1 Amend the LC 29 2906S substitute to HB 314 by inserting after "requirements;" on line 19
 2 of page 1 the following:

3 to amend Code Section 24-4-60 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to 4 requirement for DNA analysis of blood of persons convicted of certain sex offenses or 5 convicted of a felony and incarcerated in a state correctional facility, so as to provide for 6 DNA analysis of persons convicted of certain felonies and sexual offenses who are placed
 7 on probation;

8 By redesignating Sections 2 through 10 as Sections 3 through 11, respectively, and inserting
 9 after Section 1 the following:

SECTION 2.

11 Code Section 24-4-60 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to requirement for 12 DNA analysis of blood of persons convicted of certain sex offenses or convicted of a felony
 13 and incarcerated in a state correctional facility, is revised as follows:

14 "24-4-60.

15 (a) As used in subsection (b) of this Code section, the term 'state correctional facility'
 16 means a penal institution under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, including 17 inmate work camps and inmate boot camps; provided, however, that such term shall not
 18 include a probation detention center, probation diversion center, or probation boot camp
 19 under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections.

20 (b) Any person convicted of a criminal offense defined in Code Section 16-6-1, relating 21 to the offense of rape; Code Section 16-6-2, relating to the offense of sodomy or
 22 aggravated sodomy; Code Section 16-6-3, relating to the offense of statutory rape; Code
 23 Section 16-6-4, relating to the offense of child molestation or aggravated child molestation;
 24 Code Section 16-6-5, relating to the offense of enticing a child for indecent purposes; Code
 25 Section 16-6-5.1, relating to the offense of sexual assault against persons in custody, sexual 26 assault against a person detained or a patient in a hospital or other institution, or sexual 27 assault by a practitioner of psychotherapy against a patient; Code Section 16-6-6, relating 28 to the offense of bestiality; Code Section 16-6-7, relating to the offense of necrophilia; or 29 Code Section 16-6-22, relating to the offense of incest, shall have a sample of his or her
 30 blood, an oral swab, or a sample obtained from a noninvasive procedure taken for DNA
 31 (deoxyribonucleic acid) analysis to determine identification characteristics specific to the

1 person. In addition, on and after July 1, 2000, any person convicted of a felony and
2 incarcerated in a state correctional facility shall at the time of entering the prison system
3 have a sample of his or her blood, an oral swab, or a sample obtained from a noninvasive
4 procedure taken for DNA (deoxyribonucleic acid) analysis to determine identification
5 characteristics specific to the person. The provisions and requirements of this Code section
6 shall also apply to any person who has been convicted of a felony prior to July 1, 2000, and 7 who currently is incarcerated in a state correctional facility in this state for such offense.
8 The provisions and requirements of this Code section shall also apply to any person who
9 has been convicted of a felony in this state on or after July 1, 2000, and who is incarcerated
10 in a private correctional facility in this state for such offense pursuant to a contract with the 11 Department of Corrections upon entering the facility, and for any person convicted of a
12 felony prior to July 1, 2000, and who is incarcerated in a private correctional facility in this 13 state pursuant to contract with the Department of Corrections. The analysis shall be 14 performed by the Division of Forensic Sciences of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation.
15 The division shall be authorized to contract with individuals or organizations for services
16 to perform such analysis. The identification characteristics of the profile resulting from the 17 DNA analysis shall be stored and maintained by the bureau in a DNA data bank and shall 18 be made available only as provided in Code Section 24-4-63.

19 (c)(1) On and after July 1, 2007, any person who is placed on probation shall have a
20 sample of his or her blood, an oral swab, or a sample obtained from a noninvasive
21 procedure taken for DNA (deoxyribonucleic acid) analysis to determine identification
22 characteristics specific to the person if such person is convicted of a felony violation of 23 any of the following:

24 (A) Chapter 5 of Title 16, relating to crimes against persons;

25 (B) Code Section 16-6-1, relating to the offense of rape;

26 (C) Code Section 16-6-2, relating to the offense of sodomy or aggravated sodomy;

27 (D) Code Section 16-6-3, relating to the offense of statutory rape;

28 (E) Code Section 16-6-4, relating to the offense of child molestation or aggravated
29 child molestation;

30 (F) Code Section 16-6-5, relating to the offense of enticing a child for indecent
31 purposes;

32 (G) Code Section 16-6-5.1, relating to the offense of sexual assault against persons in 33 custody, sexual assault against a person detained or a patient in a hospital or other
34 institution, or sexual assault by a practitioner of psychotherapy against a patient;

35 (H) Code Section 16-6-6, relating to the offense of bestiality;

36 (I) Code Section 16-6-7, relating to the offense of necrophilia;

37 (J) Code Section 16-6-22, relating to the offense of incest;

1 (K) Code Section 16-7-1, relating to the offense of burglary;

2 (L) Code Section 16-8-40, relating to the offense of robbery;

3 (M) Code Section 16-8-41, relating to the offense of armed robbery;

4 (N) Code Section 16-10-23, relating to the offense of impersonating an officer;

5 (O) Code Section 16-10-24, relating to the offense of obstruction of an officer;

6 (P) Article 4 of Chapter 11 of Title 16, relating to dangerous instrumentalities and 7 practices; and

8 (Q) Chapter 13 of Title 16, relating to controlled substances.

9 (2) The analysis shall be performed by the Division of Forensic Sciences of the Georgia
10 Bureau of Investigation. The division shall be authorized to contract with individuals or 11 organizations for services to perform such analysis. The identification characteristics of 12 the profile resulting from the DNA analysis shall be stored and maintained by the bureau
13 in a DNA data bank and shall be made available only as provided in Code Section
14 24-4-63. The Department of Corrections shall be responsible for collecting such sample."
