 18 registration shall be issued to ~~him or her~~ the applicant entitling ~~him or her~~ the applicant to 19 practice the occupation of cosmetology at the nail technician level. Notwithstanding any 20 other provisions of this subsection, the board shall be authorized to waive any education 21 requirements under this subsection in cases of hardship, disability, or illness or under such 22 other circumstances as the board deems appropriate with respect to any applicant who was 23 enrolled in a board approved school or had completed a board approved study course as of 24 June 30, 2000.

25 (f.1) The high school diploma, general educational development (GED) diploma, and 26 postsecondary education or college degree requirements of this Code section shall not 27 apply to an applicant for a certificate of registration as a cosmetologist, esthetician, or nail 28 technician when that applicant is an alien legally in this country at the time of application.

29 (g) Nothing in this Code section shall be construed as preventing a person from obtaining 30 a certificate of registration for the occupation of cosmetology; at the master level, the 31 esthetician level, or the nail technician level if such person obtains his or her credit hour 32 study at a State Board of Education approved school or a technical institute under the 33 jurisdiction of the Department of Technical and Adult Education or the Department of 34 Education rather than at a board approved school.

35 (h) A person licensed to practice barbering under Chapter 7 of this title shall be eligible 36 to take the master cosmetologist examination provided for in this Code section if that 37 person completes a board approved 250 hour prescribed course in an approved

1 cosmetology school, submits a completed application, and pays the proper fees established 2 by the board."

 34 required by the Department of Education. Such persons shall also pass ~~an~~ both a written 35 and a practical examination satisfactory to the board and, upon passage thereof, shall 36 receive a license to teach cosmetology."

SECTION 3.

Said chapter is further amended by striking in its entirety Code Section 43-10-14, relating to study by persons 17 years of age and older, and inserting in lieu thereof a new Code Section 43-10-14 to read as follows:

"43-10-14.

(a) Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any person at least 17 years of age from learning the occupation of cosmetology under a master cosmetologist, provided that such cosmetologist has had at least 36 months' experience and has held a license of a master cosmetologist for at least 36 months. In addition, nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any person at least 17 years of age from learning the occupation of cosmetology under an instructor in a school of cosmetology who has been a cosmetologist for a period of at least 18 months and has registered under this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any person at least 17 years of age from learning the occupation of esthetics under a cosmetologist holding a master cosmetologist certificate or an esthetician certificate, provided that such cosmetologist has had at least 36 months' experience, or under an instructor in a school of cosmetology or school of esthetics who has been a licensed cosmetologist for a period of at least 18 months, is qualified to teach said practices, and has registered under this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any person at least 17 years of age from learning the occupation of nail care or manicuring under a cosmetologist holding a master cosmetologist certificate or a nail technician certificate, provided that such cosmetologist has had at least 36 months' experience, or under an instructor in a school of cosmetology or school of nail care who has been a licensed cosmetologist for a period of at least 18 months, is qualified to teach said practices, and has registered under this chapter. Any person registered as an apprentice under this Code section on June 30, 1997, shall be eligible to continue such apprenticeship under the person from whom that apprentice was learning the occupation of cosmetology, esthetics, or nail care or manicuring at the time of registration notwithstanding that the person under whom the apprentice was learning such occupation does not meet the 36 months' experience otherwise required by this Code section. Every shop owner shall have the responsibility for registering apprentices with the division director. The shop owner shall file a statement in writing, showing the apprentice's name and the address of the shop. The board shall have the authority to require the shop owner to furnish to the board the number of hours completed by the apprentice. The shop owner shall remit to the division director a fee in such amount as shall be set by the board by regulation for the registration of the apprentice. The apprentice shall receive a certificate of registration showing the capacity in which he or she is permitted to practice cosmetology. The certificate of registration shall be effective for a period of two years and may be renewed at the end of such period upon the filing of an

1 application on forms furnished by the division director and the payment of a renewal fee 2 in such amount as shall be set by the board by regulation. A certificate of registration 3 authorizing a person to learn the occupation of cosmetology under a cosmetologist shall 4 not be renewed more than one time; and, upon the expiration of the last certificate of 5 registration issued, such person shall not be permitted to practice in any capacity.

6 (b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subsection, the board shall be authorized 7 to waive any education requirements under this subsection in cases of hardship, disability, 8 or illness or under such other circumstances as the board deems appropriate with respect 9 to any applicant who was enrolled in a board approved school or had completed a board 10 approved study course as of June 30, 2000."

11 SECTION 4.

12 Chapter 10A of Title 43 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, the "Professional 13 Counselors, Social Workers, and Marriage and Family Therapists Licensing Law," is 14 amended by striking Code Section 43-10A-1, relating to the short title, and inserting in its 15 place the following:

16 "43-10A-1.

17 This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the 'Professional Counselors, Social 18 Workers, Mental Health Therapists, and Marriage and Family Therapists Licensing Law."

19 SECTION 5.

20 Said chapter is further amended by striking Code Section 43-10A-2, relating to legislative 21 purpose, and inserting in its place the following:

22 "43-10A-2.

23 It is declared to be the purpose of the General Assembly that the activities of certain 24 persons who utilize certain titles relating to or who practice mental health therapy, 25 professional counseling, social work, and marriage and family therapy be regulated to 26 ensure the protection of the health, safety, and welfare of the people of this state."

27 SECTION 6.

28 Said chapter is further amended by striking Code Section 43-10A-3, relating to definitions, 29 and inserting in its place the following:

30 "43-10A-3.

31 As used in this chapter, the term:

- 32 (1) 'Advertise' means, but is not limited to, the issuing of or causing to be distributed any 33 card, sign, or other device or the causing or permitting any sign or marking on or in any

1 building or structure, or in any newspaper, magazine, or directory, or on radio or 2 television.

3 (2) 'Allied profession' means the practice of medicine, psychiatric nursing, psychology, 4 or pastoral counseling.

5 (3) 'Board' means the Georgia Composite Board of Professional Counselors, Social 6 Workers, Mental Health Therapists, and Marriage and Family Therapists established by 7 this chapter.

8 (3.1) 'Commission on Rehabilitation Counselor Certification' means the national 9 certifying agency for rehabilitation counselors as recognized by the National Commission 10 for Certifying Agencies.

11 (4) 'Counseling' means those techniques used to help persons learn how to solve 12 problems and make decisions related to personal growth, vocation, family, social, and 13 other interpersonal concerns.

14 (5) 'Direction' means the ongoing administrative overseeing by an employer or superior 15 of a specialty practitioner's work. The person providing direction shall be responsible 16 for assuring the quality of the services rendered by that practitioner and shall ensure that 17 qualified supervision or intervention occurs in situations which require expertise beyond 18 that of the practitioner. Direction may be provided by any person acceptable to the 19 standards committee for that specialty in which the practitioner is working.

20 (6) 'Division director' means the director of the professional licensing boards division.
21 The division director shall serve as secretary to the board.

22 (7) 'Fee' means money or anything of value, including but not limited to a salary, offered 23 or received as compensation in return for rendering services in any specialty.

24 (8) 'Marriage and family therapy' means that specialty which evaluates and treats 25 emotional and mental problems and conditions, whether cognitive, affective, or 26 behavioral, resolves intrapersonal and interpersonal conflicts, and changes perception, 27 attitudes, and behavior; all within the context of marital and family systems. Marriage 28 and family therapy includes, without being limited to, individual, group, couple, sexual, 29 family, and divorce therapy. Marriage and family therapy involves an applied 30 understanding of the dynamics of marital and family systems, including individual 31 psychodynamics, the use of assessment instruments that evaluate marital and family 32 functioning, and the use of psychotherapy and counseling.

33 (8.1) 'Mental health therapist' means a person licensed to practice mental health therapy 34 under this chapter.

35 (8.2) 'Mental health therapy' means the performance of that specialty which evaluates 36 and treats persons with behavioral, affective, cognitive, and interpersonal problems or 37 conditions, or seeks to prevent such problems or conditions, or seeks to enhance behavior

1 and mental health. The means by which these are accomplished include, but are not 2 limited to, applying empirically derived and validated psychological principles and 3 procedures, using assessment instruments under the supervision of a licensed 4 psychologist, which the mental health therapist is qualified to employ by virtue of 5 education and training, conducting interviews, utilizing individual or group techniques 6 while engaging in psychotherapy, and utilization and interpretation of psychological 7 research.

8 (9) 'Practice a specialty' or 'practice' means to offer to render for a fee or to render for a 9 fee any service involving the application of principles, methods, or procedures of 10 professional counseling, social work, mental health therapy, or marriage and family 11 therapy.

12 (10) 'Professional counseling' means that specialty which utilizes counseling techniques 13 based on principles, methods, and procedures of counseling that assist people in 14 identifying and resolving personal, social, vocational, intrapersonal and interpersonal 15 concerns; utilizes counseling and psychotherapy to evaluate and treat emotional and 16 mental problems and conditions, whether cognitive, behavioral, or affective; administers 17 and interprets educational and vocational assessment instruments and other tests which 18 the professional counselor is qualified to employ by virtue of education, training, and 19 experience; utilizes information and community resources for personal, social, or 20 vocational development; utilizes individual and group techniques for facilitating problem 21 solving, decision making, and behavior change; utilizes functional assessment and 22 vocational planning and guidance for persons requesting assistance in adjustment to a 23 disability or disabling condition; utilizes referral for persons who request counseling 24 services; and utilizes and interprets counseling research.

25 (11) 'Psychotherapeutic techniques' means those specific techniques involving the 26 in-depth exploration and treatment of interpersonal and intrapersonal dynamics but shall 27 not include the performance of those activities exclusively reserved to any other business 28 or profession by any other chapter of this title.

29 (12) 'Recognized educational institution' means any educational institution which grants 30 a bachelor's, master's, specialist, or doctoral degree and which is recognized by an 31 accrediting body acceptable to the board.

32 (13) 'Social work' means that specialty which helps individuals, marriages, families, 33 couples, groups, or communities to enhance or restore their capacity for functioning: by 34 assisting in the obtaining or improving of tangible social and health services; by 35 providing psychosocial evaluations, in-depth analyses and determinations of the nature 36 and status of emotional, cognitive, mental, behavioral, and interpersonal problems or 37 conditions; and by counseling and psychotherapeutic techniques, casework, social work

1 advocacy, psychotherapy, and treatment in a variety of settings which include but are not 2 limited to mental and physical health facilities, child and family service agencies, or 3 private practice.

4 (14) 'Specialty' means social work, marriage and family therapy, mental health therapy, 5 or professional counseling, or any combination thereof.

6 (15) 'Supervision' means the direct clinical review, for the purpose of training or 7 teaching, by a supervisor of a specialty practitioner's interaction with a client. It may 8 include, without being limited to, the review of case presentations, audio tapes, video 9 tapes, and direct observation in order to promote the development of the practitioner's 10 clinical skills.

11 (16) 'Supervisor' means a person who meets the requirements established by the 12 standards committee for that specialty which is being supervised and who is either 13 licensed under this chapter or is a psychiatrist or a psychologist.

14 (17) 'The Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education' 15 means the national accrediting agency for marriage and family therapy education as 16 recognized by the United States Department of Education.

17 (18) 'The Council on Social Work Education' means the national accrediting agency for 18 social work education as recognized by the United States Department of Education and 19 the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation."

20 SECTION 7.

21 Said chapter is further amended by striking Code Section 43-10A-4, creating the Georgia 22 Composite Board of Professional Counselors, Social Workers, and Marriage and Family 23 Therapists, and inserting in its place the following:

24 "43-10A-4.

3 (3.1) Three members licensed as mental health therapists, two of whom shall be 4 designated at the time of their appointment to serve an initial term ending December 31 5 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which this paragraph 6 becomes effective, and one of whom shall be designated to serve an initial term ending 7 December 31 of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which this 8 paragraph becomes effective.

9 (4) One member who shall represent the public at large and have no professional 10 connection with any specialty to serve an initial term ending December 31, 1988.

11 (b) All members of the board shall be appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation 12 by the Senate. Those members first appointed to the board under this chapter shall serve 13 for initial terms of office beginning September 1, 1985, except that those first appointed 14 as mental health therapists shall serve for initial terms of office beginning on the sixtieth 15 day following the date this subsection becomes effective. Those members of the board 16 required to be licensed and who are first appointed to the board shall be persons who are 17 practicing in the designated specialty at the time of appointment and who must be licensed 18 therein as required within 12 months following their appointment.

19 (c) After the initial terms specified in subsection (a) of this Code section, members of the 20 board shall take office on the first day of January immediately following the expired term 21 of that office and shall serve for a term of three years and until the appointment and 22 qualification of their respective successors. No member shall serve on the board more than 23 two consecutive terms.

24 (d) Members of the board may be removed by the Governor, after notice and opportunity 25 for hearing, for incompetence, neglect of duty, unprofessional conduct, or conviction of 26 any felony.

27 (e) Vacancies occurring on the board, other than those caused by expiration of a term of 28 office, shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment to the position 29 vacated for the remainder of the unexpired term and until a successor is appointed and 30 qualified.

31 (f) Any person appointed to the board when the Senate is not in regular session may serve 32 on the board without Senate confirmation until the Senate acts upon that appointment."
