

Senate Bill 34

By: Senators Thomas of the 2nd, Tate of the 38th, Seay of the 34th and Brown of the 26th

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Article 5 of Chapter 4 of Title 46 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated,
2 known as the "Natural Gas Competition and Deregulation Act," so as to require the Public
3 Service Commission to declare an emergency and regulate the delivery of natural gas to retail 4 customers in this state; to provide for the applicability of certain laws with respect to the 5 Public Service Commission's regulation of the delivery of natural gas to retail customers in 6 this state; to provide for contracts between electing distribution companies and marketers, 7 between marketers and retail customers, between electing distribution companies and the 8 regulated provider, and between the regulated provider and the Public Service Commission
9 or the state; to provide that upon the expiration of certain contracts, electing distribution 10 companies shall be prohibited from distributing natural gas to certain marketers and the 11 regulated provider; to provide for the assignment of retail customers whose marketer no
12 longer sells natural gas in intrastate commerce to retail customers; to authorize the merger 13 of an electing distribution company and its affiliate marketer; to provide for transfer and 14 distribution of moneys in the universal service fund; to provide that nothing in this Act shall 15 be construed to impair the obligation of any contract; to authorize the Public Service
16 Commission to promulgate and adopt rules and regulations; to provide for related matters;
17 to provide an effective date; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

18 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

19 SECTION 1.

20 Article 5 of Chapter 4 of Title 46 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, known as the 21 "Natural Gas Competition and Deregulation Act," is amended by adding following Code
22 Section 46-4-166 a new Code Section 46-4-167 to read as follows:

23 "46-4-167.

24 (a) On July 1, 2003, the Public Service Commission is required to declare an emergency 25 in the delivery of natural gas in this state. After the declaration of such emergency, the 26 alternative form of regulation of the natural gas industry shall no longer be effective and

1 Code Sections 46-2-23.1 and 46-4-150 through 46-4-166 shall no longer be applicable to 2 regulation of the natural gas industry, gas companies, and persons or companies selling 3 natural gas in intrastate commerce to retail customers in this state. After the declaration of 4 such an emergency, electing distribution companies, marketers, and the regulated provider
5 selected in accordance with Code Section 46-4-166, heretofore governed by the provisions
6 of this article, shall be governed by provisions of law other than Code Sections 46-2-23.1 7 and 46-4-150 through 46-4-166 and by rules and regulations of the commission not in 8 conflict with such other laws. Except as otherwise provided in this Code section, contracts
9 between an electing distribution company and a marketer, between a marketer and a retail 10 customer, between an electing distribution company and the regulated provider, between 11 the regulated provider and a retail customer, and between the regulated provider and the 12 Public Service Commission or the State of Georgia shall remain valid and enforceable 13 unless otherwise terminated by the parties thereto.

14 (b) Upon the declaration of an emergency as provided in subsection (a) of this Code 15 section, an electing distribution company and any marketer may, upon mutual agreement, 16 elect to terminate a contract which provides for the distribution of natural gas from the 17 electing distribution company to the marketer. Upon such a mutual agreement, any retail 18 customers of such marketer, which ceases to engage in the business of providing natural 19 gas in intrastate commerce to retail customers in this state, shall be assigned to the electing 20 distribution company which distributed natural gas to the marketer or to such gas
21 company's affiliate marketer. Any such marketer which ceases to engage in such business 22 shall be required to furnish all records and billing information relating to its retail 23 customers to the gas company or its affiliate marketer to which the retail customers are 24 assigned.

25 (c) On and after the date of the declaration of an emergency as provided in subsection (a)
26 of this Code section, marketers shall be prohibited from renewing a contract with a retail 27 customer or executing a new contract with a retail customer the terms of which would 28 extend beyond the date of the expiration of the contract existing on the date of the 29 declaration of an emergency between the electing distribution company and the marketer
30 which provides for the distribution of natural gas from the electing distribution company 31 to the marketer.

32 (d) After the declaration of an emergency as provided in subsection (a) of this Code
33 section and upon the expiration of any contract between an electing distribution company 34 and a marketer which provides for the distribution of natural gas from the electing 35 distribution company to the marketer, other than a contract with the electing distribution 36 company's affiliate marketer, the electing distribution company shall be prohibited from

1 any further distribution to such marketer of any natural gas to be resold in intrastate
2 commerce to retail customers in this state.

3 (e) On and after the date of the declaration of an emergency as provided in subsection (a)
4 of this Code section, the regulated provider selected in accordance with Code Section 5 46-4-166 shall be prohibited from executing a contract or renewing a contract with the 6 electing distribution company that provides for the distribution of natural gas from the 7 electing distribution company to such regulated provider the terms of which would extend 8 beyond the date of the termination of any contract between such regulated provider and the 9 Public Service Commission or the State of Georgia for the sale of natural gas in Georgia
10 in accordance with Code Section 46-4-166.

11 (f) On and after the date of the declaration of an emergency as provided in subsection (a)
12 of this Code section, the regulated provider selected in accordance with Code Section 13 46-4-166 shall be prohibited from executing a contract or renewing a contract with any 14 retail customer in Georgia that provides for the distribution of natural gas to the retail 15 customer the terms of which would extend beyond the date of the termination of any 16 contract between such regulated provider and the Public Service Commission or the State
17 of Georgia for the sale of natural gas in Georgia in accordance with Code Section 18 46-4-166.

19 (g) On and after the date of the declaration of an emergency as provided in subsection (a)
20 of this Code section and upon the expiration of any contract between the regulated provider
21 and an electing distribution company that provides for the distribution of natural gas from 22 the electing distribution company and the expiration of any contract between such 23 regulated provider and the Public Service Commission or the State of Georgia for the sale
24 of natural gas in Georgia in accordance with Code Section 46-4-166, the electing 25 distribution company shall be prohibited from any further distribution to such regulated 26 provider of any natural gas to be resold in intrastate commerce to retail customers in this 27 state.

28 (h) After the declaration of an emergency as provided in subsection (a) of this Code 29 section, an electing distribution company and its affiliate marketer may merge into a single 30 gas company to be regulated in the same manner as gas companies were regulated prior to 31 the issuance of a certificate of authority as provided in Code Section 46-4-153 and the 32 implementation of this article. Such a gas company shall be regulated by provisions of law 33 other than Code Sections 46-2-23.1 and 46-4-150 through 46-4-166 and by rules and 34 regulations of the commission not in conflict with such other laws.

35 (i) On and after the date of the declaration of an emergency as provided in subsection (a)
36 of this Code section and upon the expiration of any contract between the regulated provider
37 and an electing distribution company that provides for the distribution of natural gas from

1 the electing distribution company and the expiration of any contract between such
2 regulated provider and the Public Service Commission or the State of Georgia for the sale
3 of natural gas in Georgia in accordance with Code Section 46-4-166, any moneys in the 4 universal service fund created in accordance with Code Section 46-4-161 shall be 5 transferred to the Department of Human Resources for distribution to low and fixed income
6 consumers of natural gas in accordance with Code Section 46-1-5.

7 (j) The Public Service Commission is authorized to promulgate and adopt rules and 8 regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this Code section.

9 (k) Nothing in this Code section shall be construed to impair the obligation of any 10 contract."

11 SECTION 2.

12 This Act shall become effective July 1, 2003.

13 SECTION 3.

14 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
