By: Representatives Keen of the 179th, Hill of the 180th, and Lane of the 167th

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend an Act providing for a homestead exemption from Glynn County ad valorem taxes
2 for county purposes in an amount equal to the amount by which the current year assessed 3 value of a homestead exceeds the base year assessed value of such homestead approved 4 May 1, 2000 (Ga. L. 2000, p. 4612), as amended, so as to provide for circumstances when 5 such exemption may continue to be received if the homestead is destroyed but repaired or 6 rebuilt in similar size and value within two years; to provide for a referendum, effective 7 dates, and automatic repeal; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

9 SECTION 1.

10 An Act providing for a homestead exemption from Glynn County ad valorem taxes for 11 county purposes in an amount equal to the amount by which the current year assessed value
12 of a homestead exceeds the base year assessed value of such homestead approved May 1, 13 2000 (Ga. L. 2000, p. 4612), as amended, is amended by revising subsection (b) of Section 1 14 as follows:

15 "(b) Each resident of Glynn County is granted an exemption on that person's homestead
16 from Glynn County ad valorem taxes for county purposes in an amount equal to the amount 17 by which the current year assessed value of that homestead exceeds the base year assessed 18 value of the homestead. This exemption shall not apply to taxes assessed on improvements 19 to the homestead or additional land that is added to the homestead after January 1 of the 20 base year. If any real property is removed from the homestead, the base year assessed 21 value shall be adjusted to reflect such removal and the exemption shall be recalculated
22 accordingly. The value of that property in excess of such exempted amount shall remain 23 subject to taxation. In the event the homestead is partially or completely destroyed by a 24 natural disaster or by criminal act of a person other than the owner or member of the 25 owner's family, the owner shall continue to receive the exemption provided for under this 26 subsection calculated according to the existing base year assessed value without the need

1 of establishing a new base year assessed value as long as the structure is repaired or rebuilt
2 in such a manner as to be, in the determination of the board of tax assessors, of similar size 3 and value as the initial structure within two years of the date the home was partially or 4 completely destroyed in such disaster."

5 SECTION 2.

7 superintendent of Glynn County shall call and conduct an election as provided in this section 8 for the purpose of submitting this Act to the electors of Glynn County for approval or 9 rejection. The election superintendent shall conduct that election on the date of the 2008
10 presidential preference primary, and shall issue the call and conduct that election as provided
11 by general law. The election superintendent shall cause the date and purpose of the election 12 to be published once a week for two weeks immediately preceding the date thereof in the 13 official organ of Glynn County. The ballot shall have written or printed thereon the words:

21 to vote for rejection of the Act shall vote "No." If more than one-half of the votes cast on 22 such question are for approval of the Act, Section 1 of this Act shall become of full force and 23 effect immediately. If the Act is not so approved or if the election is not conducted as 24 provided in this section, Section 1 of this Act shall not become effective and this Act shall 25 be automatically repealed on the first day of January immediately following that election
26 date. The expense of such election shall be borne by Glynn County. It shall be the election
27 superintendent's duty to certify the result thereof to the Secretary of State.

28 SECTION 3.

29 Except as otherwise provided in Section 2 of this Act, this Act shall become effective upon 30 its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law without such approval.
