

The Senate Agriculture and Consumer Affairs Committee offered the following substitute to SB 229:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To amend Article 1 of Chapter 11 of Title 4 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to general provisions relative to animal protection, so as to change certain provisions relating to inspections, impoundment of animals, and exceptions; to change certain provisions relating to failure to respond, right to hearing, care, and crime exception; to change certain provisions relating to filing a report regarding animal cruelty and immunity; to amend Part 1 of Article 2 of Chapter 12 of Title 16 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to gambling offenses, so as to change certain provisions relating to dogfighting; to prohibit animal fighting or baiting and related conduct; to provide for punishments; to define certain terms; to provide a short title; to provide legislative findings and declarations; repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Animal Fighting Act."

SECTION 2.

The General Assembly finds and declares that the fighting and baiting of animals in this state is a cruel and horrific practice and results in the unwarranted suffering and death of hundreds of animals. In addition, the animals subject to fighting and baiting are aggressive and have caused numerous maulings of humans and deaths of children. The General Assembly finds and declares further that the most effective, economical, humane, and ethical solution to the problem of animal fighting and baiting is to punish such conduct as criminal acts.

SECTION 3.

Article 1 of Chapter 11 of Title 4 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to general provisions relative to animal protection, is amended by striking subsection (c) of

Code Section 4-11-9.3, relating to inspections, impoundment of animals, and exceptions, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(c) Any person impounding an animal under this article is authorized to return the animal to its owner, upon payment by the owner of all costs of impoundment and care and upon the entry of a consent order, unless such owner was, in a prior administrative or legal action in this state or any other state, found to have failed to provide humane care to an animal, committed cruelty to animals, or engaged in ~~dog~~ animal fighting or baiting in violation of the laws of this state or of the United States or any of the several states. Such consent order shall provide conditions relating to the care and treatment of such animal, including, but not limited to, the following, that:

- (1) Such animal will be given humane care and adequate and necessary veterinary services;
- (2) Such animal will not be subjected to cruelty; and
- (3) The owner will comply with this article."

SECTION 4.

Said article is further amended by striking subparagraph (b)(6)(B) of Code Section 4-11-9.5, relating to failure to respond, right to hearing, care, and crime exception, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(B) Unless, in a prior administrative or legal action in this state or any other state, the owner has been found to have failed to provide humane care to an animal, committed cruelty to animals, or engaged in ~~dog~~ animal fighting or baiting in violation of the laws of this state or of the United States or any of the several states, recommend conditions under which the animal may, upon payment by the owner of all costs of impoundment and care, be returned to the owner. Such conditions shall be reduced to writing and served upon the owner and the government agency having custody of the animal. Such conditions may include, but are not limited to, the following, that:

- (i) Such animal will be given humane care and adequate and necessary veterinary services;
- (ii) Such animal will not be subjected to mistreatment; and
- (iii) The owner will comply with this article."

SECTION 5.

Said article is further amended by striking subsection (a) of Code Section 4-11-17, relating to filing a report regarding animal cruelty and immunity, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:
