12 SECTION 3.

13 Said chapter is further amended by striking in its entirety Code Section 34-8-153, relating 14 to the liability of succeeding employers and computation of rate of contributions, and 15 inserting in lieu thereof the following:

16 "34-8-153.

17 (a) Subject to the provisions of subsections (g) and (h) of this Code section, any ~~Any~~ 18 corporation, partnership, individual, or other legal entity who acquires by purchase, merger, 19 consolidation, or other means substantially all of the trade, business, or assets of any 20 employer and who thereafter continues the acquired trade or business shall be deemed to 21 be a successor to the employer from whom the trade or business was acquired. The 22 successor shall acquire the experience rating record of the predecessor except as otherwise 23 provided in this Code section or in the rules and regulations of the Department of Labor.
 24 If the successor is not already an employer at the time of the acquisition, the rate of 25 contributions applicable to the predecessor shall continue to be applicable to the successor; 26 provided, however, if the existing rate of contributions of the predecessor exceeds the new 27 employer rate as specified in Code Section 34-8-151, the successor shall be assigned a new 28 employer rate of contributions; in such event, the experience of the predecessor shall not 29 be considered for purposes of rate calculations and the successor shall be otherwise treated 30 as a new employer.

31 (b) Subject to the provisions of subsections (g) and (h) of this Code section, if ~~If~~ the 32 successor is already an employer at the time of the acquisition, the rate of contributions 33 applicable to the successor shall continue until the end of the quarter in which the 34 acquisition occurred. The rate of contributions applicable to the successor beginning on the 35 first day of the quarter following the acquisition will be determined by the combined 36 experience of the predecessor and successor as of the applicable computation date;

1 provided, however, the experience of the predecessor shall not be combined with that of 2 the successor for purposes of rate calculation if the predecessor's rate of contributions 3 immediately preceding the acquisition exceeded the rate already in effect for the successor;
 4 in such event, the experience of the predecessor shall not be considered for purposes of rate 5 calculations unless this combination of experience results in a reduction of rates.

6 (c) Subject to the provisions of subsections (g) and (h) of this Code section, any Any 7 employing unit which acquires by any means any clearly identifiable or separable portion 8 of the trade or business of an employer and is an employer at the time of the acquisition or 9 becomes an employer within six months from the end of the quarter in which the 10 acquisition is made may be deemed to be a partial successor to the employer from whom 11 the portion of the trade or business was acquired. A portion of the predecessor's experience 12 rating records which are attributable to the portion of trade or the business which was 13 acquired may be transferred to the successor. Mutual consent of both parties must be given 14 to effectuate the partial transfer. The Commissioner shall prescribe by regulation the time 15 frame for notification to the department of partial acquisitions and the method by which the 16 portion of the experience rating record to be transferred will be determined.

17 (d) Subject to the provisions of subsections (g) and (h) of this Code section, if If the 18 conditions of subsection (c) of this Code section are met and the partial successor is not 19 already an employer at the time of the acquisition, the rate of contributions applicable to 20 the predecessor shall be applicable to the successor. Future rates will be determined by 21 combining the transferred portion of the predecessor's experience rating record with the 22 successor's own experience rating record as of the applicable computation date.

23 (e) Subject to the provisions of subsections (g) and (h) of this Code section, if If the 24 conditions of subsection (c) of this Code section are met and the partial successor is already 25 an employer at the time of the acquisition, the rate of contributions applicable to the 26 successor shall continue until the end of the quarter in which the acquisition occurred. The 27 rate of contributions applicable to the successor beginning on the first day of the quarter 28 following the acquisition will be determined by combining the transferred portion of the 29 predecessor's experience rating record with the successor's own experience rating record 30 as of the applicable computation date.

31 (f) Nothing in this Code section shall be construed to affect liens which are created 32 pursuant to Code Section 34-8-167.

33 (g) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter to the contrary, effective July 1, 34 2006:

35 (1) If an employer transfers its trade or business, or any portion thereof, to another 36 employer and, at the time of the transfer, there is substantially common ownership, 37 management, or control of the two employers then the rate of contributions attributable

1 to the predecessor shall be transferred to the successor employer to whom such business 2 is so transferred. The rates of contributions of both employers shall be recalculated and 3 made effective immediately upon the date of the transfer of the trade or business.

4 (2) Whenever the successor is not already an employer at the time of the acquisition, the 5 unemployment experience of the acquired business shall not be transferred to the 6 successor if the Commissioner determines that the successor acquired the business solely 7 or primarily for the purpose of obtaining a lower rate of contribution. Instead, the 8 successor shall be assigned the new employer rate under Code Section 34-8-151. In 9 determining whether the trade or business was acquired solely or primarily for the 10 purpose of obtaining a lower rate of contributions, the Commissioner shall use objective 11 factors which may include the following:

12 (A) The cost of acquiring the trade or business;

13 (B) Whether the successor actually continued the business enterprise of the acquired 14 trade or business;

15 (C) How long the acquired trade or business was continued; and

16 (D) Whether or not a substantial number of new employees were hired for the 17 performance of duties unrelated to the business activity conducted by the predecessor 18 prior to acquisition.

19 (h)(1) Any person who knowingly violates or attempts to violate subsection (g) or any 20 other provision of this chapter related to determining the assignment of a rate of 21 contributions or any person who knowingly advises another person in a manner that results 22 in a violation of such provision shall be subject to the following penalties.

23 (A) If the person is an employer, then such employer shall be assigned the highest rate 24 assignable under this chapter for the rate year during which such violation or attempted 25 violation occurred and the three rate years immediately following that rate year; 26 provided, however, that if:

27 (i) The person's business is already at the highest rate; or

28 (ii) If the amount of increase in the rate of contributions for such person would be 29 less than 2 percent for such year,

30 then a penalty rate of contributions of 2 percent of taxable wages shall be imposed for 31 such year;

32 (B) If the person is not an employer, such person shall be subject to a civil money 33 penalty of not more than $5,000.00 per violation. Any such fine collected shall be 34 deposited in the penalty and interest account established under Code Section 34-8-92.

35 (2) For the purposes of this Code section, the term 'knowingly' means having actual 36 knowledge of or acting with deliberate ignorance or reckless disregard for the prohibited 37 act or omission.

1 (3) For the purposes of this Code section, the term 'violates or attempts to violate'
 2 includes, but is not limited to, intent to evade, misrepresentation, and willful 3 nondisclosure.

4 (4) For the purposes of this Code section, the term 'person' shall have the meaning given 5 such term by Section 7701(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

6 (5) For the purposes of this Code section and administration of the Employment Security
 7 Law, the terms 'trade, business, or assets' and 'trade or business' shall include:

8 (A) The employer's work force or any part of the employer's work force; and

9 (B) Any part of the employer's trade, business, or assets, whether or not clearly 10 identifiable or separable within the meaning of subsection (c) of this Code section.

11 Tax liability under Chapter 7 of Title 48 shall not be affected by the definitions of 'trade, 12 business, or assets' and 'trade or business' in this Code section.

13 (6) In addition to the penalty imposed by paragraph (1) of this subsection, any violation 14 of this Code section may be prosecuted as a felony under Code Section 16-10-20.

15 (7) The Commissioner shall establish procedures to identify the occurrence of any 16 transfer or acquisition of a business that violates any provision of this Code section."

17 SECTION 4.

18 Said chapter is further amended by striking in its entirety subparagraph (B) of paragraph (4) 19 of subsection (d) of Code Section 34-8-156, relating to State-wide Reserve Ratio, and 20 inserting in lieu thereof the following:

 24 increase in the rate, as of the computation date, for each employer whose rate is

1.25 percent	1.5 percent	50 percent
0.75 percent	1.25 percent	75 percent

34 provided, however, that for the period of January 1 through December 31, ~~2005~~ 2006, 35 the overall increase in the rate required under this subparagraph shall be suspended and

1 the provisions of this subparagraph shall be null and void, except in the event the 2 State-wide Reserve Ratio, as calculated above, is less than 1.00 percent, then the 3 Commissioner of Labor shall have the option of imposing an increase in the overall rate 4 of up to 35 percent, as of the computation date, for each employer whose rate is 5 computed under a rate table in Code Section 34-8-155."
