

The Senate Judiciary Committee offered the following substitute to HB 1335:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Title 17 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to criminal procedure,
2 so as to require certain notifications of victims of applications for sentence review; to permit 3 victims to provide written arguments to the superior court sentence review panel; to provide 4 that the superior court sentence review panel shall be required to provide an opinion or 5 memorandum when a sentence is reduced; to change certain provisions relating to the crime 6 victims' bill of rights concerning certain notifications; to provide for related matters; to 7 provide for an effective date and applicability; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other 8 purposes.

9 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

10 Title 17 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to sentence and punishment for 11 crimes, is amended by striking subsections (c), (d), and (f) of Code Section 17-10-6, relating 12 to the review of certain sentences of incarceration by a three-judge panel, and inserting in 13 lieu thereof the following:

15 "(c) The three-judge panel provided for by this Code section shall have the authority to 16 review sentences upon application of the defendants in such cases. In the review of the 17 sentences, the defendant, the victim, and the district attorney shall have the right to present 18 written argument relative to the sentence imposed and the harshness or justification thereof 19 and shall submit such argument within 30 days of the date the application is docketed with 20 the panel. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to notify the victim that the 21 defendant has filed an application for sentence review. The prosecuting attorney shall not 22 be required to notify the victim unless the victim has expressed a desire for such 23 notification and has provided the prosecuting attorney with a current address and telephone 24 number. The prosecuting attorney's failure to notify the victim shall not invalidate the 25 decision of the panel. The panel shall consider the victim's written statement, including 26 any statements of the victim contained in any trial or sentencing transcript, in its review of

1 the defendant's sentence. If, in the opinion of the panel, the sentence imposed by the trial 2 judge is too harsh or severe in light of all of the circumstances surrounding the case and the 3 defendant, and in light of the defendant's past history, the panel shall have the authority to 4 issue an order reducing the sentence originally imposed by the trial judge. If the panel 5 reduces a sentence imposed by the trial judge, the panel shall issue an opinion or 6 memorandum stating the specific facts and reasoning that form the basis for the reduction
 7 of the sentence. The panel shall not have the authority, however, to reduce any sentence
 8 to probation or to suspend any sentence. ~~The panel shall not be required to file written~~ 9 ~~opinions but shall file a copy of any order or remittitur reducing a sentence with the~~ 10 ~~superior court which originally imposed the sentence~~ The order of the panel, together with 11 the opinion or memorandum of decision and the remittitur, shall be certified by the panel 12 to the trial court under the seal of the panel and shall become effective upon being filed 13 with the trial court.

14 (d) The reduction of a sentence or the refusal to reduce a sentence by the panel shall not 15 be reviewable. The provisions for review of sentences provided by this Code section shall 16 not be deemed to affect the right to appeal or any practices, procedures, or time limitations
 17 relative to appeals to appellate courts. A defendant shall not have the right to file more than 18 one application for a review of a sentence, and any order issued by the panel reducing or 19 refusing to reduce any sentence covered by an application shall be binding on the defendant 20 and the superior court which imposed the sentence."

21 "(f) This Code section shall not apply to sentences imposed in misdemeanor cases or cases 22 in which a sentence of life sentence or life without parole is imposed for murder."

23 SECTION 2.

24 Said title is further amended by striking subsection (a) of Code Section 17-17-5, relating to 25 notification to victims under the "Crime Victims' Bill of Rights," and inserting in lieu thereof 26 the following:

27 "(a) All victims, wherever practicable, shall be entitled to notification as defined by 28 paragraph (7) of Code Section 17-17-3 of the accused's arrest, of the accused's release 29 from custody, and of any judicial proceeding at which the release of the accused will be 30 considered. All victims, wherever practicable, shall also be entitled to notification as 31 defined by paragraph (7) of Code Section 17-17-3 of the defendant's application for 32 sentence review. The prosecuting attorney shall not be required to notify the victim of the 33 defendant's application for sentence review unless the victim has expressed a desire for 34 such notification. No such notification shall be required unless the victim provides a 35 landline telephone number other than a pocket pager or electronic communication device 36 number to which such notice can be directed."

SECTION 3.

This Act shall become effective on July 1, 2004, and shall apply to all applications for sentence review filed on and after July 1, 2004.
