

Senate Resolution 1051

By: Senator Kemp of the 3rd

A RESOLUTION

1 Urging the board of commissioners of Bryan County to adopt a resolution expressing 2 whether the board supports or opposes the conducting of a nonbinding, advisory referendum
3 for the purpose of ascertaining whether the General Assembly should enact a homestead 4 exemption from Bryan County ad valorem taxes for county purposes in an amount equal to 5 the amount by which the current year assessed value of a homestead exceeds the base year
6 assessed value of such homestead; and for other purposes.

7 WHEREAS, the cycle of ever-increasing county ad valorem property taxes is a matter of 8 concern to all taxpayers of Bryan County; and

9 WHEREAS, many jurisdictions have sought relief from this tax burden through the 10 enactment of base year assessed value homestead exemptions; and

11 WHEREAS, there exist divergent opinions regarding the proposed enactment of such a 12 measure; and

13 WHEREAS, a compromise has been suggested which entails conducting a nonbinding 14 referendum on whether the voters of Bryan County wish such a measure to be enacted; and

15 WHEREAS, insufficient time remains in the 2004 regular session for the advertisement and 16 enactment of local legislation.

17 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that this body urges the board
18 of commissioners of Bryan County to adopt a resolution expressing whether the board 19 supports or opposes the conducting of a nonbinding, advisory referendum for the purpose of 21 County ad valorem taxes for county purposes in an amount equal to the amount by which the 22 current year assessed value of a homestead exceeds the base year assessed value of such 23 homestead, so as to provide guidance for the members of the General Assembly representing

- 1 Bryan County on this matter for the next legislative session.
- 2 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed
- 3 to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to each member of the General Assembly
- 4 representing Bryan County.
