4 are ranked among the highest qualified students in the nation; and

5 WHEREAS, many of these students apply for admission to the flagship university and other 6 universities of the University System of Georgia and have a strong desire to further their 7 educations in the State of Georgia at a state university; and

9 admission to these universities and, consequently, seek admission to schools located in other 10 states; and

15 efforts should be made to retain these students in the educational systems of this state; and
