

Senate Resolution 1003

By: Senator Johnson of the 1st

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing and welcoming the World Organization of China Painters to Tybee Island,
2 Georgia; and for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, the World Organization of China Painters is a nonprofit group dedicated to the 4 appreciation and enrichment of the fine art of painting on porcelain; and

5 WHEREAS, on January 17, 1962, Pauline A. Salyer started a china painting organization in 6 Oklahoma, and in April, 1967, she founded the World Organization of China Painters; and

7 WHEREAS, today, there are china painting clubs all over the world, and the organization 8 continues to grow and follow its founder's dream to further the art of china painting; and

9 WHEREAS, one of the many objectives of the organization is to preserve a collection of fine
10 hand painted porcelain, which serves to educate and deepen the appreciation of this fine art 11 for posterity; and

12 WHEREAS, the World Organization of China Painters will sponsor porcelain art school
13 seminars at Tybee Island, Georgia, March 2-8, 2008, where many renowned porcelain artists 14 will be in attendance.

15 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
16 recognize and welcome the World Organization of China Painters to Tybee Island, Georgia, 17 and commend them on their effort to preserve the fine art of painting on porcelain.

18 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is hereby authorized and 19 directed to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to the World Organization of China
20 Painters.
