20 (2) Upon a second or subsequent conviction of family violence battery against the same
21 or another victim, the defendant shall be guilty of a felony and shall be punished by 22 imprisonment for not less than ~~one~~ two nor more than five years. In no event shall this 23 subsection be applicable to reasonable corporal punishment administered by parent to 24 child."

25 SECTION 2.

26 Chapter 13 of Title 19 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to family
 27 violence, is amended by adding a new article to read as follows:

28 "ARTICLE 529 19-13-70.30 As used in this article, the term:

31 (1) 'Court' means judges in the classes of courts identified in Title 15 and any other 32 person while acting as such a judge pursuant to designation as otherwise authorized by 33 law.

34 (2) 'Family violence' means the occurrence of one or more of the following acts between 35 past or present spouses, persons who are parents of the same child, parents and children,
 36 stepparents and stepchildren, foster parents and foster children, or other persons living
 37 or formerly living in the same household:

38 (A) Any felony; or

39 (B) Commission of offenses of battery, simple battery, simple assault, assault, stalking,
 40 criminal damage to property, unlawful restraint, or criminal trespass.

41 The term 'family violence' shall not be deemed to include reasonable discipline
 42 administered by a parent to a child in the form of corporal punishment, restraint, or 43 detention.

44 (3) 'Law enforcement officer' means any agent or officer of this state or a political 45 subdivision or municipality thereof who, as a full-time or part-time employee, is vested 46 either expressly by law or by virtue of public employment or service with authority to 47 enforce the criminal or traffic laws and whose duties include the preservation of public 48 order, the protection of life and property, or the prevention, detection, or investigation of 49 crime. Such term also includes: state or local officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, dispatcher,
 50 9-1-1 operator, police officer, prosecuting attorney, member of the State Board of 51 Pardons and Paroles, a hearing officer and parole officer of the State Board of Pardons
 52 and Paroles, and a probation officer of the Department of Corrections.

53 (4) 'Prosecuting attorney' means each attorney elected to represent a judicial circuit in 54 this state and any assistant or deputy district attorney or solicitor in each judicial circuit
 55 in this state.

56 (5) 'Registry' means the Georgia Family Violence Offender Registry.

57 19-13-71.

58 (a) The Georgia Family Violence Offender Registry shall be created to serve as a 59 searchable data base of persons convicted of an act of family violence in this state. The 60 registry shall be maintained on an Internet website available to the public at all times.

61 (b) The registry shall be maintained by the Georgia Crime Information Center. The 62 Georgia Commission on Family Violence may consult with the Georgia Crime Information
63 Center regarding the effectiveness of the registry and in creating and maintaining the 64 registry.

65 (c) The registry shall include the name and photograph of each person convicted of an act
66 of family violence, the offense for which he or she was convicted, and the punishment
67 ordered. Such information shall remain current in the registry for four years after the 68 completion of the offender's sentence.

69 19-13-72.

70 (a) The clerk of the sentencing court shall electronically transmit a copy of the sentence,
71 with a photograph of the offender, to the registry as expeditiously as possible but no later
72 than one week after the sentence is imposed.

73 (b) The Georgia Crime Information Center shall ensure that any conviction information 74 is entered in the registry within 24 hours of receipt of such information from the clerk of 75 court. The inability to enter information for all data fields in the registry shall not delay the 76 entry of available information.

77 19-13-73.

78 (a) The state and any local or state law enforcement officer, court official, or official of the 79 registry shall be held harmless for any delay or failure to file conviction information, to 80 transmit information relating to convictions, or to enter such information in the registry.

81 (b) The state and any local or state law enforcement officer, court official, or official of the 82 registry shall be held harmless for acting in reliance upon information registered in the 83 registry or information received for the purpose of entry in the registry."

84 SECTION 3.

85 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
