9 been blessed with 55 years of marriage, two children, two grandchildren, and two 10 great-grandchildren; and

11 WHEREAS, he graduated from Georgia Tech with a degree in civil engineering and was 12 commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the United States Army Corps of Engineers; and

13 WHEREAS, upon graduation, he went to work for the State Highway Department until being 14 called to active duty in July, 1951, and he spent two years in Germany while in the Army; 15 and

16 WHEREAS, he was separated from active duty in 1954 and returned to work at the State 17 Highway Department in Sylvester, Georgia; and

18 WHEREAS, he earned his Master's of Science degree in civil engineering in 1960, and in 19 1967 he was appointed the first deputy commissioner of the Department of Transportation, 20 a position he held for 13 years; and

1 WHEREAS, during his tenure at the Georgia Department of Transportation, he was involved 2 in many projects, including serving on the committee to design and create MARTA and the 3 initial traffic study that planned what eventually became I-285; and

4 WHEREAS, his military career really began with his leaving active duty in 1954, as he held
5 numerous positions and ended up serving as the Commanding General of the Army Reserve 6 Command; and

7 WHEREAS, he retired from the Georgia Department of Transportation in 1981 and from the 8 military in 1983; and

9 WHEREAS, it is only fitting that a person who has served the people of Georgia, and the 10 nation, so honorably for so many years should be honored by having a major interchange on 11 a busy interstate named in his honor.

12 PART II

13 WHEREAS, the Vandiver family were the original settlers of the Tallulah Falls area; and

14 WHEREAS, for the purpose of trading with the Native Americans, Reverend George 15 Vandiver constructed a trading post at the junction of the Tallulah and Chattooga Rivers, 16 which in the 1780's was the first permanently established business in the Tallulah Falls area;
17 and

18 WHEREAS, Reverend George Vandiver was a soldier in the Revolutionary War who drew 19 a pension for his honorable service in that war and who is buried in the area now known as 20 Tallulah Gorge State Park; and

21 WHEREAS, Reverend George Vandiver was the first moderator of the Tugalo Baptist 22 Convention; and

23 WHEREAS, in recognition and tribute to Reverend George Vandiver as a truly great patriot, 24 minister, tradesman, and citizen of the Tallulah Falls area, it is most fitting that the State of 25 Georgia perpetuate his name in an appropriate fashion.

26 PART III

27 WHEREAS, the Vandiver family were the original settlers of the Tallulah Falls area; and

1 WHEREAS, the most famous of that family was Adam Poole Vandiver, due to his exploits
2 as a hunter, trapper, pathfinder, and storyteller whose door was always open for his fellow 3 citizen and the weary traveler who chanced upon his cabin; and

4 WHEREAS, Adam Poole Vandiver served in the War of 1812 and the Creek Indian War; and

5 WHEREAS, Adam Poole Vandiver was wounded during the Battle of Autosee while fighting 6 to protect the citizens of Georgia; and

7 WHEREAS, Adam Poole Vandiver never turned a hungry traveler from his door nor failed 8 to give directions to any who may have been lost in the area, always being ready to assist his 9 fellow man; and

10 WHEREAS, Adam Poole Vandiver was known as the "Hunter of Tallulah" and his 11 descendants still populate the Tallulah Falls area; and

12 WHEREAS, in recognition and tribute to the numerous, lengthy, and detailed truths and 13 legends which make up the legacy of Adam Poole Vandiver to the area of Tallulah Falls, it 14 is most fitting that the State of Georgia perpetuate his name in an appropriate fashion.

15 PART IV

16 WHEREAS, Mary Will was born to William and Sally Rutherford on October 1, 1910, on 17 what is now known as SR 355; and

18 WHEREAS, in 1928, she married Dewey Robinson, whose family also lived on SR 355, and 19 together they had six children; and

20 WHEREAS, she was widowed in 1949 and left to raise her children, one of whom was born 21 three months after her husband's death, alone; and

22 WHEREAS, the family endured many hardships and all of them worked for neighboring 23 farmers to support themselves; and

24 WHEREAS, Mary Will's children attended Marion County public schools and all of them 25 grew up to be responsible adults; and

1 WHEREAS, Mary Will was an active member of the community, sometimes acting as 2 midwife and sometimes serving as the undertaker, and she also cared for her widowed father 3 until his death; and

4 WHEREAS, she was one of the founding members of the Brown Springs Church of God and 5 was the last surviving member when she passed away; she rarely missed a church service and 6 helped to care for the cemetery which is now her final resting place; and

7 WHEREAS, three of her sons, Clarence (Peewee), Rainey, and Benny still live in the 8 community; and

9 WHEREAS, to honor Mary Will Robinson and her life of service to her family, her church, 10 and her community, it is only fitting that the highway she was born and died on should be 11 named in her honor.

12 PART V
