

22 WHEREAS, he also served as the county attorney for Catoosa, Dade, and Walker counties; 23 and

24 WHEREAS, it is only fitting and proper that Mr. Gleason's accomplishments be publicly 25 recognized.

26 PART III

27 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia lost one of its most distinguished citizens with the passing 28 of Mr. Eli Robert "E. R." Bates, Jr., on October 28, 2008; and 29 WHEREAS, Mr. Bates was born in Atlanta, Georgia, a beloved son of the late Robert Bates, 30 Sr., and Lois Hilderbrand Bates; and

31 WHEREAS, he served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty during World War 32 II, and upon his return home he took over his father's business, Bates Hardware Company, 33 where he worked until his retirement in 1973; and

34 WHEREAS, Mr. Bates was active in his trade, belonging to associations such as the Atlanta 35 Retail Hardware Association and the National Retail Hardware Association, and served as 36 president of the Northside Business Association and the Georgia-Florida Retail Hardware 37 Association; and

38 WHEREAS, in honor of his 50 years of dedicated service to the hardware industry, Mr. Bates 39 was awarded the prestigious Gold Hammer; and 40 WHEREAS, he was devoted to his community and served as a civic leader as a member of 41 the Cartersville Chamber of Commerce, the Mason Lodge, the Yaraab Shrine Temple, and 42 the Elks Lodge #1969; and

43 WHEREAS, Mr. Bates was united in love and marriage for 59 years to his lovely wife 44 Wynell Hogeland Bates, and he was surrounded by the love of his daughter and son-in-law, 45 Linda and Chuck Walker; his adoring grandchildren, Tony, Kristy, and Christopher; and his 46 delightful great-granddaughters, Kayla and Ashlyn; and

47 WHEREAS, the devotion, patience, and understanding he demonstrated provided the 48 foundation and framework of success in which all of his family members have developed and 49 flourished; and

WHEREAS, a compassionate and generous man, Mr. Bates will long be remembered for his love of family and friendship, and this loyal husband, father, neighbor, and friend will be missed by all who had the great fortune of knowing him and it is only fitting that a permanent memorial be established in his memory.

PART IV

WHEREAS, George Edward Goare was born April 21, 1937, in Webster County and served the county as deputy sheriff under Sheriff Richard Johnson from June, 1965, until he won election as sheriff in November, 1972; and

WHEREAS, George Edward was a devoted sheriff and worked to keep the peace and help others in need throughout his career; and

WHEREAS, he was a devoted family man and was very proud of his wife, Sandra, and twin sons, Mike and Mitch; and

WHEREAS, he graciously served Preston Methodist Church where he was a Sunday school teacher and enjoyed leading the singing each Sunday; and

WHEREAS, George Edward was an enthusiastic supporter of the Georgia Sheriff's Boys Ranch in Hahira, Georgia; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Webster County have hung a portrait of George Edward in the courthouse in appreciation of his service to the county; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff George Edward Goare was killed in the line of duty on April 11, 1985; and

WHEREAS, it is only fitting that this man of service be honored with a lasting memorial to his life well lived.

PART V

WHEREAS, in the early 1940's, Roy Varner migrated from Franklin County to Newton County, where he met his future wife of 66 years Charlyne Aaron; and

75 WHEREAS, the couple has two children, Anita Varner and Aaron Varner, two 76 grandchildren, Ginger Johnson and Tuesday Rawls, and four great-grandchildren, Skye and 77 Jonathan Johnson and Jet and Riley Rawls; and 78 WHEREAS, Roy says he was born a farmer and will die a farmer, but he realized by the 79 1970's that small-scale farming could not support a family and he gave up farming and 80 entered his second career; and

81 WHEREAS, in 1977, he was elected chairman of the Newton County Board of 82 Commissioners, where he served until 1992; and 83 WHEREAS, his goal was to make Newton County a better place for his grandchildren and 84 great-grandchildren to live; and he viewed his role as that of a public servant, not a politician, 85 and felt that the best government occurred when cities and the county cooperated to achieve 86 common goals; and

87 WHEREAS, during Roy Varner's years in office, great progress was made in Newton County 88 and he attributes this success to the support given by the voters of Newton County to the 89 Board of Commissioners when they approved the special purpose local option sales tax and 90 a general obligation bond; and

91 WHEREAS, he viewed the passage of the two financial bills as proof that the voters had 92 confidence in his administration's ability to improve conditions for all of the county; and

93 WHEREAS, among the achievements the county reached during Roy Varner's 16 years of 94 service were the Cornish Creek Reservoir, a project that included the efforts of leaders in 95 Walton County, the City of Covington, and Newton County, which had many naysayers who 96 said that the reservoir would never be built, but Roy and others believed in the project that 97 was finished within five years, giving a ready source of water to the residents of the area;
98 obtaining the right of way and building Georgia Highway 613, which is referred to locally 99 as "the bypass road"; purchasing modern equipment for the roads department in order to 100 provide better road maintenance capabilities for the county; providing fire trucks and 101 firefighters for each district of the county – in 1977, Newton County had one fire truck and 102 one fireman; constructing a building in which county-wide animal control was housed; 103 building a new jail; and establishing a retirement system for all county employees; and

104 WHEREAS, he served on many committees, including the Association County 105 Commissioners of Georgia, the Water and Soil Conservation Board, the Georgia Finance 106 Authority, Operation Round Up, and the Regional Conservation and Development Council; 107 and

108 WHEREAS, it is only fitting and proper that a lasting tribute to the accomplishments of Roy 109 Varner and his family be established.

110 PART VI

111 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia lost one of her finest citizens with the passing of J. Sid 112 Garner on February 19, 2010; and

113 WHEREAS, born in Oxford, Mississippi, on February 22, 1925, Sid was a United States Air 114 Force officer whose military career included service in World War II, the Korean Conflict, 115 and the Vietnam War; and

116 WHEREAS, this epitome of the true Southern gentleman provided invaluable support and 117 advice to all who sought his wise counsel; and

118 WHEREAS, Sid was a devout Christian and an elder of Trinity Presbyterian Church in 119 Covington, Georgia; and

120 WHEREAS, the loss of this esteemed man of integrity, fortitude, and faith leaves a great void 121 in the hearts of his family and friends, whose lives were all the better for having known, 122 loved, and been loved by J. Sid Garner.

123 PART VII

124 WHEREAS, in 1981, Stanley K. Tanger began construction on the 50,000 square foot phase
125 of Burlington Manufacturer's Outlet Center (BMOC) off Interstate 85 in Burlington, North 126 Carolina, and it was the first-of-a-kind strip shopping center with brand-name factory outlet 127 stores; and

128 WHEREAS, in 1993, Tanger became the first outlet center developer to be listed on the New 129 York Stock Exchange as a publicly traded Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT); and

130 WHEREAS, in 1995, Tanger was the first developer to implement a money-back low price 131 guarantee program for its customers; and

132 WHEREAS, Tanger is celebrating over 28 years as a leading developer of manufacturers' 133 outlet centers with the nation's premier brand name and designer outlet stores, and in 2008, 134 Tanger welcomed over 150 million shoppers to its centers; and

135 WHEREAS, the people in Locust Grove, Georgia, and Henry County truly appreciate the 136 outstanding corporate citizenship of this great company and appreciate the economic activity 137 and jobs that the company brings to the area.

138 PART VIII

139 WHEREAS, in 1969, a group of young but already seasoned and incredibly talented 140 musicians, including guitarist Duane Allman, bassist Berry Oakley, vocalist and organist
141 Gregg Allman, guitarist Dickey Betts, percussionist Butch Trucks, and percussionist Jaimoe, 142 formed the Allman Brothers Band and established the band's home in Macon; and

143 WHEREAS, at now legendary jam sessions at their initial base on College Street, their later 144 home at the "Big House" on Vineville Avenue, and other locations in and around Macon, 145 including Rose Hill Cemetery and a farm known as Idlewild South, the band fused elements 146 of blues, jazz, rock, and country music to create a musical genre now known and loved as 147 "southern rock" and became one of the most exciting groups of performers ever to take the 148 stage; and

149 WHEREAS, the incomparable and wide-ranging talents, creativity, inspiration, soulfulness, 150 and dedication of the Allman Brothers Band remain evidenced in legacies of live 151 performances and studio recordings of such songs and compositions as "Statesboro Blues," 152 "Dreams," "Midnight Rider," "Whipping Post," "In Memory of Elizabeth Reed," "Mountain 153 Jam," "Blue Sky," "Melissa," "One Way Out," "Hot 'Lanta," and "Little Martha"; and 154

155 WHEREAS, Duane Allman's all too brief life was tragically ended at age 24 by a motorcycle 156 accident on a street in Macon on October 29, 1971; and 157 WHEREAS, it is only fitting and proper that his life and memory be honored by this state 158 and in the community which the band graced with their gifts and spirits.

159 PART IX

160 WHEREAS, James C. Moore was born in Coffee County in 1930; and 161 WHEREAS, he graduated from Nicholls High School, from South Georgia College, and 162 Georgia Southern College (known as Georgia Teachers College at the time); and

163 WHEREAS, he served in the United States Air Force from 1951 until 1953, rising to the rank 164 of Staff Sergeant; and

165 WHEREAS, he taught and coached in the Coffee County School System for 13 years, 166 serving at West Green (2), Nicholls (5), Douglas Junior High (2), and Coffee High (4); and

167 WHEREAS, he also served as Principal of West Green Elementary for one year, Assistant 168 Superintendent for one year, and as Superintendent of Schools for nine years; and 169 WHEREAS, from 1978-1989, he served in the General Assembly representing Coffee and 170 Atkinson Counties. During this period, he became close friends with the DOT 171 Commissioner, Tom Moreland, and initiated many highway projects that are still providing 172 benefits today. These projects included: the four-laning of U.S. Highway 441 from Douglas 173 to Pearson; the four-laning and adding passing lanes from downtown Douglas to the present 174 high school and to Broxton; the completion of the perimeter road around Douglas, which Mr.

175 Moreland said at the dedication that Douglas was only the third city in Georgia to have a 176 perimeter road behind Atlanta and Athens; the paving of streets in Coffee and Touchton 177 Woods subdivisions; the paving of all roads to churches in Coffee County; the four-laning 178 of SR 158 from Peterson Avenue to Baker Highway (a must for the Wal-Mart Distribution 179 Center to locate in Douglas); and adding wider truck access on the perimeter road for 180 Wal-Mart; and

181 WHEREAS, while in the General Assembly, James C. Moore served on the Ways and 182 Means, Education, Agriculture, Natural Resources, and QBE Study Committees; and

183 WHEREAS, he was a member of the Legislative Council to the Southern Regional Education 184 Board (SREB) for five years; and

185 WHEREAS, James C. Moore sponsored legislation to create the Department of Adult and 186 Technical Education; and

187 WHEREAS, he resigned from the General Assembly in 1989 to become the Vice-President 188 for Economic Development at Altamaha Technical College in Jesup and served in that 189 position from 1989 until 1992; and

190 WHEREAS, since he grew up in Coffee County, attended school in Coffee County, returned 191 to Coffee County to live and work as an educator and farmer, and is a landowner and was a 192 former business owner in Douglas, it is only proper and fitting that a lasting tribute 193 recognizing the contributions of James C. Moore to the people of Coffee County be 194 established.

195 PART X

196 WHEREAS, SFC John Curtis Beale was assigned to the First Battalion, 108th
197 Reconnaissance, Surveillance and Target Acquisition Squadron, 48th Infantry Brigade 198 Combat Team of the Georgia Army National Guard from Calhoun, Georgia; and

199 WHEREAS, he was killed in Kapisa, Afghanistan, of wounds from an improvised explosive 200 device and small arms fire; and

201 WHEREAS, he was born in Riverdale, Georgia, and graduated from Riverdale High School 202 before joining the United States Army, where he served from 1989 through 1994, including 203 the Desert Shield-Desert Storm campaign in Iraq; and 204 WHEREAS, he was married to his beautiful bride and high school sweetheart, Crystal, on 205 July 16, 1990; and

206 WHEREAS, SFC Beale joined the Army National Guard in 2004, spurred on by the events 207 of 9/11; and

208 WHEREAS, during this time, he also was working toward a history degree at Clayton State 209 University and had completed two years of his four-year program; and 210 WHEREAS, he was also a full-time employee at Clayton County Water Authority and 211 participated in activities on Career Day with many students because he loved working with 212 young people; and

213 WHEREAS, SFC Beale was a member of Eagles Landing First Baptist Church; and

214 WHEREAS, he is survived by his wife, Crystal, and their wonderful children, Christopher 215 and Calye; his father, William B. Beale, a retired Navy sailor; and his brothers, Michael and 216 Timothy; and

217 WHEREAS, he had a deep love for his country and the men he served with, and he wanted 218 to make a difference in this world; he was a humble man, but he was always outspoken on 219 the defense of our country in order to give a future to the children of this great nation;

220 WHEREAS, it is only fitting and proper that a lasting memorial to SFC Beale's life of service 221 to his country be established; and 222 WHEREAS, such a memorial not only honors SFC John Beale, but also pays tribute to the 223 citizens of Fayette, Clayton, and Henry counties. Specifically, this dedication memorializes 224 the way the citizens of these counties paid their respect to SFC Beale's return home. The 225 American spirit became fully manifested in the citizens who lined the streets and sidewalks 226 to offer their support for the Beale family. Their actions on that day were a testament to this 227 great country, and further illustrated the respect that is deserved to every serviceman or 228 woman.

229 PART XI

230 WHEREAS, T. L. Coogle was a businessman and operated a cotton gin and warehouses in 235 for the construction of a new bridge over the Flint River on Georgia Highway 49 in 236 Oglethorpe and Montezuma, Georgia; and

237 WHEREAS, during his lifetime, attempts were made to have the bridge at Georgia Highway 238 49 and the Flint River named after him; and 239 WHEREAS, in honor of T. L. Coogle's efforts to better his community by having the river 240 bridge replaced with a modern bridge, it is only fitting and proper that he be memorialized 241 by dedicating a bridge in his memory.

242 PART XII

243 WHEREAS, our nation's security continues to rely on patriotic men and women who put 244 their personal lives on hold in order to place themselves in harm's way to protect the 245 freedoms that all United States citizens cherish; and 246 WHEREAS, the veterans of Coffee County, Georgia, which include members of the Army, 247 Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard, and National Guard have been an indispensable part 248 of our nation's efforts to promote democracy, peace, and freedom; and 249 WHEREAS, all Americans owe a debt of gratitude to the men and women of the United 250 States armed forces who risk their lives in the defense of freedom and to secure the blessings 251 of liberty for this nation and other peoples of the world; and 252 WHEREAS, Georgia's veterans have long been recognized by the citizens of this nation for 253 the vital role that they have played in leadership and their deep personal commitment to the 254 welfare of the citizens of the United States; and

255 WHEREAS, the selfless and heroic commitment of veterans of the United States military 256 stand as a shining tribute to the American spirit and loyalty to the principles of democracy, 257 and it is abundantly fitting and proper that the outstanding accomplishments of these 258 remarkable and distinguished Americans be recognized appropriately; and 259 WHEREAS, it is only fitting and proper that veterans of the United States military are 260 honored and remembered by the dedication of a portion of SR 158 East in Coffee County as 261 the Coffee County Veterans Highway, and it stands as a constant reminder of the sacrifice 262 made by members of the military and their willingness to find meaning in something greater 263 than themselves.

264 PART XIII

265 WHEREAS, Aubrae Gunderson, the daughter of Dan and Eileen Gunderson and big sister 266 to Arielle, was a sophomore at Heritage High School when her remarkable life ended too 267 soon; and

268 WHEREAS, she was struck and killed by an automobile while practicing with her cross 269 country team on September 26, 2005; and 270 WHEREAS, Aubrae excelled in academics, carrying a grade point average of 3.95, and she 271 also lettered in cross country and soccer while competing in volleyball and swimming; and 272 WHEREAS, her strong faith and love for her family was exhibited in the way she faced each 273 and every day and her unreserved love of life; and

274 WHEREAS, it is only fitting and proper that this young life that was ended before its time 275 is memorialized with a lasting tribute.

276 PART XIV
