12 Said chapter is further amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

 21 notice to parties; provided, however, that this provision shall not be construed to require 22 a foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the child to be made a party to the 23 hearing solely on the basis of such notice and right to be heard."

 31 that the permanency plan recommended by the Division of Family and Children Services
 32 of the Department of Human Resources will be submitted to the court for consideration 33 to become an order of the court. Procedural safeguards shall be applied with respect to 34 parental rights pertaining to the removal of the child from the home of his or her parents, 35 to a change in the child's placement, and to any determination affecting visitation

1 privileges of parents. Procedural safeguards shall also be applied to assure that the court 2 or the judicial citizen review panel conducting a permanency hearing, including any 3 hearing regarding transition of the child from foster care to independent living, shall 4 consult, in an age-appropriate manner, with the child regarding the proposed permanency
 5 or transition plan for such child. The provisions of subsection (p) of this Code section 6 concerning notice, opportunity to be heard, authority of the court, and content of the 7 court's order are applicable to proceedings under this paragraph."

8 SECTION 4.

9 Said chapter is further amended in Code Section 15-11-58, relating to case plans, 10 permanency plans, and other court proceedings regarding deprived juveniles, by revising 11 paragraph (6) of subsection (o) as follows:

12 "(6) The court or judicial citizen review panel which conducts the permanency hearing
 13 shall determine, as a finding of fact, whether the Division of Family and Children

 15 the permanency plan which is in effect at the time of the hearing. Further, the court or the 16 judicial citizen review panel, if applicable, shall determine as a finding of fact whether, 17 in the case of a child placed out of the state, the out-of-state placement continues to be 18 appropriate and in the best interest of the child and, in the case of a child who has attained
 19 the age of 14, shall determine the services needed to assist the child to make a transition
 20 from foster care to independent living. Also, in the case of a child whose permanency

 22 review panel, if applicable, shall consider in-state and out-of-state placement options for 23 such child. Such findings of fact shall be made a part of the report of the judicial citizen
 24 review panel to the court and any supplemental order entered by the court. ~~The provisions~~
 25 ~~of subsection (p) of this Code section concerning notice, opportunity to be heard,~~

1 custodian of the child, to the foster parents of the child, and to any preadoptive parents or 2 relatives providing care for the child, consistent with the form and timing of notice to 3 parties; provided, however, that this provision shall not be construed to require a custodian, 4 foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the child to be made a party to the 5 review, hearing, or other proceeding solely on the basis of such notice and opportunity to 6 be heard. At each such review, hearing, or proceeding, the court in its discretion, based 7 upon the evidence, may enter an order accepting or rejecting any report of the Division of 8 Family and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources, ordering an 9 additional evaluation, appointing a guardian ad litem, or undertaking such other review as 10 it deems necessary and appropriate to determine the disposition that is in the child's best 11 interest. The court's order may incorporate all or part of the report of the Division of 12 Family and Children Services of the Department of Human Resources. In its order the court 13 shall include findings of fact which reflect the court's consideration of the oral and written 14 testimony offered by the parents, the custodian of the child, the foster parents of the child, 15 any preadoptive parents or relatives providing care for the child who are required to be 16 provided with notice and a right to be heard in any review, or hearing, or proceeding to be 17 held with respect to the child, and the Division of Family and Children Services of the 18 Department of Human Resources. A disposition may be made under the terms of this Code

 28 including their right to be heard at such hearing or other proceeding, to the foster parents 29 of the child and to any preadoptive parents or relatives providing care for the child, 30 consistent with the form and timing of notice to parties; provided, however, that this 31 provision shall not be construed to require a foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative 32 caring for the child to be made a party to the hearing solely on the basis of such notice and 33 right to be heard."
