15 "22-1-2.

16 (a) The right of eminent domain is the right of the state, through its regular organization, 17 to reassert, either temporarily or permanently, its dominion over any portion of the soil of 18 the state on account of public exigency and for the public good. Thus, in time of war or 19 insurrection the proper authorities may possess and hold any part of the territory of the state 20 for the common safety; and in time of peace the General Assembly may authorize the 21 appropriation of the same to public purposes, such as the opening of roads, construction of 22 defenses, or providing channels for trade or travel. Notwithstanding any other provisions 23 of law, neither this state nor any political subdivision thereof nor any other condemning 24 entity shall use eminent domain unless it is necessary for public use.

25 (b) If property acquired through the power of eminent domain from an owner fails to be 26 put to the stated public use within 12 years, the former owner may initiate an action in 27 superior court to reacquire the property. Where the condemnor has not undertaken an 28 action to put the property to public use, the superior court may declare that the former 29 owner or his or her assigns and heirs shall have the right to reacquire such property for the 30 original condemnation price plus interest at the legal rate as set forth in Code Section 7-4-2.
31 The condemnor shall provide notice to each person with a legal claim if the condemnor 32 fails to put the property to public use within 12 years. Each person with a legal claim shall 33 have the right to pursue reacquisition in accordance with this subsection within four years
34 from the date of the notice. The court may award attorney's fees and expenses of litigation 35 to each person with a legal claim who successfully pursues a remedy pursuant to this

1 subsection. This subsection shall not apply to condemnations subject to Code Section 2 22-3-162.
3 (c) In the case that property is acquired from more than one owner for the same public use
4 and reacquisition by a single owner is impracticable, any party to the original 5 condemnation or each person with a legal claim in such condemnation may file an action
6 in the superior court where the property is located for an equitable resolution. This 7 subsection shall not apply to condemnations subject to Code Section 22-3-162."

8 SECTION 8.

9 Said title is further amended by striking Code Section 22-1-3, relating to the General
10 Assembly's power to determine when eminent domain may be exercised, and inserting in its 11 place a new Code Section 22-1-3 to read as follows:

12 "22-1-3.

13 (a) It is the province of the General Assembly to determine when the right of eminent 14 domain may be exercised. If, however, under pretext of such necessity the General 15 Assembly should pass a law authorizing the taking of property for private use rather than 16 for public use, the courts should declare the law inoperative.

17 (b) The court presiding over the condemnation shall determine, as a matter of law, whether 18 the exercise of the power of eminent domain is for a public use. The condemning entity 19 bears the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the condemnation is for 20 an authorized public use."

21 SECTION 9.

22 Said title is further amended by inserting seven new Code sections to read as follows:

23 "22-1-9.

24 In order to encourage and expedite the acquisition of real property by agreements with 25 owners, to avoid litigation and relieve congestion in the courts, to assure consistent 26 treatment for property owners, and to promote public confidence in land acquisition 27 practices, all condemnations shall, to the greatest extent practicable, be guided by the 28 following policies and practices:

29 (1) The condemnor shall make every reasonable effort to acquire expeditiously real 30 property by negotiation;

31 (2) Where the condemnor seeks to obtain a fee simple interest in real property, real 32 property shall be appraised before the initiation of negotiations, and the owner or his or 33 her designated representatives shall be given an opportunity to accompany the appraiser 34 during his or her inspection of the property, except that the condemnor may, by law, rule,

1 regulation, or ordinance, prescribe a procedure to waive the appraisal in cases involving 2 the acquisition by sale or donation of property with a low fair market value;

3 (3) Before the initiation of negotiations for fee simple interest for real property the 4 condemnor shall establish an amount which the condemnor believes to be just 5 compensation and shall make a prompt offer to acquire the property for the full amount
6 so established. In no event shall such amount be less than the condemnor's independent 7 fee appraisal of the fair market value of such property. The condemnor shall provide the 8 owner of real property to be acquired with a written statement of, and summary of the 9 basis for, the amount he or she established as just compensation. Where appropriate, the 10 just compensation for the real property acquired and for damages to remaining real 11 property shall be separately stated;

12 (4) No owner shall be required to surrender possession of real property before the 13 condemnor pays the agreed purchase price or deposits with the court in accordance with 14 this title, for the benefit of the owner, an amount not less than the condemnor's appraisal 15 of the fair market value of such property or the amount of the award of compensation in 16 the condemnation proceeding for such property;

17 (5) The construction or development of a public improvement shall be so scheduled that, 18 to the greatest extent practicable, no person lawfully occupying real property shall be 19 required to move from a dwelling or to move his or her business or farm operation 20 without at least 90 days' written notice from the condemnor of the date by which such 21 move is required;

22 (6) If the condemnor permits an owner or tenant to occupy the real property acquired on 23 a rental basis for a short term or for a period subject to termination by the condemnor on 24 short notice, the amount of rent required shall not exceed the fair rental value of the 25 property to a short-term occupier;

26 (7) In no event shall the condemnor either advance the time of condemnation or defer
27 negotiations or condemnation and the deposit of funds in court for the use of the owner
28 or take any other bad faith action in order to compel an agreement on the price to be paid
29 for the property;

30 (8) If any legal interest in real property is to be acquired by exercise of the power of 31 eminent domain, the condemnor shall institute formal condemnation proceedings. No 32 condemnor shall intentionally make it necessary for an owner to institute legal 33 proceedings to prove the fact of the taking of his or her real property; or

34 (9) A person whose real property is being acquired in accordance with this title may,
35 after the person has been fully informed of his or her right to receive just compensation 36 for such property, donate such property, any part thereof, any legal interest therein, or any 37 compensation paid to a condemnor, as such person shall determine.

22-1-10.

(a) Prior to the acquisition of any property pursuant to a redevelopment plan for blighted property, the condemnor shall file a petition in the superior court of the county which maintains jurisdiction over the property sought to be condemned. The petition shall set forth the reasons for the condemnation and provide a copy of the redevelopment plan. The condemnor shall provide notice of the petition to each person with a legal claim.

(b) The superior court shall determine, after notice and hearing, whether the condemnor has the legal authority to exercise the power of eminent domain, including whether the property identified by the condemnor is blighted. The condemnor shall have the burden of proof.

(c) The superior court may refer the matter to a special master. The special master shall file a report with the superior court providing all findings necessary to reach a decision.

(d) The hearing shall occur no less than 30 days after the petition is filed.

(e) The court having jurisdiction of a proceeding instituted by a condemnor to acquire real property by condemnation shall award the owner of any right or title to or interest in such real property such sum as will in the opinion of the court reimburse such owner for his or her reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney, appraisal, and engineering fees, actually incurred, if:

(1) The final judgment is that the condemnor cannot acquire the real property by condemnation; or

(2) The proceeding is abandoned by the condemnor.

22-1-11.

(a) Before any action to approve the condemnation of property, the condemnor shall provide notice of such action to each person with a legal claim, other than governmental bodies, by statutory overnight delivery or certified mail.

(b) After the notice described in subsection (a) of this Code section is provided, the condemnor shall provide for a hearing of the condemnee or condemnees no less than 14 days after delivering or depositing the notice. The condemnor shall provide notice of the hearing to each person with a legal claim. The hearing shall be held by the condemning body authorized to institute the condemnation proceeding. If the condemnor is comprised of several persons, a quorum of the condemning body must attend the hearing. The hearing shall take place in the county of the property sought to be condemned. This subsection shall not apply to condemnations by public utilities or the Department of Transportation.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (d) of this Code section, no action may be brought in any court of this state until at least 30 days after the date of the hearing described in subsection (b) of this Code section; provided, however, that this requirement shall not apply to condemnations by public utilities or the Department of Transportation.

(d) If an emergency condition exists requiring the acquisition of property for the protection of the public health and safety, the condemnor may declare the existence of an emergency and adopt a resolution defining the emergency. Notice and hearing as required by this Code section may be waived by the condemning body in an emergency condition.
