5 – give freely of their time, talent, money, and blood to help ease and prevent human suffering 6 and to save lives in our state, the nation, and the world; and

8 Georgia's emergency planning community to respond to disasters of all types and, last year,
9 provided food, clothing, shelter, first aid, health care, and counseling to more than 4,300 10 Georgia families following 3,100 disasters such as home fires, floods, tornadoes, and 11 hurricanes; and

12 WHEREAS, the Red Cross is saving lives in Georgia every day – last year alone, Red Cross 13 Blood Services collected more than 285,700 pints of blood from Georgia blood donors, who 14 in turn saved up to 857,000 lives through their selfless generosity; and

15 WHEREAS, last year, the Red Cross training in programs such as first aid, CPR, use of an 16 AED, and Water Safety gave more than 166,000 of our citizens the confidence and skills 17 they need to respond to life-threatening emergencies; and

18 WHEREAS, as part of its humanitarian mission, the Red Cross provides the only world-wide 19 communications link between service members and their loved ones, and last year, the Red 20 Cross helped 21,600 of Georgia's military families send emergency messages, get financial 21 assistance, find counseling and get referrals, and briefed 49,000 family members on services 22 available to them; and

1 WHEREAS, preparedness is a vital part of the Red Cross mission, and the Red Cross, in 2 partnership with state and local agencies, is helping Georgia's families become safer,
3 healthier, and better prepared for the unexpected, whether natural disasters, manmade threats, 4 or health emergencies such as a pandemic flu outbreak; and

5 WHEREAS, it is fitting that this body recognize and celebrate the contributions of Georgia's 6 Hometown Heroes – Red Cross volunteers, donors, partners, and employees.
