13 (a) As used in this Code section, the term:

14 (1) 'False or secret compartment' means any enclosure that is intended and designed to 15 be used to conceal, hide, or prevent discovery by law enforcement officers of the false 16 or secret compartment, or its contents, and which is integrated into or attached to a

1 (b) For purpose of this Code section, a person's intention to use a false or secret
2 compartment to conceal the contents of the compartment from a law enforcement officer 3 may be inferred from factors including, but not limited to, the discovery of:
4 (1) A person, firearm, controlled substance, or other contraband within the false or secret 5 compartment; or
6 (2) Evidence of the previous placement of a person, firearm, controlled substance, or 7 other contraband within the false or secret compartment.

12 compartment, shall be subject to seizure by any law enforcement agency or law
13 enforcement officer within whose jurisdiction that property is found. Any property seized 14 under this Code section shall be subject to the forfeiture procedures contained in Code
15 Section 16-13-49. The removal of the false or secret compartment from the motor vehicle, 16 or the promise to do so, shall not be the basis for a defense to forfeiture of the vehicle or 17 its contents and shall not be the basis for the court to release the vehicle to the owner.
18 (e) A violation of this Code section is punishable by a fine of not more than $10,000.00 19 or by imprisonment for up to two years, or both."
