

House Resolution 80

By: Representatives Heckstall of the 62nd, Brooks of the 63rd, Sinkfield of the 60th, Bruce of the 64th, Holmes of the 61st, and others

A RESOLUTION

- 1 Urging that the person or persons responsible for moving the portrait of Grace Towns
2 Hamilton to the third floor post office of the State Capitol return it to its place among the 3 portraits of distinction in the Georgia Capitol building; and for other purposes.
- 4 WHEREAS, Grace Towns Hamilton was the first African American woman to serve in the 5 Georgia General Assembly, a position which she held from 1966 to 1984; and
- 6 WHEREAS, Ms. Hamilton was among eight African Americans elected to the General 7 Assembly in 1965 who were the first to enter the Georgia House of Representatives since the 8 end of Reconstruction; and
- 9 WHEREAS, Ms. Hamilton was principal architect of the 1973 Atlanta city charter, and her 10 legacy as a legislator and civil rights advocate includes expanding educational opportunities 11 for African American school children, improving health facilities, providing help for the 12 indigent, and protecting the rights of the disenfranchised; and
- 13 WHEREAS, Ms. Hamilton played a prominent role in the history of the State of Georgia, and 14 the third floor post office, a location inaccessible to the general public, is not an appropriate 15 location for the portrait of a figure of her importance and stature and is disrespectful to her 16 legacy of dedicated public service to the State of Georgia; and
- 17 WHEREAS, Ms. Hamilton's portrait was originally displayed among the portraits of 18 distinction in the Georgia State Capitol; and
- 19 WHEREAS, Grace Towns Hamilton's portrait should be accessible to school children 20 visiting the Georgia Capitol and to all citizens of the State of Georgia.
- 21 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that

- 1 this body urges the responsible party to remove the portrait of Grace Towns Hamilton from
- 2 the third floor post office and return it to its original and rightful location among the portraits
- 3 of distinction in the Georgia State Capitol.
