SECTION 2.

Said chapter is further amended by revising Code Section 19-7-22, relating to petition for legitimation of child, as follows:

"19-7-22.

(a) A father of a child born out of wedlock may render his relationship with the child legitimate by petitioning the superior court of the county of the residence of the child's mother or other party having legal custody or guardianship of the child; provided, however, that if the mother or other party having legal custody or guardianship of the child resides outside the state or cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state, the petition may be filed in the county of the father's residence or the county of the child's residence. If a petition for the adoption of the child is pending, the father shall file the petition for legitimation in the county in which the adoption petition is filed.

(b) The petition shall set forth the name, age, and sex of the child, the name of the mother, and, if the father desires the name of the child to be changed, the new name. If the mother is alive, she shall be named as a party and shall be served and provided an opportunity to be heard as in other civil actions under Chapter 11 of Title 9, the 'Georgia Civil Practice Act.' If there is a legal father, as such term is defined in Code Section 19-7-21.1, he shall be named as a party and shall be served and provided an opportunity to be heard as in other civil actions under Chapter 11 of Title 9, the 'Georgia Civil Practice Act.'

(c) Upon the presentation and filing of the petition, and after a hearing, the court may pass an order declaring the father's relationship with the child to be legitimate, provided that such is in the best interest of the child and that the father and child shall be capable of inheriting from each other in the same manner as if born in lawful wedlock and specifying the name by which the child shall be known.

(d) A legitimation petition may be filed, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subsection (e) of Code Section 15-11-28, in the juvenile court of the county in which a deprivation proceeding regarding the child is pending. Such petition shall contain the same information and require the same notice as set forth in subsection (b) of this Code section, and the juvenile court shall proceed in accordance with subsection (c) of this Code section. After a petition for legitimation has been granted, if a demand for jury trial as to matters of child support has been properly filed by either parent, then the case shall be transferred from the juvenile court to the superior court for such determination.

(e) ~~Except as provided by subsection (f) of this Code section~~ when there is a demand for a jury trial and the matter is transferred from juvenile court to superior court, the court shall upon notice to the mother further establish such duty as the father may have to support the child, considering the facts and circumstances of the mother's obligation of support and the needs of the child as provided under Code Section 19-6-15.

1 (f) ~~After a petition for legitimation is granted, if a demand for a jury trial as to support has~~
 2 ~~been properly filed by either parent, then the case shall be transferred from juvenile court~~
 3 ~~to superior court for such jury trial.~~

4 (f.1) The petition for legitimation may also include claims for visitation or custody. If 5 such claims are raised in the legitimation action, the court may order, in addition to
 6 legitimation, visitation or custody based on the best interests of the child standard. In a
 7 case involving allegations of family violence, the provisions of paragraph (2) of subsection
 8 (a) of Code Section 19-9-1 shall also apply.

9 (g)(1) In any petition to establish paternity pursuant to paragraph (4) of subsection (a) of 10 Code Section 19-7-43, the alleged father's response may assert a third-party action for the 11 legitimation of the child born out of wedlock. Upon the determination of paternity or if a 12 voluntary acknowledgment of paternity has been made and has not been rescinded pursuant 13 to Code Section 19-7-46.1, the court or trier of fact as a matter of law and pursuant to the 14 provisions of Code Section 19-7-51 may enter an order or decree legitimating a child born
 15 out of wedlock, provided that such is in the best interest of the child. Whenever a petition
 16 to establish the paternity of a child is brought by the Department of Human Resources,
 17 issues of name change, visitation, and custody shall not be determined by the court until 18 such time as a separate petition is filed by one of the parents or by the legal guardian of the 19 child, in accordance with Code Section 19-11-8; if the petition is brought by a party other
 20 than the Department of Human Resources or if the alleged father seeks legitimation, the 21 court may determine issues of name change, visitation, and custody in accordance with 22 subsections (b) and ~~(f.1)~~ (f) of this Code section. Custody of the child shall remain in the 23 mother unless or until a court order is entered addressing the issue of custody.

24 ~~(2) In any voluntary acknowledgment of paternity which has been made and has not been~~
 25 ~~rescinded pursuant to Code Section 19-7-46.1, when both the mother and father freely~~
 26 ~~agree and consent, the child may be legitimated by the inclusion of a statement indicating~~ 27 ~~a voluntary acknowledgment of legitimation."~~
