SECTION 3.

Said title is further amended by revising Code Section 40-6-241, relating to drivers' exercise of due care and proper use of radios and mobile telephones, as follows:

"40-6-241.

A driver shall exercise due care in operating a motor vehicle on the highways of this state and shall not engage in any actions which shall distract such driver from the safe operation of such vehicle, provided that the proper use of a radio, ~~or~~ citizens band radio, ~~or mobile telephone~~ shall not be a violation of this Code section."

SECTION 4.

Said title is further amended by inserting a new Code section to read as follows:

"40-6-241.1.

(a) As used in the Code section, the term:

(1) 'Engage in a telephone call' means talking or listening on a wireless telecommunications device.

(2) 'Wireless telecommunications device' means a cellular telephone, a text-messaging device, a personal digital assistant, a stand alone computer, or any other substantially similar wireless device that is readily removable from the vehicle and is used to initiate or receive a telephone call. A 'wireless telecommunications device' shall not include any device or component that is permanently affixed to a motor vehicle. It does not include citizens band radios, citizens band radio hybrids, commercial two-way radio communication devices, or electronic communication devices with a push-to-talk function.

(b) Except in a driver emergency and as provided in subsection (c) of this Code section, no person under 18 years of age shall operate a motor vehicle on any public road or highway of this state while using any wireless telecommunications device to engage in a telephone call.

(c) The provisions of this Code section shall not apply to a person under 18 years of age who uses a wireless telecommunications device to do any of the following:

(1) Report a traffic accident, medical emergency, or serious road hazard;

(2) Report a situation in which the person believes his or her personal safety is in jeopardy;

(3) Report or avert the perpetration or potential perpetration of a criminal act against the driver or another person; or

(4) Engage in a call while the motor vehicle is lawfully parked.

(d)(1) The first violation of the provisions of this Code section shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $175.00.

96 (2) Each subsequent violation shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00.

97 (3) If the operator of the moving motor vehicle is involved in an accident at the time of
 98 a violation of this Code section, then the fine shall be equal to double the amount of the
 99 standard fine imposed in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection and the operator's
 100 driver's license shall be suspended pursuant to the provisions of Code Section 40-5-57.3.
 101 The suspension of the driver's license shall be implemented only upon a finding that the
 102 operator of the motor vehicle was at fault in causing the automobile accident. The law
 103 enforcement officer investigating the accident shall indicate on the written accident form
 104 that such operator was using a wireless telecommunications device at the time of the
 105 accident.

106 (4) Any violation of this Code section is a primary offense and shall constitute a moving
 107 violation."

108 SECTION 5.

109 Said title is further amended by inserting a new Code section to read as follows:

110 "40-6-241.2.

111 (a) As used in the Code section, the term:

112 (1) 'Wireless telecommunications device' means a cellular telephone, a text-messaging
 113 device, a personal digital assistant, a stand alone computer, or any other substantially
 114 similar wireless device that is readily removable from the vehicle and is used to write,
 115 send, or read text or data through manual input. A 'wireless telecommunications device'
 116 shall not include any device or component that is permanently affixed to a motor vehicle.
 117 It does not include citizens band radios, citizens band radio hybrids, commercial two-way
 118 radio communication devices, or electronic communication devices with a push-to-talk
 119 function.

120 (2) 'Write, send, or read a text-based communication' means using a wireless
 121 telecommunications device to manually communicate with any person by using a 122 text-based communication referred to as a text message, instant message, or electronic 123 mail.

124 (b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this Code section, no person under the age of 125 18 shall operate any motor vehicle upon any public road or highway of this state while 126 using a wireless telecommunications device to write, send, or read a text-based 127 communication.

128 (c) The provisions of this Code section shall not apply to:

129 (1) Any law enforcement officer, firefighter, or operator of an authorized emergency
 130 vehicle while engaged in the actual performance of his or her official duties;

- 131 (2) Any operator of a moving motor vehicle using a wireless telecommunications device 132 to:
 133 (A) Report illegal activity;
 134 (B) Summon medical or other emergency help;
 135 (C) Prevent injury to a person or property;
 136 (D) Relay information between a transit or for-hire operator and that operator's 137 dispatcher, in which the device is permanently affixed to the vehicle; or 138 (E) Navigate using a global positioning system; or
 139 (3) A physician or other health care provider using a wireless telecommunications device
 140 to communicate with a hospital, health clinic, or the office of such physician or provider,
 141 or to otherwise provide for the health care of an individual or medical emergency through
 142 a text-based communication.
 143 (d)(1) The first violation of the provisions of this Code section shall be punishable by a
 144 fine of not more than $175.00.
 145 (2) Each subsequent violation shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00.
 146 (3) If the operator of the moving motor vehicle is involved in an accident at the time of
 147 a violation of this Code section, then the fine shall be equal to double the amount of the
 148 standard fine imposed in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection and the operator's
 149 driver's license shall be suspended pursuant to the provisions of Code Section 40-5-57.3.
 150 The suspension of the driver's license shall be implemented only upon a finding that the
 151 operator of the motor vehicle was at fault in causing the automobile accident. The law
 152 enforcement officer investigating the accident shall indicate on the written accident form
 153 that such operator was using a wireless telecommunications device at the time of the
 154 accident.
 155 (4) Any violation of this Code section is a primary offense and shall constitute a moving
 156 violation."

157 SECTION 6.

158 This Act shall become effective on July 1, 2009.

159 SECTION 7.

160 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
