

ADOPTED

Senators Thompson of the 33rd, Thomas of the 2nd and Harbison of the 15th offered the following amendment:

Amend the committee substitute to SR 23 by following line 5, on page 2, a new line 6, as following, 'WHEREAS, one of the most important issues concerning homeland security, is that of the safety of our nations ports and cooperation between the individual states and ports located therein.'

And renumbering accordingly.
