

Senate Resolution 991

By: Senators Fort of the 39th, Tate of the 38th, Harbison of the 15th, Reed of the 35th, Orrock of the 36th and others

A RESOLUTION

- 1 Recognizing and honoring the life of Reverend Doctor James Edward Orange; and for other
- 2 purposes.

- 3 WHEREAS, Reverend Doctor James Edward Orange was born in Birmingham, Alabama,
- 4 on October 29, 1942, to the late Calvin and Ida Orange; and

- 5 WHEREAS, he was a graduate of Parker High School in Birmingham, Alabama, and
- 6 attended the former Bishop College in Dallas, Texas, and was the recipient of a doctorate
- 7 degree from the A. P. Clayton Theological College; and

- 8 WHEREAS, he was married to the former Cleophas Brown and they had five children and
- 9 two grandchildren; and

- 10 WHEREAS, during his youth, he was very involved in the Civil Rights Movement and was
- 11 one of the first field staffers hired by the late Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., and
- 12 was instrumental in mobilizing youth throughout the Civil Rights Era; and

- 13 WHEREAS, without Reverend Orange there might never have been a march from Selma to
- 14 Montgomery, Alabama, the march that began the train of events that led to passage of the
- 15 Voting Rights Act of 1965; and

- 16 WHEREAS, the death of Jimmie Lee Jackson, killed by an Alabama state trooper while
- 17 protesting the incarceration of Reverend Doctor Orange, who had been jailed for registering
- 18 new voters, is regarded as one of the triggers for that famous march; and

- 19 WHEREAS, in 1968, he was responsible for bringing over 300 bus loads of participants to
- 20 Washington, D. C., for the Poor People's Campaign, which led to the establishment of the
- 21 food stamp program; and

1 WHEREAS, Reverend Doctor Orange was blessed with exceptional organizational skills and 2 used those skills in various labor movements, including a hospital workers strike in 3 Charleston, South Carolina; a sanitation strike in Memphis, Tennessee; the J. P. Stevens
4 campaign in Milledgeville, Dublin, and Tifton, Georgia and Louisville, Kentucky; Justice
5 for Janitors in Atlanta, Georgia; campaigns in Tupelo, Mississippi; the worker's campaign 6 in Birmingham, Alabama; and the state workers campaign in Alabama; and

7 WHEREAS, Reverend Doctor Orange developed, organized, and directed grassroots,
8 education/mobilization campaigns that led to the passage of the Workplace Fairness bill;
9 developed and directed a regional conference on "Organizing Workers' Rights and Coalition 10 Building"; coordinated the "Stop the Violence" conference in Atlanta, Georgia; created and 11 supervised the Atlanta Olympic Community Intervention Team; and accompanied Bill Lucy 12 to Brazil for the INSPIR and CUT convention; and

13 WHEREAS, he retired from the ALF-CIO labor organization and served as a mediator 14 between MARTA and the Transit Union; and

15 WHEREAS, he received a host of community service awards and several keys to different 16 cities throughout the world; and

17 WHEREAS, Reverend Doctor Orange served on the boards of the Atlanta/Fulton County 18 Commission of Children and Youth; the Highlander Research and Education Center; the 19 National Voting Rights Museum and Institute; the National Tenants Organization; the 20 Southern Christian Leadership Conference/WOMEN, Inc.; and the Southern Organizing 21 Committee; and

22 WHEREAS, Reverend Doctor Orange served on the Georgia Association of Black Elected 23 Officials (GABEO) and, as ambassador to the Republic of South Africa, he worked with 24 world leaders such as President Nelson Mandela, President Thabo Mbeki, and Premier Sbu 25 Ndebele; and

26 WHEREAS, throughout his life, he held to the philosophy of nonviolence, reflecting peace 27 with dignity.

28 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
29 commend Reverend Doctor James Edward Orange, honor his illustrious career, and extend 30 their most sincere condolences to his family and friends.

- 1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed
- 2 to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to the family of Reverend Doctor James
- 3 Edward Orange.
