28 party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising ~~him, or both,~~ the party or any other

30 procurement of the conduct at issue to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's 31 fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially 32 justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust."

33 "(d) Failure of party to attend at own deposition or serve answers to interrogatories or 34 respond to request for inspection.

35 (1) If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated

 9 ~~him, or both,~~ the party or any other person or entity that has taken an active part in the 12 failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses 13 unjust.

14 (2) The failure to act described in the provisions of this chapter which relate to 15 depositions and discovery may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought 16 is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as 17 provided by subsection (c) of Code Section 9-11-26."

18 SECTION 8.

19 Said title is further amended by striking subsections (a), (b), and (e) of Code Section 9-15-14,

 21 inserting in lieu thereof respectively, the following:

22 "(a) In any civil action in any court of record of this state, ~~reasonable and necessary~~
 23 ~~attorney's fees and expenses of litigation~~ sanctions under subsection (e) of this Code 24 section shall be awarded to any party against whom another party has asserted a claim, 25 defense, or other position with respect to which there existed such a complete absence of 26 any justiciable issue of law or fact that it could not be reasonably believed that a court 27 would accept the asserted claim, defense, or other position, or when another party has 28 unreasonably and vexatiously expanded the proceedings. ~~Attorney's fees and expenses so~~ 29 ~~awarded~~ Sanctions under subsection (e) of this Code section shall be assessed against the 30 party asserting such claim, defense, or other position, ~~or~~ against that party's attorney, 31 against any other person or entity that has taken an active part in the initiation, 32 continuation, or procurement of the conduct at issue, or against ~~both~~ all of them in such 33 manner as is just.

34 (b) The court may shall assess ~~reasonable and necessary attorney's fees and expenses of~~ 35 ~~litigation~~ sanctions as provided in subsection (e) of this Code section in any civil action in 36 any court of record if, upon the motion of any party or the court itself, it finds that an

1 attorney or a party, an attorney, or any other person or entity that has taken an active part 2 in the initiation, continuation, or procurement of the conduct at issue, or all of them, 3 brought or defended an action, or any part thereof, that lacked substantial justification or 4 that the action, or any part thereof, was interposed for delay or harassment, or if it finds that 5 an attorney or a party, an attorney, or any other person or entity that has taken an active 6 part in the initiation, continuation, or procurement of the conduct at issue, or all of them,
7 unnecessarily expanded the proceeding by other improper conduct, including, but not 8 limited to, abuses of discovery procedures available under Chapter 11 of this title, the 9 'Georgia Civil Practice Act.' As used in this Code section, 'lacked substantial justification' 10 means substantially frivolous, substantially groundless, or substantially vexatious."

11 ~~"(e)(1) Attorney's fees and expenses under this Code section may be requested by motion~~ 12 ~~at any time during the course of the action but not later than 45 days after the final~~ 13 ~~disposition of the action. A motion for sanctions under this Code section shall be made~~ 14 ~~separately from other motions or requests and shall describe the specific conduct alleged~~ 15 ~~to violate subsection (a) or (b) of this Code section or subsection (b) of Code Section~~
16 ~~9-11-11.~~

17 (2) A motion shall not be filed with or presented to the court unless, within 30 days after 18 service of the pleading or other document at issue, the movant has delivered to the 19 nonmovant written notice of the movant's intent to file the motion. Upon receipt of such 20 notice, the nonmovant shall have ten days to withdraw or appropriately correct the 21 challenged pleading or other document. If the nonmovant refuses or fails to withdraw or 22 appropriately correct the challenged pleading or other document, the movant shall then 23 have ten days from the date of such refusal or failure to file a motion under this Code
24 section.

25 (3) If warranted, the court shall award to the party prevailing on the motion the 26 reasonable expenses and attorney's fees incurred in presenting or opposing the motion.
27 Absent exceptional circumstances, a law firm shall be held jointly responsible for 28 violations committed by its partners, associates, and employees.

29 (4) On its own initiative, the court may enter an order describing the specific conduct
30 that appears to warrant sanctions under this Code section and directing an attorney, law 31 firm, party, or any other person or entity that has taken an active part in the initiation, 32 continuation, or procurement of the conduct at issue to show cause why sanctions should 33 not be imposed.

34 (5) A sanction imposed pursuant to this Code section shall be sufficient to deter
35 repetition of such conduct or comparable conduct by others similarly situated. Subject 36 to the limitations in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph, the sanction may 37 consist of or include directives of a nonmonetary nature as described in subparagraph (C)

1 of this paragraph, an order to pay a penalty into court, or, if imposed on motion and 2 warranted for effective deterrence, an order to pay a penalty into court or an order 3 directing payment to the movant of some or all of the reasonable attorney's fees and other 4 expenses incurred as a direct result of the violation; provided, however, that:

5 (A) Monetary sanctions may not be awarded against a represented party for a violation 6 of paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of Code Section 9-11-11;

7 (B) Monetary sanctions may not be awarded on the court's initiative unless the court
8 issues its order to show cause before a voluntary dismissal or settlement of the claims 9 made by or against the party which is, or whose attorneys are, to be sanctioned; and

10 (C) In addition to any monetary penalties, the court may, in its discretion, impose 11 additional sanctions as are just and, among others, the following:

12 (i) An order refusing to allow the party to support or oppose designated claims or 13 defenses or prohibiting him or her from introducing designated matters in evidence;

14 and

15 (ii) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, dismissing the action or 16 proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgement by default against the 17 violating party.

18 (6) When imposing sanctions, the court shall describe the conduct determined to warrant
19 sanctions and explain the basis for the sanction imposed. Sanctions may not be imposed 20 under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (5) of this subsection unless the court issues its 21 order to show cause before a voluntary dismissal or settlement of the claims made by or 22 against the party which is, or whose attorneys are, to be sanctioned."

23 SECTION 9.

24 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
