A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing District 65 Legislative Day at the Capitol on March 1, 2005; and for other 2 purposes.

3 WHEREAS, on March 1, 2005, elected officials from the state, county, and municipal levels, 4 along with the constituents they serve, will come together to declare and celebrate the 5 success and unique appeal of District 65 of the Georgia House of Representatives; and

6 WHEREAS, District 65 comprises a vibrant, beautiful community, rich in natural resources 7 and competitive business; and

8 WHEREAS, the progressive governments within District 65 provide a positive environment
9 for business growth through efficient services and effective collaboration with developers 10 to create new employment opportunities; and

11 WHEREAS, multimodal transportation culminates in District 65: home of Hartsfield-Jackson 12 Atlanta International Airport; hub for two of the nation's largest railroads, networked to the 13 compass by four interstate highways; and southern terminus of MARTA; and

14 WHEREAS, with more than 7,000 hotel rooms and bountiful exhibit and meeting spaces,
15 including the Georgia International Convention Center, District 65 is a powerful contributor 16 to Atlanta's vital convention and hospitality industries; and

17 WHEREAS, District 65 includes more than 850 manufacturing and distribution firms, the 18 largest contiguous industrial park in the eastern United States, plus more than 100,000 of the 19 area's 125,000 acres remain available for development; and

20 WHEREAS, District 65 legislators, commissioners, mayors, and citizens are committed to 21 working together to improve the quality of life through initiatives like the Educational

1 Wrap-around Collaborative, which includes Parent University, Red Carpet Schools, and the 2 South Fulton Incubator Project; and

3 WHEREAS, with abundant resources and the commitment from all sectors of the community
4 to continue to work cooperatively for quality economic development, the future of District 5 65 has never looked more promising; and

6 WHEREAS, the 2005 District 65 Legislative Day at the Capitol is dedicated to the purpose 7 of recognizing and celebrating the vibrancy of the people of that district, their diversity, and 8 commitment.

9 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 10 the members of this body recognize and observe District 65 Legislative Day at the Capitol 11 on March 1, 2005, and heartily welcome to the capitol the elected public officials and 12 residents of District 65.
