

The Senate Transportation Committee offered the following substitute to SR 176:

A RESOLUTION

1 Dedicating certain portions of the state highway system; and for other purposes.

2 PART I

3 WHEREAS, James H. Chandler, Jr., was only 33 years old when he was fatally injured in 4 a traffic accident while he was responding to a bank alarm on his police motorcycle; and

5 WHEREAS, the accident occurred on September 24, 1982, at the intersection of SR 1 and 6 Cloud Springs Road, and James died the next day from his injuries; and

7 WHEREAS, he was a graduate of Lakeview High School and the Floyd College Regional 8 Police Academy; and

9 WHEREAS, at the time of his death, Mr. Chandler had worked with the Fort Oglethorpe 10 Police Department for four years, and in 1999, the police department's training facility was 11 named in his honor; and

12 WHEREAS, Mr. Chandler was often described as a big guy, with a big heart, who loved his 13 job; and

14 WHEREAS, he left behind his beautiful wife Jeannie and three sons, Mark, Brian, and Sean; 15 and

16 WHEREAS, it is only fitting that the memory of James H. Chandler, Jr., be perpetuated by 17 a lasting monument to his life well-lived.

18 PART II

19 WHEREAS, MSG Davy Weaver, a soldier in the Georgia Army National Guard from 20 Barnesville, Georgia, was killed while riding in a vehicle that was struck by an improvised 21 explosive device in Qalat, Afghanistan, on May 18, 2008; and

22 WHEREAS, he was born on February 8, 1969, to Patsy Rabuck and Emory Weaver; and

23 WHEREAS, as a youth, he served his community as a Cub, Boy, and Eagle Scout, and 24 naturally, he fell in love with the military as a young man; and

25 WHEREAS, MSG Weaver enlisted in the Georgia Army National Guard on March 25, 1987,
26 as an infantry soldier, and he completed Basic Training and Advanced Individual Training 27 at Fort Benning, Georgia; and

28 WHEREAS, on May 11, 2005, he was ordered into active service in support of Operation
29 Iraqi Freedom, and he was stationed in Kuwait and Iraq and spent a year supporting that 30 mission; and

31 WHEREAS, in May, 2007, he was sent with members of the 48th Brigade Combat Team to 32 Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom; and

33 WHEREAS, MSG Weaver was awarded the Combat Infantryman's Badge in September, 34 2007, for his actions under enemy fire and rocket attack in Afghanistan; and

35 WHEREAS, he loved his family dearly and loved his job and mission in Afghanistan; and

36 WHEREAS, he is survived by his wife, Susan, his children Bradley, Malachi, and Ellanor, 37 and his step-daughters Jennifer and Mary A. Morris; and

38 WHEREAS, MSG Weaver will be forever remembered as a true hero and professional 39 soldier, and it is only fitting and proper that a lasting memorial be dedicated in his honor.

40 PART III

41 WHEREAS, the Battle of Chickamauga, named after the Chickamauga Creek which flowed 42 nearby, was fought September 19-20, 1863, and involved more than 150,000 soldiers of the 43 Northern and Southern Armies; and

44 WHEREAS, the landscape of the battle was one where neither army wanted to fight, and the 45 thick forest limited visibility to 150 feet, less than the range of a rifle; cannon were useless, 46 and often the fighting was hand-to-hand; and

47 WHEREAS, during the battle, soldiers were cared for in the nearby homes and adjacent 48 buildings, with many Union doctors remaining behind to care for the wounded after the 49 Southern victory, and many parched and wounded soldiers of both sides drank from the 50 town's bubbling Crawfish Spring, still active today; and

51 WHEREAS, the corridor of the highway dedicated in this resolution follows the general
52 route of march of the US Army of the Cumberland that fought in the Battle of Chickamauga;

54 WHEREAS, it is only fitting to honor the brave men who fought and died here with a lasting 55 memorial to their sacrifice.

56 PART IV

57 WHEREAS, Mason Varner was born on May 8, 1932, in Macland Community. He spent 58 his entire life in Macland, with the exception of four years he spent in the United States Coast 59 Guard. One of his lifelong friends, Clint Carlile, said Mason could not wait to get back to 60 Macland every chance he got while in the service; and

61 WHEREAS, Mason attended McEachern School and graduated in 1949. Six high school 62 friends and Mason joined the Coast Guard in 1952 for a four-year stint; and

63 WHEREAS, Mason met Ann Greenway, a teacher at McEachern School, and they were 64 married on March 4, 1956, and had three children, Melinda, Teri, and John. Ann passed 65 away in 2001; and

66 WHEREAS, after Mason was discharged from service and returned to Macland, he started
67 Varner's Ace Hardware store at the intersection of Macland and New Macland-Lost 68 Mountain Roads. He and Ann operated the store for approximately 20 years. He was a great 69 businessman; and

70 WHEREAS, Varner's store at Macland became a community institution, and all types of 71 local, state, and national political discussions were held there; and

72 WHEREAS, fishing was a passion for Mason and he spent many days and nights on a lake
73 with friends, and some of his favorite memories after retirement were from his cabin on Lake 74 Weiss in Alabama; and

75 WHEREAS, Mason was a lifetime member of McEachern United Methodist Church and 76 supported its many programs. He was also a member of Austell Post #216 of The American 77 Legion; and

78 WHEREAS, Mason passed away on November 13, 2007, surrounded by his children, 79 grandchildren, brother, sister, nieces, nephews, and many friends. It was exactly as he would 80 have wanted it.

81 PART V

82 WHEREAS, Jimmy Middleton was born to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar P. Middleton in 1937 and 83 he grew up in Waverly, Georgia, as the youngest of three children; and

84 WHEREAS, he began his career in law enforcement in 1959 and served as chief deputy 85 under Sheriff W. E. "Willie" Smith for 18 years before becoming the Sheriff of Camden 86 County; and

87 WHEREAS, as sheriff from 1977 to 1985, he understood that being effective in his position 88 required a close partnership with the community, and his legacy as a compassionate and 89 hands-on sheriff will be remembered by many people for many years; and

90 WHEREAS, he served as sheriff during a time when your nearest backup might be a county 91 away; and

92 WHEREAS, his service to his community went beyond being sheriff, as he also served as 93 county commissioner and on various boards; and

94 WHEREAS, in 1957, Jimmy married Anne Rentz, and they were blessed with three children 95 and, in turn, five grandchildren; and

96 WHEREAS, true to his nature, Jimmy was a giving and compassionate man and his friends 97 looked to him for leadership, guidance, and support, and he was respected and loved by 98 countless people in the community; and

99 WHEREAS, he will be remembered for his loyal dedication to his family and his 100 commitment to the citizens of Camden County.

PART VI102
103

WHEREAS, Ray Delaigle has long been recognized by the citizens of Burke County for the vital role that he has played in leadership and his deep personal commitment to the welfare of the citizens of Georgia; and

105
107
108

WHEREAS, he has diligently and conscientiously devoted innumerable hours of his time, talents, and energy toward the betterment of his community and state as evidenced dramatically by his superlative service as a member and chairperson of the Board of Commissioners of Burke County; and

109
111

WHEREAS, his significant organizational and leadership talents, his remarkable patience and diplomacy, his keen sense of vision, and his sensitivity to the needs of the citizens of this state have earned him the respect and admiration of his colleagues and associates; and

WHEREAS, he is a person of magnanimous strengths with an unimpeachable reputation for integrity, intelligence, fairness, and kindness; and

114
116

WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the outstanding accomplishments of this remarkable and distinguished Georgian be appropriately recognized by dedicating a lasting reminder of his service to the people of Burke County.

117

PART VII118
119
120
