10 1998; and

11 WHEREAS, the Jacksonville Jaguars selected Mr. Bryant in the first round of the 1999 NFL 12 Draft, and he became only the second Jaguar to start every game as a rookie; thereafter, the 13 Detroit Lions signed him to a six-year contract in 2004; unstoppable after spending most of 14 the 2005 season on the injured/reserve list, Fernando Bryant returned to his starting 15 cornerback position in 2006 to start ten games, and in seven NFL seasons, he has started 93 16 of the 94 games he has played; and

17 WHEREAS, native Georgian Fernando Bryant was named the Detroit Lions' 2004 "Man of 18 the Year" and was honored at the "Detroit Sports Fans Choice Awards" and given the 2004
19 "Humanitarian Award for Outstanding Humanitarian Work By An Athlete"; and

20 WHEREAS, he established the 25-Sports Foundation in 2001 to provide academic services, 21 guidance, and encouragement to at-risk youth through a variety of programs in Michigan,
22 Georgia, and Tennessee, and his foundation has worked in cooperation with organizations
23 such as Hosea's Feed the Hungry, Children's Aid Society, and the National Kidney 24 Foundation on projects to support its surrounding communities; and

1 WHEREAS, Fernando Bryant also mentors inner city youth through additional programs
2 such as T.A.L.K. (Talk About Life with Kids) at Detroit high schools and activities including 3 an essay-writing contest awarding college scholarships to Georgia youth; and

4 WHEREAS, Georgia is very proud to have one of the NFL's distinguished players as one of 5 its own.

6 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
7 join in recognizing athlete and humanitarian, Mr. Fernando Bryant.

8 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 9 to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to Mr. Fernando Bryant.
