

A RESOLUTION

1 Proposing an amendment to the Constitution so as to specify the public purposes for which
 2 the power of eminent domain may be exercised under the authority of the State of Georgia
 3 and provide that economic development or redevelopment shall not constitute a public
 4 purpose for which private property may be acquired by eminent domain; to provide for 5 submission of this amendment for ratification or rejection; and for other purposes.

6 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

 8 Paragraph I of Section III of Article I of the Constitution is amended by striking
 9 subparagraphs (a) and (b) and inserting in their place new subparagraphs to read as follows:

10 "(a) The power of eminent domain shall be exercised under the authority of this state
 11 only for the public purposes of acquiring property:

12 (1) For public road or street purposes or public transportation purposes;

13 (2) For ownership by a governmental entity and use in the performance of one or more
 14 governmental functions other than roads and public transportation to the extent
 15 specifically authorized by general law enacted after January 1, 2006, and subject to the 16 conditions provided by such law; or

17 (3) For public utility and pipeline purposes to the extent specifically authorized by 18 existing or future general laws and subject to the conditions provided by law.

19 Economic development or redevelopment shall not constitute a public purpose for which 20 private property may be acquired by eminent domain. Except as otherwise provided in this 21 Paragraph, private property shall not be taken or damaged for public purposes without just 22 and adequate compensation being first paid.

23 (b) When private property is taken or damaged by the state or the counties or 24 municipalities of the state for public road or street purposes, or for public transportation
 25 purposes, or for any other public purposes ~~as determined by the General Assembly~~, just and 26 adequate compensation therefor need not be paid until the same has been finally fixed and

1 determined as provided by law; but such just and adequate compensation shall then be paid
 2 in preference to all other obligations except bonded indebtedness."
