93 (H) of paragraph (3) of this subsection and that the aggrieved person has taken all 94 reasonable steps to collect the amount of the judgment or the unsatisfied part thereof and 95 has been unable to collect the same, the court may, in its discretion, dispense with the 96 necessity for complying with such requirements.

97 (5) The court shall make an order directed to the commission requiring payment from 98 the auctioneers education, research, and recovery fund of whatever sum it shall find to 99 be payable upon the claim, pursuant to the provisions of and in accordance with the 100 limitations contained in this Code section, if the court is satisfied, upon the hearing, of 101 the truth of all matters required to be shown by the aggrieved person by paragraph (3) of 102 this subsection and is satisfied that the aggrieved person has fully pursued and exhausted 103 all remedies available to him for recovering the amount awarded by the judgment of the 104 court.

105 (6) Should the commission pay from the auctioneers education, research, and recovery
106 fund any amount in settlement of a claim or toward satisfaction of a judgment against a 107 licensee, the license of such licensee shall be automatically revoked upon the issuance of 108 a court order authorizing payment from the auctioneers education, research, and recovery
109 fund. If such license is that of a corporation, limited liability company, or partnership, 110 the license of the supervising auctioneer of the corporation, limited liability company, or 111 partnership shall automatically be revoked upon the issuance of a court order authorizing 112 payment from the auctioneers education, research, and recovery fund. No such licensee 113 shall be eligible to receive a new license until such licensee has repaid in full, plus 114 interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum, the amount paid from the auctioneers 115 education, research, and recovery fund on such licensee's account. A discharge in 116 bankruptcy shall not relieve a person from the penalties and disabilities provided in this 117 subsection.

118 (7) If, at any time, the money deposited in the auctioneers education, research, and 119 recovery fund is insufficient to satisfy any duly authorized claim or portion thereof, the 120 commission shall, when sufficient money has been deposited in the auctioneers 121 education, research, and recovery fund, satisfy such unpaid claims or portions thereof in 122 the order that such claims or portions thereof were originally filed, plus accumulated 123 interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum.

124 (e) The sums received by the commission pursuant to any provisions of this Code section 125 shall be deposited into the state treasury and held in a special fund to be known as the 126 'auctioneers education, research, and recovery fund' and shall be held by the commission
127 in trust for carrying out the purposes of this Code section. These funds may be invested 128 in any investments which are legal for domestic insurance companies under Articles 1 and 129 3 of Chapter 11 of Title 33, and the interest from these investments shall be deposited to 130 the credit of the auctioneers education, research, and recovery fund and shall be available
131 for the same purposes as all other money deposited in the auctioneers education, research, 132 and recovery fund.

133 (f) It shall be unlawful for any person or his or her agent to file with the commission any 134 notice, statement, or other document required under this Code section which is false, 135 untrue, or contains any material misstatement of fact, and any such filing shall constitute 136 a misdemeanor.

137 (g) When the commission receives notice, as provided in subsection (d) of this Code
 138 section, the commission may enter an appearance, file an answer, appear at the court 139 hearing, defend the action, or take whatever other action it may deem appropriate on behalf 140 of and in the name of the defendant and take recourse through any appropriate method of 141 review on behalf of and in the name of the defendant.

142 (h) When, upon the order of the court, the commission has paid from the auctioneers 143 education, research, and recovery fund any sum to the judgment creditor, the commission
 144 shall be subrogated to all of the rights of the judgment creditor. The judgment creditor
 145 shall assign all his or her right, title, and interest in the judgment to the commission before 146 any payment is made from the fund, and any amount and interest so recovered by the 147 commission on the judgment shall be deposited in the fund. If the total amount collected 148 on the judgment by the commission exceeds the amount paid from the fund to the original 149 judgment creditor plus interest and the cost of collection, the commission may elect to pay
 150 any overage collected to the original judgment creditor or reassign the remaining interest 151 in the judgment to the original judgment creditor. The payment or reassignment to the 152 original judgment creditor shall not subject the fund to further liability for payment to the 153 original judgment creditor based on that transaction or judgment. Any costs incurred by 154 the commission's attempting to collect assigned judgments shall be paid from the fund.

155 (i) The failure of an aggrieved person to comply with all of the provisions of this Code
 156 section shall constitute a waiver of any rights under this Code section.

157 ~~(j) The commission, in its discretion, may use any and all funds, in excess of the amount 158 of $100,000.00 required by subsection (b) of this Code section, regardless of whether such 159 funds are from the auctioneers education, research, and recovery fund or from accrued
 160 interest thereon for the purpose of helping to underwrite the cost of education and research 161 programs for the benefit of licensees and the public as the commission may approve in 162 accordance with the provisions of this chapter and its rules and regulations; provided, 163 however, that the commission shall not expend or commit sums for educational or research
 164 purposes in such amounts as would cause the auctioneers education, research, and recovery
 165 fund to be reduced to an amount less than $100,000.00 Reserved.~~

166 (k) In addition to the license fees provided for in this chapter, the commission, in its 167 discretion and based upon the need to ensure that ~~a minimum~~ an appropriate balance, not 168 to exceed of $100,000.00, is maintained in the auctioneers education, research, and 169 recovery fund, may assess each licensee, only upon renewal of his or her license, an 170 amount not to exceed $150.00 per year."

171 SECTION 2.

172 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
