 11 made following its harvest or sale and on the basis of its fair market value at the time of 12 harvest or sale. Said assessment shall be two and one-half times the assessed percentage 13 of value fixed by law for other real property taxed under the uniformity provisions of 14 subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph but in no event greater than its fair market value; and 15 for a method of temporary supplementation of the property tax digest of any county if the

19 (f) The Subject to the limitations of Paragraph IV of this section, the General Assembly 20 may provide for a different method and time of returns, assessments, payment, and

 35 may be increased during the 2010 taxable year by an amount not to exceed a 4 percent 36 increase in such value and, for each taxable year thereafter, by an amount not to exceed 37 a 2 percent increase in such value. The 2008 valuation for any individual parcel of 1 nonresidential real property may be increased during the 2010 taxable year by an amount 2 not to exceed a 6 percent increase in such value and, for each taxable year thereafter, by 3 an amount not to exceed a 3 percent increase in such value. The percentage limitations 4 of this provision shall not be construed to prohibit the mass appraisal of real property in 5 a county.

6 (b) As used in subparagraph (c) of this Paragraph, the term 'established property' means 7 any individual parcel of residential real property or nonresidential real property which has 8 not been subdivided or substantially improved, sold, or transferred during the previous 12 9 month period.

13 residential real property or nonresidential real property. Such process shall be utilized 14 by the county and by each local taxing jurisdiction in such county. Such process shall 15 conform to any guidelines set forth by general law and shall provide:

16 (A) A maximum allowable percentage increase from assessed value of established 17 property during any taxable year; and

18 (B) That any individual parcel of residential real property or nonresidential real 19 property sold or transferred to another person shall be assessed for ad valorem tax 20 purposes at fair market value; and

21 (2) Such procedure shall become effective only upon its adoption by an ordinance or 22 resolution of the governing body of such local taxing jurisdiction and also by a local Act
23 of the General Assembly conditioned upon approval by a majority vote of the qualified 24 electors residing within the limits of the local taxing jurisdiction voting in a referendum 25 thereon.

26 (d) The General Assembly shall be authorized by general law to further define and 27 implement the provisions of this Paragraph including, but specifically not limited to, 28 definitions of residential real property and nonresidential real property.

29 (e) Any local or general law providing for base year assessed value homestead 30 exemptions that freeze the assessment of property with respect to any or all ad valorem 31 taxes enacted prior to January 1, 2010, shall be ratified expressly; provided, however, that 32 such ratification shall not be interpreted to imply that such laws were invalid at the time
33 they became law. The provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply to any homestead's ad 34 valorem taxes which are the subject of any such general or local law so long as the owner
35 of such homestead on January 1, 2010, remains the owner of such property. Upon any sale 36 or transfer of such homestead, no subsequent owner shall be entitled to apply for and 37 receive such exemption or exemptions on such homestead.

1 (f) This Paragraph shall not apply to any county or consolidated government for which 2 a local constitutional amendment has been continued in force and effect as part of this
