4 WHEREAS, the Coweta County African American Heritage Museum and Research Center
5 began as an idea in December of 2000 when the leadership of the Newnan-Coweta Historical 6 Society expressed to new board member Cynthia Rosers the need for the society's greater 7 involvement in the African American community; and after several meetings, an African 8 American Heritage committee was formed to see what could be done; and

9 WHEREAS, the committee began its work and began to raise funds and institute projects, 10 among them an oral interview project for the preservation of the memories of our senior 11 citizens, conducted in conjunction with the African American Heritage committee of NCHS 12 and Newnan High School's social studies department under the direction of teacher Steve 13 Quizenberry; and

14 WHEREAS, this project, in which students conducted audio interviews of seven senior

17 its preservation; and

18 WHEREAS, at the October, 2001, meeting of the committee a new name was adopted and

6 center; the grant package was delivered on July 3, 2002, a week before the deadline and 7 included 34 letters of support; and in September, 2002, the Heritage 2002 grant of $13,500 8 was awarded; and

9 WHEREAS, the Alliance is now up and running and getting stronger every day, thanks to 10 the many talented people who dedicated countless hours to the project, especially the
