 2 to the parents, guardian, or other custodian either upon the occurrence of specified 3 circumstances or in the discretion of the court. Any such retransfer of physical custody

 21 from the home, the results of such search documented in writing and filed with the court

 23 temporary legal custody of the Department of Human Resources or any other appropriate 24 entity or person; or"

25 SECTION 3.

26 Said chapter is further amended by striking subsections (b), (d), (i), (k), (l), and (o) of Code 27 Section 15-11-58, relating to reunification efforts, and inserting in their place new 28 subsections (b), (d), (i), (k), (l), and (o), respectively, to read as follows:

29 "(b) Within 30 days of the date a child who is placed in the custody of the Department of 30 Human Resources is removed from the home and at each subsequent review of the 31 disposition order, the Division of Family and Children Services of the Department of 32 Human Resources must submit a written report to the court which shall either include a 33 case plan for a reunification of the family or include a statement of the factual basis or 34 bases for determining that a plan for reunification is not appropriate. Such report shall 35 become a discrete part of the case record in a format determined by the Division of Family
 36 and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources and shall be made available

1 to the parents or guardian of the foster child. The contents of the report shall be determined
 2 at a meeting to be held by the Division of Family and Children Services of the Department 3 of Human Resources in consultation with the judicial citizen review panel, if one is 4 designated by the court for such purpose, and the parents and children, when available. The 5 parents shall be given written notice of the meeting at least five days in advance and shall 6 be advised that the report will be submitted to ~~become an order of the court for~~ 7 consideration to become an order of the court. The report submitted to the court shall also 8 contain any dissenting recommendations of the judicial citizen review panel, if applicable, 9 and any recommendations of the parents, if such are available."

10 "(d) If the submitted report contains a proposed plan for reunification services, and no 11 hearing is requested as provided in this Code section, the court shall enter a dispositional 12 order or supplemental order incorporating all elements of the plan for reunification services 13 which the court finds essential to reunification of the child with his or her family, 14 specifying what must be accomplished by all parties before reunification of the family can 15 be achieved. If the report contains a plan for reunification services, a copy of the report 16 must be transmitted to the parents at the same time the report is transmitted to the court, 17 along with written notice that the report will be ~~made the order of~~ considered by the court 18 without a hearing unless, within five days from the date the copy of the report was 19 received, the parents request a hearing before the court to review the report. The Division 20 of Family and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources shall provide the 21 custodian of the child, the foster parents of the child, and any preadoptive parents or 22 relatives providing care for the child with a copy of those portions of the court approved 23 plan that involve the permanency goal and the services to be provided to the child. The 24 provisions of subsection (p) of this Code section concerning notice, opportunity to be 25 heard, authority of the court, and content of the court's order are applicable to proceedings 26 under this subsection."

27 "(i)(1) If, after a judicial hearing in which the court finds that reunification is not in the 28 best interests of the child and custody is granted to a relative, the custody order shall 29 remain in effect until the child's eighteenth birthday unless modified following a petition 30 for modification by a party pursuant to Code Section 15-11-40. Within 36 months of the 31 custody order and every 36 months thereafter, a probation officer, judicial citizen review 32 panel established by the court, or other person or agency designated by the court shall, 33 after study or review, submit a report to the court addressing whether the relative with 34 custody continues to be qualified to receive and care for the child. A copy of the report 35 shall be mailed to the parents at their last known address. If the court has entered an order 36 finding that reasonable efforts to reunify a child with his or her family would be 37 detrimental to the child in accordance with subsection (h) of this Code section and if the

1 court finds that referral for termination of parental rights and adoption is not in the best 2 interest of the child, the court may, upon proper petition, enter a custody order which 3 shall remain in effect until the child's eighteenth birthday:

4 (A) Placing the child in the custody of a relative of the child if such a person is willing 5 and, after study by the probation officer or other person or agency designated by the 6 court, is found by the court to be qualified to receive and care for the child;

7 (B) Placing the child in the custody of any nonrelative individual who, after study by 8 the probation officer or other person or agency designated by the court, is found by the 9 court to be qualified to receive and care for the child;

10 (C) Placing the child in the custody of a suitable individual custodian in another state 11 pursuant to the provisions of Code Section 15-11-89; or 12 (D) In the case where the court has found a compelling reason that a placement 13 pursuant to subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of this paragraph is not in the child's best 14 interest, placing the child in the custody of an agency or organization licensed or 15 otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for the child which is operated 16 in a manner that provides such care, guidance, and control as would be provided in a 17 family home as defined in the court's order.

18 Such order may be modified following a petition for modification by a party or upon 19 motion of the court pursuant to Code Section 15-11-40.

20 (2) A probation officer, judicial citizen review panel established by the court, or other 21 person or agency designated by the court shall, after study or review, submit a report to 22 the court addressing whether the custodian to whom custody of a child has been given 23 pursuant to this Code section continues to be qualified to receive and care for the child 24 within:

25 (A) Thirty-six months of an order placing a child in the custody of a relative pursuant 26 to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of this subsection and every 36 months thereafter; 27 or

28 (B) Twelve months of an order placing a child in the custody of a nonrelative, an 29 out-of-state custodian, or an agency or organization licensed or otherwise authorized 30 by law to receive and provide care for the child pursuant to subparagraph (B), (C), or 31 (D) of paragraph (1) of this subsection and every 12 months thereafter.

32 (3) Whenever a child is placed in the custody of an agency or organization licensed or 33 otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for the child pursuant to 34 subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of this subsection, such agency or organization shall 35 be charged with the responsibility of notifying the court within ten days in the event its 36 license is placed on probation, suspended, revoked, or surrendered and, in such event, the

1 court shall conduct a judicial review within ten days of such notification to determine 2 whether another placement should be made for the child."

3 "(k) Except as otherwise provided by law, an order of disposition placing a deprived child 4 in foster care under the supervision of the Division of Family and Children Services of the 5 Department of Human Resources shall continue in force for 12 months after the date the 6 child is considered to have entered foster care or until sooner terminated by the court. For 7 the purposes of this Code section, the date the child is considered to have entered foster 8 care shall be the date of the first judicial finding that the child has been subjected to child 9 abuse or neglect, or the date that is 60 days after the date on which the child is removed 10 from the home, whichever is earlier. All cases of children in foster care in the custody of 11 the Division of Family and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources shall 12 be initially reviewed within 90 days of the entering of the dispositional order but no later 13 than six months following the child's placement and shall be conducted by the juvenile 14 court judge, by an associate juvenile court judge or judge pro tempore, or by judicial citizen 15 review panels established by the court, as the court directs, meeting such standards and 16 using such procedures as shall be established by court rule by the Supreme Court of 17 Georgia, with the advice and consent of the Council of Juvenile Court Judges. At the time 18 of each review of every case of a child in foster care in the custody of the Division of 19 Family and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources, a representative of 20 the Division of Family and Children Services shall notify the court whether such division 21 intends to proceed with the termination of parental rights at that time. If such division 22 indicates that it does not intend to petition for the termination of parental rights at that time, 23 the court may appoint a guardian ad litem and charge such guardian with the duty of 24 determining whether termination proceedings should be commenced. In the event the 25 review is conducted by judicial citizen review panels, the panel shall transmit its report, 26 including its findings and recommendations and those of such division, along with such 27 division's proposed revised plan for reunification or other permanency plan, if necessary, 28 to the court and the parents within five days after the review. Any party may request a 29 hearing on the proposed revised plan in writing within five days after receiving a copy of 30 such plan. The Division of Family and Children Services of the Department of Human 31 Resources shall provide the custodian of the child, the foster parents of the child, and any 32 preadoptive parents or relatives providing care for the child with a copy of those portions 33 of the report of the judicial citizen review panel that involve the recommended permanency 34 goal and the recommended services to be provided to the child. Following such initial 35 review, additional periodic reviews shall be held at six-month intervals. ~~The foster parents,~~ 36 ~~if any, of a child and any preadoptive parent or relative providing care for the child shall~~ 37 ~~be provided with notice of and an opportunity to be heard in any review or hearing to be~~

1 ~~held with respect to the child, except that this provision shall not be construed to require~~ 2 ~~that any foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative providing care for the child be made~~ 3 ~~a party to such a review or hearing solely on the basis of such notice and opportunity to be~~ 4 ~~heard. The provisions of subsection (p) of this Code section concerning notice, opportunity~~ 5 ~~to be heard, authority of the court, and content of the court's order are applicable to~~ 6 ~~proceedings under this subsection.~~

7 (1) If no hearing is requested or scheduled by the court on its own motion, the court shall 8 review the proposed revised plan and enter a supplemental order incorporating a revised 9 plan as part of its disposition in the case. In the event that a hearing is held, the court shall, 10 after hearing evidence, enter a supplemental order incorporating all elements that the court 11 finds essential in the proposed revised plan. The provisions of subsection (p) of this Code 12 section concerning notice, opportunity to be heard, authority of the court, and content of 13 the court's order are applicable to proceedings under this subsection. The judge's 14 supplemental order shall be entered within a reasonable time from the conclusion of the 15 hearing or expiration of the time for the hearing to be requested and shall also provide one 16 of the following:

17 (1) That the child return to the home of his or her parents, legal guardian, or custodian 18 with or without court imposed conditions;

19 (2) That the child continue in the current custodial placement and that the current 20 placement is appropriate for the child's needs; or

21 (3) That the child continue in the current custodial placement but that the current 22 placement plan is no longer appropriate for the child's needs and direct the department 23 to devise another plan within available resources. The new plan must be submitted within 24 ten days for court approval. Copies of any court approved revised plan shall be furnished 25 to all parties. The Division of Family and Children Services of the Department of Human 26 Resources shall provide the custodian of the child, the foster parents of the child, and any 27 preadoptive parents or relatives providing care for the child with a copy of those portions 28 of the court approved revised plan that involve the permanency goal and the services to 29 be provided to the child.

30 In the event that the judicial citizen review panel determines that the parents have 31 unjustifiably failed to comply with the ordered plan designed to reunite the family and that 32 such failure is significant enough to warrant consideration of termination of parental rights, 33 the panel may make a recommendation to the guardian ad litem of the child, the Division
 34 of Family and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources, and the intake 35 officer of the court that a petition for termination of parental rights should be prepared. Any 36 such party or officer of the court shall file a petition if, upon examination, they find 37 sufficient evidence. In the event that no guardian ad litem has been appointed when the 1 judicial citizen review panel recommends that a petition to terminate parental rights be 2 filed, the court shall have the authority to appoint a guardian ad litem who shall have the 3 duty to determine whether termination proceedings should be commenced."

4 "(o)(1) With respect to each child in the custody of the Department of Human Resources, 5 a permanency hearing shall be held no later than 30 days after the Division of Family and 6 Children Services of the Department of Human Resources has submitted a written report 7 to the court which does not contain a plan for reunification services as provided in 8 subsection (j) of this Code section, or no later than 12 months after the child is considered 9 to have entered foster care, whichever comes first. Thereafter, a permanency hearing 10 shall be held not less frequently than every 12 months during the time the child continues 11 in the custody of the Department of Human Resources. A permanency hearing may be 12 held by the court at the time of the hearing on a motion to extend custody permitted by 13 subsection (n) of this Code section. The provisions of subsection (p) of this Code section 14 concerning notice, opportunity to be heard, authority of the court, and content of the 15 court's order are applicable to proceedings under this paragraph.

16 ~~(1)~~(2) At the time of the permanency hearing, the Division of Family and Children 17 Services of the Department of Human Resources shall submit for the court's 18 consideration a report recommending a permanency plan for the child which shall include 19 whether and, if applicable, when the child shall be returned to the parent or parents; 20 referred for termination of parental rights and adoption; referred for legal guardianship; 21 placed permanently with a fit and willing relative; or, in the case where the division has 22 provided a compelling reason that ~~one~~ none of the foregoing options would ~~not~~ be in the 23 best interest of the child, placed in another planned permanent living arrangement. The 24 report shall include documentation of the steps to be taken by the Division of Family and 25 Children Services of the Department of Human Resources to finalize the permanent 26 placement of the child. When the permanency plan recommended is referral for 27 termination of parental rights and adoption, such report shall include child specific 28 recruitment efforts such as the use of state, regional, and national adoption exchanges, 29 including electronic exchange systems. The provisions of subsection (p) of this Code 30 section concerning notice, opportunity to be heard, authority of the court, and content of 31 the court's order are applicable to proceedings under this paragraph.

32 ~~(2)~~(3) The permanency hearing may be conducted as the court directs by the juvenile 33 court judge or by an associate juvenile court judge or judge pro tempore. The court may 34 also direct that the permanency hearing be conducted by a judicial citizen review panel 35 established by the court in the manner provided in subsection (k) of this Code section, 36 unless the permanency hearing is one required under subsection (j) of this Code section 37 as a result of a recommendation that reunification services are not appropriate. The

1 judicial citizen review panel may conduct its hearing in the same manner as it conducts 2 a case review under subsection (k) of this Code section. The provisions of subsection (p)
 3 of this Code section concerning notice, opportunity to be heard, authority of the court, 4 and content of the court's order are applicable to proceedings under this paragraph.

5 ~~(A) In the event that the permanency hearing is conducted by a judicial citizen review~~ 6 ~~panel, the~~ The panel shall transmit its report, including its findings and 7 recommendations and those of the Division of Family and Children Services, to the 8 court and the parties within five days after such hearing. The report of the judicial 9 citizen review panel shall include all the elements required in paragraphs ~~(4)~~ (5) and ~~(5)~~
 10 (6) of this subsection. Any party may request a hearing on the proposed permanency 11 plan by submitting a request in writing within five days of receiving a copy of such 12 plan. If a hearing is not requested, the court shall review the proposed permanency plan 13 and enter a supplemental order incorporating all elements required by paragraphs ~~(4)~~ 14 (5) and ~~(5)~~ (6) of this subsection that the court finds essential in the proposed 15 permanency plan. In the event a hearing before the court is requested on the report 16 transmitted by the judicial citizen review panel, the court shall, after hearing evidence, 17 enter a supplemental order incorporating all the elements required in paragraphs ~~(4)~~ (5) 18 and ~~(5)~~ (6) of this subsection.

19 (B) If a permanency hearing is held before the court, the court shall, after hearing 20 evidence, enter a supplemental order incorporating all elements of the proposed 21 permanency plan required by paragraphs ~~(4)~~ (5) and ~~(5)~~ (6) of this subsection that the 22 court finds essential in the proposed permanency plan.

23 ~~(3)~~(4) The parents, the custodian of the child, the foster parents of the child, any 24 preadoptive parent or relative providing care for the child, and other parties shall be given 25 written notice of a permanency hearing at least five days in advance and shall be advised 26 that the permanency plan recommended by the Division of Family and Children Services 27 of the Department of Human Resources will be submitted to ~~become an order of the court~~
 28 for consideration to become an order of the court. Procedural safeguards shall be applied 29 with respect to parental rights pertaining to the removal of the child from the home of his 30 or her parents, to a change in the child's placement, and to any determination affecting 31 visitation privileges of parents. The provisions of subsection (p) of this Code section 32 concerning notice, opportunity to be heard, authority of the court, and content of the 33 court's order are applicable to proceedings under this paragraph. ~~In addition, the foster~~ 34 ~~parents, if any, of a child and any preadoptive parent or relative providing care for the~~ 35 ~~child shall receive written notice of the permanency hearing at least five days in advance~~ 36 ~~and shall be given an opportunity to be heard; provided, however, that this provision shall~~ 37 ~~not be construed to require a foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the~~

1 ~~child to be made a party to the hearing solely on the basis of such notice and opportunity~~ 2 ~~to be heard.~~

3 ~~(4)~~(5) The permanency plan incorporated in the court's order shall include whether and, 4 if applicable, when the child shall be returned to the parent or parents, referred for 5 termination of parental rights and adoption, referred for legal guardianship, or placed 6 permanently with a fit and willing relative. If the court finds that there is a compelling 7 reason that it would not be in the child's best interests to be returned to the parent or 8 parents, referred for termination of parental rights and adoption, referred for legal 9 guardianship, or placed permanently with a fit and willing relative, then the court's order 10 shall document the compelling reason and provide that the child should be placed in 11 another planned permanent living arrangement as defined in the court's order. The 12 provisions of subsection (p) of this Code section concerning notice, opportunity to be 13 heard, authority of the court, and content of the court's order are applicable to 14 proceedings under this paragraph.

15 ~~(5)~~(6) The court or judicial citizen review panel which conducts the permanency hearing 16 shall determine, as a finding of fact, whether the Division of Family and Children 17 Services of the Department of Human Resources has made reasonable efforts to finalize 18 the permanency plan which is in effect at the time of the hearing. Further, the court or 19 the judicial citizen review panel, if applicable, shall determine as a finding of fact 20 whether, in the case of a child placed out of the state, the out-of-state placement continues 21 to be appropriate and in the best interest of the child and, in the case of a child who has 22 attained the age of 14, shall determine the services needed to assist the child to make a 23 transition from foster care to independent living. Such findings of fact shall be made a 24 part of the report of the judicial citizen review panel to the court and any supplemental 25 order entered by the court. The provisions of subsection (p) of this Code section 26 concerning notice, opportunity to be heard, authority of the court, and content of the 27 court's order are applicable to proceedings under this paragraph.

28 ~~(6)~~(7) A supplemental order of the court adopting the permanency plan must be entered 29 within 30 days after the court has determined that reunification efforts will not be made 30 by the Division of Family and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources, 31 if applicable, or within 12 months after the child is considered to have entered foster care, 32 whichever is first, and at least every 12 months thereafter while the child is in foster care, 33 unless the court finds good cause why such order cannot be entered by that time."

34 SECTION 4.

35 Said chapter is further amended by adding a new subsection (p) to Code Section 15-11-58, 36 relating to reunification efforts, to read as follows:

1 "(p) In advance of each review or hearing to be held with respect to a child pursuant to this 2 Code section, the court shall provide written notice or shall direct that a party shall provide 3 written notice of such review or hearing, including their right to be heard at such review 4 or hearing, to the custodian of the child, to the foster parents of the child, and to any 5 preadoptive parents or relatives providing care for the child, consistent with the form and 6 timing of notice to parties; provided, however, that this provision shall not be construed to 7 require a custodian, foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the child to be 8 made a party to the hearing solely on the basis of such notice and opportunity to be heard.
 9 At each such hearing the court in its discretion, based upon the evidence, may enter an 10 order accepting or rejecting any report of the Division of Family and Children Services of 11 the Department of Human Resources, ordering an additional evaluation, appointing a 12 guardian ad litem, or undertaking such other review as it deems necessary and appropriate 13 to determine the disposition that is in the child's best interest. The court's order may 14 incorporate all or part of the report of the Division of Family and Children Services of the 15 Department of Human Resources. In its order the court shall include findings of fact which 16 reflect the court's consideration of the oral and written testimony offered by the parents, 17 the custodian of the child, the foster parents of the child, any preadoptive parents or 18 relatives providing care for the child who are required to be provided with notice and a 19 right to be heard in any review or hearing to be held with respect to the child, and the 20 Division of Family and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources. A 21 disposition may be made under the terms of this Code section only if the court finds that 22 such disposition is in the best interest of the child."

23

SECTION 5.

24 Said chapter is further amended by striking Code Section 15-11-103, relating to placement
 25 of child following termination order, and inserting in its place a new Code Section 15-11-103 26 to read as follows:

27 "15-11-103.

28 (a)(1) If, upon the entering of an order terminating the parental rights of a parent, there 29 is no parent having parental rights, the court shall first attempt to place the child with a 30 person related to the child by blood or marriage or with a member of the child's extended 31 family if such a person is willing and, after study by the probation officer or other person 32 or agency designated by the court, is found by the court to be qualified to receive and care 33 for the child, if the court determines such placement is the most appropriate for and in the 34 best interest of the child. ~~A thorough search for a suitable family member shall be made~~ 35 ~~by the court and the Department of Human Resources in attempting to effect this~~ 36 ~~placement.~~ A placement effected under this paragraph shall be conditioned upon the 1 family member who is given permanent custody or who is granted an adoption of the 2 child agreeing to abide by the terms and conditions of the order of the court. ~~A placement~~ 3 ~~shall be made under the terms of this paragraph only if such a placement is in the best~~ 4 ~~interest of the child.~~

5 (2) If no placement of the child is effected under paragraph (1) of this subsection, the 6 court may ~~make any of the following dispositions:~~ commit the child to the custody of the 7 Department of Human Resources or to a licensed child-placing agency willing to accept 8 custody for the purpose of placing the child for adoption ~~or, in the absence of an~~ 9 ~~adoption, in a foster home, or, if the court determines such placement is the most~~ 10 appropriate for and in the best interest of the child.

11 (3) If no placement of the child is effected under paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection, 12 the court may commit the child to a suitable individual on the condition that the person 13 becomes the guardian of the person of the child pursuant to the court's authority under 14 Code Section 15-11-30.1, if the court determines such placement is the most appropriate 15 for and in the best interest of the child.

16 (4) If no placement of the child is effected under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of this 17 subsection, the court may commit the child to the custody of the Department of Human 18 Resources or to a licensed child-placing agency willing to accept custody for the purpose 19 of placing the child in a foster home, if the court determines such placement is the most 20 appropriate for and in the best interest of the child.

21 (5) If no placement of the child is effected under paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of this 22 subsection, the court may commit the child to the custody of an agency or organization 23 authorized by law to receive and provide care for children which is operated in a manner 24 that provides such care, guidance, and control as would be provided in a family home as 25 defined in the court's order, if the court determines that such placement is the most 26 appropriate for and in the best interest of the child.
