19 on that person's homestead from City of Woodstock ad valorem taxes for municipal purposes

21 property in excess of such exempted amount shall remain subject to taxation.

22 (c) A person shall not receive the homestead exemption granted by subsection (b) of this 23 section unless the person or person's agent files an application with the governing authority

25 additional information relative to receiving such exemption as will enable the governing 26 authority of the City of Woodstock, or the designee thereof, to make a determination

2 governing authority of the City of Woodstock, or the designee thereof, shall provide 3 application forms for this purpose. Any person who claimed and qualified for the exemption

8 the O.C.G.A., as amended. The exemption shall be automatically renewed from year to year 9 as long as the owner occupies the residence as a homestead. After a person has filed the 10 proper application, as provided in subsection (c) of this section, it shall not be necessary to 11 make application thereafter for any year and the exemption shall continue to be allowed to 12 such person. It shall be the duty of any person granted the homestead exemption under 13 subsection (b) of this section to notify the governing authority of the City of Woodstock, or

18 school district ad valorem taxes for educational purposes. The homestead exemption granted 19 by subsection (b) of this section shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any other homestead
