

Senate Bill 188

By: Senators Thompson of the 33rd and Hamrick of the 30th

AS PASSED

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Article 14 of Chapter 5 of Title 49 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, 2 relating to the foster parents bill of rights, so as to provide for findings at the General
3 Assembly; to provide that foster parents who care for children in the custody of the 4 Department of Human Resources shall have the right to file a grievance; to provide that the 5 department shall make certain considerations in developing certain policies; to provide for 6 certain policies; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other 7 purposes.

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

9 SECTION 1.

10 Article 14 of Chapter 5 of Title 49 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to the 11 foster parents bill of rights, is amended by revising Code Section 49-5-281, relating to the 12 bill of rights for foster parents, as follows:

13 "49-5-281.

14 (a) The General Assembly finds that foster parents ~~who are volunteers~~ providing care for 15 children who are in the custody of the Department of Human Resources play an integral, 16 indispensable, and vital role in the state's effort to care for dependent children displaced 17 from their homes. The General Assembly further finds that it is in the best interest of 18 Georgia's child welfare system to acknowledge foster parents as active and participating 19 members of this system and to support them through the following bill of rights for foster
20 parents who care for children in the custody of the Department of Human Resources 21 through direct approval and placement by the department:

22 (1) The right to be treated by the Division of Family and Children Services of the 23 Department of Human Resources and other partners in the care of abused children with 24 dignity, respect, and trust as a primary provider of foster care and a member of the 25 professional team caring for foster children;

- 1 (2) The right not to be discriminated against on the basis of religion, race, color, creed, 2 gender, marital status, national origin, age, or physical handicap;
- 3 (3) The right to continue with his or her own family values and beliefs, so long as the 4 values and beliefs of the foster child and the birth family are not infringed upon and 5 consideration is given to the special needs of children who have experienced trauma and 6 separation from their families. This shall include the right to exercise parental authority
7 within the limits of policies, procedures, and other directions of the Division of Family
8 and Children Services and within the limits of the laws of the State of Georgia;
- 9 (4) The right to receive both standardized pre-service training, including training in 10 Division of Family and Children Services policies and procedures and appropriate 11 ongoing training, by the Division of Family and Children Services or the placing agency 12 at appropriate intervals to meet mutually assessed needs of the child and to improve foster 13 parents' skills and to apprise foster parents of any changes in policies and procedures of 14 the Division of Family and Children Services and any changes in applicable law;
- 15 (5) The right to be apprised of information, laws, and guidelines on the obligations, 16 responsibilities, and opportunities of foster parenting and to be kept informed of any 17 changes in laws, policies, and procedures regarding foster parenting by the Division of 18 Family and Children Services in a timely manner and at least annually;
- 19 (6) The right to receive timely financial reimbursement according to the agreement
20 between the foster parents and the Department of Human Resources from funds 21 appropriated by the General Assembly and to be notified of any costs or expenses for 22 which the foster parent may be eligible for reimbursement;
- 23 (7) The right to receive information from the Division of Family and Children Services 24 on how to receive services and reach personnel 24 hours per day, seven days per week;
- 25 (8) The right prior to the placement of a child to be notified of any issues relative to the 26 child that may jeopardize the health and safety of the foster family or the child or alter 27 the manner in which foster care should be administered;
- 28 (9) The right to discuss information regarding the child prior to placement. The Division
29 of Family and Children Services will provide such information as it becomes available 30 as allowable under state and federal laws;
- 31 (10) The right to refuse placement of a child in the foster home or to request, upon 32 reasonable notice, the removal of a child from the foster home without fear of reprisal or 33 any adverse affect on being assigned any future foster or adoptive placements;
- 34 (11) The right to receive any information through the Division of Family and Children
35 Services regarding the number of times a foster child has been moved and the reasons 36 therefor; and to receive the names and phone numbers of the previous foster parents if the

1 previous foster parents have authorized such release and as allowable under state and 2 federal law;

3 (12) The right, at any time during which a child is placed with the foster parent, to 4 receive from the Division of Family and Children Services any and all additional 5 pertinent information relevant to the care of the child;

6 (13) The right to be provided with a written copy of the individual treatment and service 7 plan concerning the child in the foster parent's home and to discuss such plan with the 8 case manager, as well as reasonable notification of any changes to that plan;

9 (14) The right to participate in the planning of visitation with the child and the child's 10 biological family with the foster parents recognizing that visitation with his or her 11 biological family is important to the child;

12 (15) The right to participate in the case planning and decision-making process with the 13 Division of Family and Children Services regarding the child as provided in Code Section 14 15-11-58;

15 (16) The right to provide input concerning the plan of services for the child and to have 16 that input considered by the department;

17 (17) The right to communicate for the purpose of participating in the case of the foster 18 child with other professionals who work with such child within the context of the 19 professional team, including, but not limited to, therapists, physicians, and teachers, as 20 allowable under state and federal law;

21 (18) The right to be notified in advance, in writing, by the Division of Family and 22 Children Services or the court of any hearing or review where the case plan or 23 permanency of the child is an issue, including periodic reviews held by the court or by 24 the Judicial Citizen Review Panel, hearings following revocation of the license of an 25 agency which has permanent custody of a child, permanency hearings, and motions to 26 extend custody, in accordance with Code Section 15-11-58;

27 (19) The right to be considered, where appropriate, as a preferential placement option 28 when a child who was formerly placed with the foster parents has reentered the foster 29 care system;

30 (20) The right to be considered, where appropriate, as the first choice as a permanent 31 parent or parents for a child who, after 12 months of placement in the foster home, is 32 released for adoption or permanent foster care;

33 (21) The right to be provided a fair and timely investigation of complaints concerning 34 the operation of a foster home;

35 (22) The right to an explanation of a corrective action plan or policy violation relating 36 to foster parents; and

1 (23) The right, to the extent allowed under state and federal law, to have an advocate 2 present at all portions of investigations of abuse and neglect at which an accused foster 3 parent is present. Child abuse and neglect investigations shall be investigated pursuant 4 to Division of Family and Children Services policies and procedures, and any removal 5 of a foster child shall be conducted pursuant to those policies and procedures. The 6 Division of Family and Children Services will permit volunteers with the Adoptive and 7 Foster Parent Association of Georgia to be educated concerning the procedures relevant 8 to investigations of alleged abuse and neglect and the rights of accused foster parents.
9 After such training, a volunteer will be permitted to serve as an advocate for an accused 10 foster parent. All communication received by the advocate in this capacity shall be 11 strictly confidential.

12 (b) This bill of rights shall be given full consideration when Division of Family and 13 Children Services policies regarding foster care and adoptive placement are developed.

14 (c) Foster parents who care for children in the custody of the Department of Human 15 Resources through direct approval and placement by the department shall have the right 16 to file a grievance in response to any violation of this article, which shall be such foster 17 parents' exclusive administrative remedy for any violation of this article. The Division of 18 Family and Children Services and the Office of the Child Advocate for the Protection of 19 Children, along with an advisory committee comprised in part of representatives from the 20 Adoptive and Foster Parent Association of Georgia, ~~and Georgia Child Care Association~~ 21 who provide private placements will develop a grievance procedure, including a mediation
22 procedure, to be published in departmental policy manuals and the Foster Parent Handbook 23 no later than July 1, 2005.

24 (d) The General Assembly further finds that it is also in the best interest of Georgia's child 25 welfare system for the Division of Family and Children Services of the Department of 26 Human Resources to recognize the bill of rights, with reasonable modifications made to 27 adapt the provisions as required to make them applicable to private agencies, by 28 incorporating them into contracts with private agencies serving children in the custody of 29 the Department of Human Resources. The Department of Human Resources shall, by 30 contract, require that providers, with whom it contracts for the placement of children in its 31 custody, give full consideration to the rights in subsection (a) of this Code section in 32 developing their policies, practices, and procedures regarding foster care and adoptive
33 placement. The department shall provide information needed by the contractors to meet 34 the requirements of this subsection in a timely manner.

35 (e) The Department of Human Resources, in consultation with the representatives of 36 Georgia Association of Homes and Services for Children and other appropriate provider
37 associations and the Adoptive and Foster Parent Association of Georgia, shall develop a

1 grievance procedure for dealing with any grievances their foster parents have in response
2 to any violation of this article, no later than July 1, 2007. The department shall enforce this 3 provision through policies and procedures and through its contracts with providers."

4 SECTION 2.

5 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
