

The House Committee on Intragovernmental Coordination - Local Legislation offers the following substitute to HB 1001:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To provide a short title; to provide for a homestead exemption from Effingham County ad valorem taxes for county purposes in an amount equal to the amount by which the current year assessed value of a homestead exceeds the adjusted base year assessed value of such homestead; to provide for definitions; to specify the terms and conditions of the exemption and the procedures relating thereto; to provide for applicability; to provide for a referendum, effective dates, and automatic repeal; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Effingham County Carter-Burns Act."

SECTION 2.

(a) As used in this Act, the term:

(1) "Ad valorem taxes for county purposes" means all ad valorem taxes for county purposes levied by, for, or on behalf of Effingham County, including, but not limited to, any ad valorem taxes to pay interest on and to retire county bonded indebtedness.

(2) "Base year" means:

(A) For those persons who are receiving a homestead exemption on January 1, 2009, the 2008 taxable year; or

(B) For those persons applying for a homestead exemption on and after January 1, 2009, the taxable year immediately preceding the taxable year in which the exemption under this Act is first granted to the most recent owner of such homestead; provided, however, that in the event a reassessment of the homestead causes the actual assessed value of that homestead to be increased, the tax commissioner shall adjust the base year assessed value by the lesser of three percent; the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index as reported by the United States Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics; or the actual percentage increase in the actual assessed value.

H. B. 1001 (SUB)

(3) "Homestead" means homestead as defined and qualified in Code Section 48-5-40 of the O.C.G.A., as amended, with the additional qualification that it shall include only the primary residence and not more than five contiguous acres of land immediately surrounding such residence.

(b)(1) Each resident of Effingham County is granted an exemption on that person's homestead from Effingham County ad valorem taxes for county purposes in an amount equal to the amount by which the current year assessed value of that homestead exceeds the adjusted base year assessed value of the homestead. This exemption shall not apply to taxes assessed on improvements to the homestead or additional land that is added to the homestead after January 1 of the base year. If any real property is removed from the homestead, the base year assessed value shall be adjusted to reflect such removal and the exemption shall be recalculated accordingly. The value of that property in excess of such exempted amount shall remain subject to taxation.

(2) The unremarried surviving spouse of the deceased spouse who has been granted the exemption provided for in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall continue to receive the exemption provided under paragraph (1) of this subsection so long as that unremarried surviving spouse continues to occupy the home as a residence and homestead.

(c) Those persons receiving homestead exemptions on January 1, 2009, shall automatically receive the homestead exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section. For a person who is not receiving a homestead exemption on January 1, 2009, such person shall not receive the homestead exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section unless the person or person's agent files an application with the tax commissioner of Effingham County giving such information relative to receiving such exemption as will enable the tax commissioner to make a determination regarding the initial and continuing eligibility of such owner for such exemption. The tax commissioner of Effingham County shall provide application forms for this purpose.

(d) The exemption shall be claimed and returned as provided in Code Section 48-5-50.1 of the O.C.G.A., as amended. The exemption shall be automatically renewed from year to year so long as the owner occupies the residence as a homestead. After a person has filed the proper application as provided in subsection (c) of this section, it shall not be necessary to make application thereafter for any year and the exemption shall continue to be allowed to such person. It shall be the duty of any person granted the homestead exemption under subsection (b) of this section to notify the tax commissioner of the county in the event that person for any reason becomes ineligible for that exemption.

(e) The exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section shall not apply to or affect state ad valorem taxes, county or independent school district ad valorem taxes for educational purposes, or municipal ad valorem taxes for municipal purposes. The homestead exemption

1 granted by subsection (b) of this section shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any other
2 homestead exemption applicable to county ad valorem taxes for county purposes.
3 (f) The exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section shall apply to all taxable years
4 beginning on or after January 1, 2009.
