51 any and all liability for disclosing information to the law enforcement agency. For the 52 purposes of this subsection, the term 'employment related information' means written or 53 unwritten information relating to job applications, evaluations of performance, evaluations
54 of risks and reliability, attendance records, disciplinary actions, and eligibility for rehire
55 or other information related to the applicant, candidate, or peace officer's employment. No 56 employer shall be subject to any civil liability for any cause of action by virtue of 57 disclosing information to a law enforcement agency pursuant to this subsection. An 61 information disclosed to a law enforcement agency may be disclosed further by such

62 agency to a subsequent law enforcement agency requesting the information for purposes
63 of an official investigation under this Code section."

65 This Act shall become effective upon its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law 66 without such approval.
