1 "17-10-2.

2 (a)(1) Except in cases in which the death penalty ~~or life without parole~~ may be imposed, 3 upon the return of a verdict of 'guilty' by the jury in any felony case, the judge shall 4 dismiss the jury and shall conduct a presentence hearing at which the only issue shall be 5 the determination of punishment to be imposed. In the hearing the judge shall hear 6 additional evidence in extenuation, mitigation, and aggravation of punishment, including 7 the record of any prior criminal convictions and pleas of guilty or nolo contendere of the 8 defendant, or the absence of any prior conviction and pleas.

9 (2) The judge shall also hear argument by the defendant or the defendant's counsel and 10 the prosecuting attorney, as provided by law, regarding the punishment to be imposed.
11 Except in cases where the death penalty may be imposed, the prosecuting attorney shall 12 open and conclude the argument. In cases where the death penalty may be imposed, the 13 prosecuting attorney shall open and the defendant or the defendant's counsel shall 14 conclude the argument.

2 (a) Where, upon a trial by jury, a person is convicted of an offense which may be 3 punishable by death, a sentence of death shall not be imposed unless the jury verdict

 5 that such sentence be imposed. Where a statutory aggravating circumstance is found and 6 a recommendation of death is made, the court shall sentence the defendant to death. ~~Where~~ 7 ~~a sentence of death is not recommended by the jury, the court shall sentence the defendant~~
 8 ~~to imprisonment as provided by law. Where a statutory aggravating circumstance is not~~ 9 ~~found or where a statutory circumstance is found but a recommendation of death is not~~ 10 ~~made, the jury shall decide whether to recommend a sentence of life imprisonment without~~ 11 ~~parole or life imprisonment with the possibility of parole.~~ Unless the jury trying the case 12 makes a finding of at least one statutory aggravating circumstance and recommends the 13 death sentence in its verdict, the court shall not sentence the defendant to death, provided 14 that no such finding of statutory aggravating circumstance shall be necessary in offenses
 15 of treason or aircraft hijacking. This Code section shall not affect a sentence when the case 16 is tried without a jury or when the judge accepts a plea of guilty.

17 (b) During the sentencing phase before a jury, counsel for the state and the accused may 18 present argument and the trial judge may instruct the jury:

19 (1) That 'life without parole' means that the defendant shall be incarcerated for the 20 remainder of his or her natural life and shall not be eligible for parole unless such person 21 is subsequently adjudicated to be innocent of the offense for which he or she was 22 sentenced; and

23 (2) That 'life imprisonment' means that the defendant will be incarcerated for the 24 remainder of his or her natural life but will be eligible for parole during the term of such 25 sentence.
