

The Senate Science and Technology Committee offered the following substitute to SB 541:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Article 6 of Chapter 9 of Title 16 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated,
2 relating to computer systems protection, so as to provide that no person shall transmit to an
3 electronic address in Georgia any message that contains advertising material for viewing,
4 use, consumption, sale, lease, or rental only by persons over 18 years of age unless the first
5 eight characters of the subject line are "ADV:ADLT"; to provide for penalties; to provide for 6 civil actions; to provide for damages; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

8 Article 6 of Chapter 9 of Title 16 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to 9 computer systems protection, is amended by inserting immediately after Code Section
10 16-9-93.1 a new Code section to read as follows:
11

12 "16-9-93.2.

13 (a) No person shall initiate, conspire with another to initiate, or assist the transmission of 14 a commercial electronic mail message from a computer located in Georgia or to an
15 electronic mail address that the sender knows is held by a Georgia resident if such message
16 contains advertising material for viewing, use, consumption, sale, lease, or rental only by 17 persons over 18 years of age, including but not limited to content which is obscene as such 18 term is defined in Code Section 16-12-80, unless the first eight characters of the subject
19 line are 'ADV:ADLT.' As used in this subsection, the term 'transmission' does not include 20 the acts of an intermediary that transmits, routes, relays, or temporarily stores, through an 21 automatic technical process, the electronic mail on behalf of another where the 22 intermediary does not choose the recipient of the electronic mail.

23 (b) Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this Code section shall be fined not 24 more than $1,500.00 for each such transmission. For purposes of this Code section, each 25 delivery of a message to a prohibited electronic address shall constitute a separate offense.

1 (c) Any person who violates this Code section shall be guilty of a felony and, upon 2 conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to serve not less than one nor more than 20 years in 3 prison or to pay a fine of not less than $1,000.00 nor more than $500,000.00, or both.

4 (d) The following persons may bring an action against a person who violates or is in 5 violation of this Code section:

6 (1) Any person who is engaged in the business of providing Internet access service to the 7 public, owns a website, or owns a trademark and is adversely affected by a violation of 8 this Code section; an action brought under this paragraph may seek to recover the greater 9 of actual damages or $500,00.00; and

10 (2) An individual who is adversely affected by a violation of this Code section, but only
11 against a person who has directly violated subsection (b) of this Code section; an action
12 brought under this paragraph may seek to enjoin further violations of this Code section 13 and to recover the greater of three times the amount of actual damages or $5,000.00 for 14 each violation.

15 (e) The Attorney General or a district attorney may bring an action against a person who 16 violates or is in violation of subsection (b) of this Code section to enjoin further violations
17 of this Code section and to recover a civil penalty not to exceed $2,500.00 for each 18 violation.

19 (f) In a civil action pursuant to subsection (d) of this Code section, a court may, in addition 20 to the remedies provided in such subsection, increase the recoverable damages to an 21 amount up to three times the damages otherwise recoverable in cases in which the 22 defendant has engaged in a pattern and practice of violating this Code section or award
23 costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees to a prevailing plaintiff, or both.

24 (g) The remedies provided in this Code section do not preclude the seeking of any other 25 remedies, including criminal remedies, under any other applicable provision of law.

26 (h) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subsection (d) of this Code section, multiple 27 violations of this Code section resulting from any single action or conduct shall constitute 28 one violation."

29 SECTION 2.

30 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
