Majority Leader, the Minority Leader, and the 10 Administration Floor Leader each shall receive an amount of $2,400.00 per annum, as salary,
11 to be paid in equal monthly or semimonthly installments. Each of the Assistant 12 Administration Floor Leaders shall likewise receive an amount of $1,200.00 per annum, as 13 salary, to be paid in equal monthly or semimonthly installments. Prior to serving as 14 Administration Floor Leader or as an Assistant Administration Floor Leader, a 15 Representative must be certified as such by the Governor in writing to the Speaker of the 16 House and the Clerk of the House.

17 PART 5

18 SECTION 5-1.

19 During any period or day of adjournment during a regular or special session, the Speaker is 20 empowered to give authorization for standing committees of the House and such other 21 committees as the Speaker might create to remain at the Capitol during any such period of 22 time for the purpose of considering and studying proposed legislation and other matters.
23 Members of such committees as shall be designated by the Speaker to remain at the Capitol
24 shall receive the expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized by law for members of 25 interim committees.

26 SECTION 5-2.

27 The Speaker is authorized to appoint committees from the members of the House to serve 28 as interim legislative study committees and for the purpose of performing such duties as the 29 Speaker shall deem necessary. Such committees are authorized to serve during the interim
30 and the members thereof shall receive the expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized
31 by law for legislative members of interim legislative committees. The Speaker shall 32 designate the chairperson of any such committee and shall prescribe the time for which any 33 such committee is authorized to function. The Speaker is authorized to extend the time

1 allowed for any committee, whether the committee is created by resolution or by the Speaker.
2 The Speaker is authorized to designate standing committees or any subcommittee thereof to
3 function during the interim for the purpose of performing such duties as the Speaker shall 4 deem necessary. The members of any such committee or subcommittee shall receive the 5 expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized by law for legislative members of interim
6 legislative committees.

7 PART 6

8 SECTION 6-1.

9 The funds necessary to carry out the provisions of Parts 1, 4, and 5 of this resolution shall 10 come from funds appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the House of 11 Representatives and House Research Office. The funds necessary to carry out the provisions
12 of Part 2 of this resolution shall come from funds appropriated or otherwise available for the 13 operation of the Clerk of the House's office. The funds necessary to carry out the provisions
14 of Part 3 of this resolution shall come from funds appropriated or otherwise available for the 15 operation of the Speaker of the House's Office.

16 SECTION 6-2.

17 Any personnel employed pursuant to this resolution shall serve at the pleasure of the 18 appointing authority; and any such personnel may be discharged by the appointing authority
19 with or without cause.

20 SECTION 6-3.

21 This resolution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by the House of 22 Representatives.
