

House Resolution 1118

By: Representative Mobley of the 58th

A RESOLUTION

- 1 Creating the House Study Committee on Health Care Bonds; and for other purposes.
- 2 WHEREAS, there are many Georgians who cannot afford health care insurance and are 3 without any coverage for the sicknesses, illnesses, and injuries that they face; and
- 4 WHEREAS, many other Georgians can only afford limited amounts of health care insurance 5 and are underinsured for their health care needs; and
- 6 WHEREAS, the people of our state should be the main investment of government; and
- 7 WHEREAS, in the War of 1812 and during World War I and World War II, this country 8 used war bonds to finance the armed forces of this country to fight foreign enemies and 9 patriotic Americans bought those bonds out of loyalty to and support of those men and 10 women fighting for this country; and
- 11 WHEREAS, today, we are experiencing a war against disease, illness, and injury that many 12 of our citizens are losing; and
- 13 WHEREAS, the concept of using tax-exempt health care bonds to fund health care services 14 for our citizens who do not have health care insurance or who are underinsured is an idea 15 worth exploring; and
- 16 WHEREAS, such bonds would be redeemable for services from health care providers and 17 would be easily purchased and transferred and would benefit the citizens of Georgia as well 18 as persons who are temporarily in this state.
