

Senate Bill 209

By: Senators Henson of the 41st and Stokes of the 43rd

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To provide for the DeKalb County Board of Registrations and Elections; to provide for the 2 board as a successor to the board created under prior law; to provide for the powers and
3 duties of the board; to provide for the appointment, resignation, and removal of its members;
4 to provide an administrative office for elections and registrations; to staff such office with 5 an administrative director, clerical assistants, and other employees; to provide compensation
6 for administrative personnel and members of the board; to provide an effective date; to repeal
7 conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

9 SECTION 1.

10 There shall be a DeKalb County Board of Registrations and Elections which shall have 11 jurisdiction over the conduct of primaries and elections and the registration of electors in 12 such county, in accordance with the provisions of this Act. The board shall be a continuation 13 of and a successor to the board created under prior law.

14 SECTION 2.

15 Such board shall be composed of five members. The board members in office on the 16 effective date of this Act shall serve out the remainder of the terms for which they were 17 selected. Each member of the board shall be an elector and a resident of the county and shall 18 be selected in the following manner:

19 (a) Two members shall be appointed by the chairperson of the county executive 20 committee of the political party whose candidates at the last preceding regular general
21 election held for the election of all members of the General Assembly received the largest 22 number of votes in this state for members of the General Assembly, and two members shall 23 be appointed by the chairperson of the county executive committee of the political party
24 whose candidates at such election received the next largest number of such votes; provided, 25 however, each such appointment shall have been ratified by a majority of the members of

1 each respective executive committee voting at a regularly scheduled meeting of such 2 executive committee or a meeting duly called and held for such purposes. In the event such
3 appointments are not ratified by a majority of the members of such executive committees
4 at least 60 days preceding the date on which such members are to take office, then the 5 members of the respective executive committees may elect such members by a two-thirds
6 majority of the membership of such executive committees at a regularly scheduled meeting
7 or at a meeting duly called and held for such purposes. In the event the members of said
8 executive committees fail to elect such members at least 30 days preceding the date on 9 which such members are to take office, then such members shall be appointed in 10 accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of this Act.

11 (b) The fifth member of the board shall be appointed by a majority vote of the other four 12 members of the board. Said fifth member shall be appointed within 30 days of the party
13 appointed members taking office. The fifth member so selected shall be deemed to be a 14 member at large. Any appointment made under the provisions of this paragraph shall also 15 be entered upon the minutes of the governing authority. The appointment of the member 16 at large shall not be governed by the provisions of Section 5 of this Act.

17 SECTION 3.

18 No person who holds public office, whether elective or appointive, shall be eligible to serve 19 as a member of the board during the term of such office, and the position of membership of 20 any member shall be deemed vacant upon such member qualifying as a candidate for any 21 elective public office. Neither the acting elections supervisor nor the elections supervisor 22 shall be eligible to serve as a member of the board, nor shall either of them be appointed or 23 elected to serve as a member of the board.

24 SECTION 4.

25 The appointment or election of each appointed or elected member shall be made by the 26 respective appointing or electing authority by filing an affidavit with the clerk of the superior 27 court no later than 30 days preceding the date at which such member is to take office that 28 states the name and residential address of the person appointed or elected and certifying that 29 such member has been duly appointed or elected as provided in this Act. The appointment
30 of the fifth member of the board, known as the member at large, shall be made by the other
31 four members of the board by filing an affidavit with the clerk of the superior court no later
32 than 15 days preceding the date at which such member is to take office that states the name 33 and residential address of the person appointed and certifying that such member has been 34 duly appointed as provided in this Act. The clerk of the superior court shall record each such 35 certification on the minutes of the court and shall certify the name of each appointed or

1 elected member to the Secretary of State and provide for the issuance of appropriate
2 commissions to the members as provided by law for registrars.

3
4 SECTION 5.

5 In the event any appointing or electing authority fails (1) to make a regular appointment or 6 election within the times specified in Section 2 or Section 4 or (2) to make an interim
7 appointment or election to fill a vacancy within 90 days after the creation of such vacancy,
8 such regular member or the member to fill such vacancy shall be appointed forthwith by the 9 governing authority of said county. This section shall not apply to the selection process of 10 the member at large.

11 SECTION 6.

12 Each appointed or elected member of the board shall:

13 (1) Serve for a term of two years and until his or her successor is appointed or elected and 14 qualified, except in the event of resignation or removal as hereinafter provided;

15 (2) Be eligible to succeed himself or herself and have the right to resign at any time by 16 giving written notice of his or her resignation to the respective appointing or electing 17 authority and to the clerk of the superior court; and

18 (3) Be subject to removal from the board at any time for cause, after notice and hearing,
19 in the same manner and by the same authority as is provided for the removal of registrars.

20 SECTION 7.

21 In the event a vacancy occurs in the office of any appointed or elected member before the 22 expiration of his or her term by removal, death, resignation, or otherwise, the respective 23 appointing or electing authority shall appoint or elect a successor to serve for the remainder
24 of the unexpired term. The clerk of the superior court shall be notified of interim
25 appointments or elections and record and certify such appointments or elections in the same
26 manner as the regular appointment or election of members.

27 SECTION 8.

28 (a) The board members shall take office on July 1 of odd numbered years. The board shall 29 take no official action until the member at large has been certified to the clerk of the superior 30 court.

31 (b) Before entering upon his or her duties, each member shall take substantially the same
32 oath as required by law for registrars and shall have the same privileges from arrest.

SECTION 9.

The board shall:

(1) With regard to the preparation for and conduct of elections, succeed to and exercise all duties and powers granted to and incumbent upon the judge of the probate court by general law of whatever nature and kind;

(2) With regard to preparation for and conduct of primaries, succeed to all the duties and powers granted to and incumbent upon the judge of the probate court by general law of whatever nature and kind; and

(3) With regard to the registration of electors, succeed to and exercise all powers, duties, and responsibilities conferred upon and incumbent upon the board of registrars pursuant to general law of whatever nature and kind.

SECTION 10.

Any rule or regulation promulgated by a county executive committee with regard to the conduct of primaries shall be null and void if in conflict with a valid rule or regulation of the Board of Registrations and Elections.

SECTION 11.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to require or prohibit joint primaries or to require or prohibit the governing authority or any other public agency to bear any expense of conducting primaries not otherwise required by law.

SECTION 12.

With the consent of the governing authority, the board shall be authorized to expend public funds for the purpose of preparing and distributing material solely to adequately inform and instruct electors of the county with regard to elections. No material distributed by the board shall contain or express, in any manner or form, any commentary or expression of opinion or request for support with respect to any political issue or matter of political concern.

SECTION 13.

(a) The board shall be authorized and empowered to organize itself, elect its officers, determine its procedural rules and regulations, adopt bylaws, specify the functions and duties of its employees, and otherwise take such action as is appropriate to the management of the affairs committed to its supervision; provided, however, that no such action shall conflict with state law.

(b) Action and decision by the board shall be by a majority of the members of the board.

1 (c) The board shall maintain a written record of policy decisions that shall be amended to 2 include additions or deletions. Such written record shall be made available for the public to 3 review.

4 SECTION 14.

5 This board shall fix and establish by appropriate resolution entered on its minutes directives
6 governing the execution of matters within its jurisdiction. The board shall hold regular 7 monthly meetings to be held at the county courthouse. Any special called meetings, held 8 pursuant to the bylaws adopted by the board, shall be held only after written notification of 9 the time and place of such meeting has been communicated in writing to the person
10 designated by the county governing authority to provide public information. All meetings of 11 whatever kind of the board shall be open to the public.

12 SECTION 15.

13 The board shall be responsible for the selection and appointment of an administrative 14 director, to be known as the elections supervisor, to administer and supervise conduct of 15 elections, primaries, and registration of electors for the county. Compensation shall be 16 determined in accordance with and under the merit system established by the governing 17 authority of the county. Compensation for the elections supervisor shall be paid by the 18 governing authority under the merit system wholly from county funds.

19 SECTION 16.

20 The governing authority of the county shall expend public funds to provide the elections
21 supervisor with such proper and suitable administrative offices and with such clerical 22 assistants and other employees as the governing authority shall deem appropriate in 23 accordance with the merit system. Compensation for such administrative personnel shall be 24 paid by the governing authority under the merit system wholly from county funds.

25 SECTION 17.

26 The board shall be responsible for the selection, appointment, and training of poll workers
27 in elections. Such workers shall be appointed, insofar as practical, from lists provided by the 28 county executive committees of the two major political parties appointing members to the 29 Board of Registrations and Elections.

30 SECTION 18.

31 Compensation for members on the board shall be set at $100.00 a month. Said compensation
32 shall be paid by the governing authority wholly from county funds.

1 SECTION 19.

2 The words "election," "elector," "political party," "primary," "public office," "special 3 election," and "special primary" shall have the same meaning ascribed to those words by 4 general state law, as amended, unless otherwise clearly apparent from the text of this Act.

5 SECTION 20.

6 This Act shall become effective upon its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law
7 without such approval.
