SECTION 5.

Said chapter is further amended by striking subsection (g) of Code Section 34-9-200.1, relating to rehabilitation benefits, and inserting in lieu thereof a new subsection (g) to read as follows:

"(g) 'Catastrophic injury' means any injury which is one of the following:

- (1) Spinal cord injury involving severe paralysis of an arm, a leg, or the trunk;
- (2) Amputation of an arm, a hand, a foot, or a leg involving the effective loss of use of that appendage;

 - (F) Other conditions at least as severe in nature as any condition provided in subparagraphs (A) through (E) of this paragraph;
- (4) Second or third degree burns over 25 percent of the body as a whole or third degree burns to 5 percent or more of the face or hands;
- (5) Total or industrial blindness; or
- (6)(A) Any other injury of a nature and severity that prevents the employee from being able to perform his or her prior work and any work available in substantial numbers within the national economy for which such employee is otherwise qualified; provided, however, if the injury has not already been accepted as a catastrophic injury by the employer and the authorized treating physician has released the employee to return to work with restrictions, there shall be a rebuttable presumption, during a period not to exceed 130 weeks from the date of injury, that the injury is not a catastrophic injury. During such period, in determining whether an injury is catastrophic, the board shall give consideration to all relevant factors including, but not limited to, the number of hours for which an employee has been released. A decision granting or denying disability income benefits under Title II or supplemental security income benefits under Title XVI of the Social Security Act shall be admissible in evidence and the board shall give the evidence the consideration and deference due under the circumstances regarding the issue of whether the injury is a catastrophic injury; provided, however, that no presumption shall be created by any decision granting or denying disability income benefits under Title II or ~~supplementary~~ supplemental security income benefits under Title XVI of the Social Security Act.

1 (B) Once an employee who is designated as having a catastrophic injury under this
 2 subsection has reached the age of eligibility for retirement benefits as defined in 42
 3 U.S.C. Section 416(l), as amended March 2, 2004, there shall arise a rebuttable
 4 presumption that the injury is no longer a catastrophic injury; provided, however, that
 5 this presumption shall not arise upon reaching early retirement age as defined in 42
 6 U.S.C. Section 416(l), as amended March 2, 2004. When using this presumption, a
 7 determination that the injury is no longer catastrophic can only be made by the board
 8 after it has conducted an evidentiary hearing.

9 The rehabilitation supplier appointed to a catastrophic injury case shall have the expertise
 10 which, in the judgment of the board, is necessary to provide rehabilitation services in such 11 case."

12 SECTION 6.

13 Said chapter is further amended in Code Section 34-9-200.1, relating to rehabilitation
 14 benefits, by inserting at the end thereof a new subsection (i) to read as follows:

15 "(i) Subsequent to either an employer's designating an employee's injury as catastrophic
 16 or a board determination as to the catastrophic or noncatastrophic nature of an employee's 17 injury, either party may request a new determination, based on reasonable grounds, as to 18 the catastrophic or noncatastrophic nature of the employee's injury."

19 SECTION 7.

20 Said chapter is further amended by striking Code Section 34-9-261, relating to compensation
 21 for total disability, and inserting in lieu thereof a new Code Section 34-9-261 to read as 22 follows:

23 "34-9-261.

24 While the disability to work resulting from an injury is temporarily total, the employer shall 25 pay or cause to be paid to the employee a weekly benefit equal to two-thirds of the 26 employee's average weekly wage but not more than ~~$425.00~~ $450.00 per week nor less
 27 than ~~$42.50~~ $45.00 per week, except that when the weekly wage is below ~~$42.50~~ $45.00
 28 the employer shall pay a weekly benefit equal to the average weekly wage. The weekly
 29 benefit under this Code section shall be payable for a maximum period of 400 weeks from 30 the date of injury; provided, however, in the event of a catastrophic injury as defined in 31 subsection (g) of Code Section 34-9-200.1, the weekly benefit under this Code section shall 32 be paid until such time as the employee undergoes a change in condition for the better as 33 provided in paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of Code Section 34-9-104."

SECTION 8.

Said chapter is further amended by striking Code Section 34-9-262, relating to compensation for temporary partial disability, and inserting in lieu thereof a new Code Section 34-9-262 to read as follows:

"34-9-262.

Except as otherwise provided in Code Section 34-9-263, where the disability to work resulting from the injury is partial in character but temporary in quality, the employer shall pay or cause to be paid to the employee a weekly benefit equal to two-thirds of the difference between the average weekly wage before the injury and the average weekly wage the employee is able to earn thereafter, but not more than ~~$284.00~~ $300.00 per week for a period not exceeding 350 weeks from the date of injury."

SECTION 9.

All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
