

House Bill 306 (COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE)

By: Representatives Walker of the 107th, Ralston of the 7th, and Reese of the 98th

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Chapter 6 of the Title 17 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to 2 bonds and recognizances, so as to provide legislative findings and intent; to provide for an
3 electronic pretrial release and monitoring program for defendants; to provide the standards,
4 terms, and conditions for such program; to provide for penalties for violating the terms of 5 such program; to provide for fees for such monitoring; to provide for the payment of such
6 fees by the sheriff under certain circumstances; to provide for the revocation of participation
7 in such program under certain circumstances; to provide for related matters; to repeal
8 conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

9 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

10 style="text-align:center">SECTION 1.

11 The General Assembly finds that a program of electronic pretrial release, monitoring, and 12 home confinement incorporates modern technology to accomplish the following purposes, 13 including, but not limited to:

- 14 (1) Ensuring proper prioritization of local incarceration resources;
- 15 (2) Improving child support collections by giving nonpayors an opportunity to maintain 16 employment while under electronic surveillance;
- 17 (3) Better protecting crime victims by global positioning satellite (GPS) tracking and 18 monitoring of pretrial release offenders to better ensure ongoing protection of crime 19 victims;
- 20 (4) Permitting defendants with extraordinary health problems to seek appropriate medical 21 care;
- 22 (5) Assisting sheriffs in alleviating jail overcrowding by creating alternative methods of 23 pretrial release and monitoring and home confinement;

- 24 (6) Reducing the costs of pretrial detention to governing authorities of counties as the costs
 25 of self-paid, electronic pretrial release and monitoring are substantially less than pretrial 26 incarceration; and
 27 (7) Creating instant alert capabilities to law enforcement in the event terms of pretrial
 28 release are violated.

29 SECTION 2.

30 Chapter 6 of the Title 17 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to bonds and 31 recognizances, is amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

32 "17-6-1.1.

33 (a) In addition to other methods of posting bail or as special condition of bond, a defendant
 34 may be released from custody pending the trial of his or her case on the condition that the 35 defendant comply with the terms and conditions of an electronic pretrial release and 36 monitoring program which is approved pursuant to subsection (j) of this Code section. The 37 sheriff of a county may enter into agreements with such approved providers. A bonding
 38 company, bonding agent, or probation service provider may be a provider of such services.

39 (b) If it appears to the court that a defendant subject to its jurisdiction is a suitable
 40 candidate for electronic pretrial release and monitoring, the court may, in its sole discretion
 41 and subject to the eligibility requirements of this Code section, authorize the defendant to 42 be released under the provisions of an electronic pretrial release and monitoring program.
 43 A judge may only authorize electronic pretrial release and monitoring if that judge has 44 jurisdiction to set a bond for the offense charged and the defendant is otherwise eligible for 45 bond under subsection (e) of Code Section 17-6-1. When a court of competent jurisdiction 46 has already set bond for a defendant indicating that the defendant is otherwise eligible for 47 release on bail pursuant to subsection (e) of Code Section 17-6-1, in addition to accepting 48 cash in satisfaction of the bond set by a court, the court may instruct the sheriff that the 49 defendant is to be released to an electronic pretrial release and monitoring program.

50 (c) The court, in its sole discretion, may revoke at any time the eligibility of any defendant
 51 to participate in the electronic pretrial release and monitoring program in which event the 52 defendant shall be immediately returned to custody. If the defendant's case has not been 53 assigned to a particular division of the court, the chief judge shall have such authority.

54 (d) A defendant may not be released to, or remain in, an electronic pretrial release and 55 monitoring program who has any other outstanding warrants, accusations, indictments,
 56 holds, or incarceration orders from any other court, law enforcement agency, or probation
 57 or parole officer that require the posting of bond or further adjudication.

58 (e) A defendant released pursuant to an electronic pretrial release and monitoring program
59 shall abide by such conditions as the court may impose relating to such program, including,
60 but not limited to, the following:

61 (1) Periods of home confinement;

62 (2) Compliance with all requirements and conditions of the electronic pretrial release and 63 monitoring program provider;

64 (3) Compliance with any court orders or special conditions of bond which may include 65 an order directing that no contact, direct or indirect, be made with the victim or 66 forbidding entry upon, about, or near certain premises;

67 (4) An order directing that the accused provide support and maintenance for the person's 68 dependents to the best of his or her ability;

69 (5) Restrictions on the use of alcoholic beverages and controlled substances;

70 (6) Curfews;

71 (7) Limitations on work hours and employment;

72 (8) An order directing the accused to submit to test of breath, blood, or urine from time
73 to time;

74 (9) Travel restrictions;

75 (10) An order directing that electronic pretrial release and monitoring equipment be kept 76 in good working condition;

77 (11) An order directing that the person refrain from violating the criminal laws of any 78 state, county, or municipality;

79 (12) An order directing timely payment of all fees connected with the electronic pretrial
80 release and monitoring program;

81 (13) Payroll deductions to fund electronic pretrial release and monitoring fees;

82 (14) Provisions to permit reasonable medical treatment;

83 (15) Provisions for procuring reasonable necessities, such as grocery shopping;

84 (16) Provisions for attendance in educational, rehabilitative, and treatment programs; and 85 (17) Such other terms and conditions as the court may deem just and proper.

86 (f) Under no circumstances shall electronic pretrial release and monitoring equipment be 87 introduced internally or beneath the skin of any person.

88 (g) In the event that a court of competent jurisdiction finds probable cause, upon oath, 89 affirmation, or sworn affidavit, that a defendant has violated the terms or conditions of his 90 or her electronic pretrial release and monitoring program, other than terms regarding home
91 confinement set forth in paragraph (1) of subsection (e) of this Code section, or finds that 92 the defendant provided false or misleading information concerning his or her qualifications
93 to participate in the electronic pretrial release and monitoring program, including, but not 94 limited to, name, date of birth, address, or other personal identification information, then

95 the defendant's ongoing participation in such program shall be terminated immediately and,
96 upon arrest of the defendant for such violation by any law enforcement officer, the 97 defendant shall be returned to confinement at the county jail or other facility from which 98 the defendant was released.

99 (h)(1) As an additional condition of electronic pretrial release and monitoring, a 100 defendant authorized to participate in such program by the court shall pay a reasonable,
101 nonrefundable fee for program enrollment, equipment use, and monitoring to the provider
102 of such program. If a bonding company, bonding agent, or probation service provider is 103 the provider, the fees earned in the capacity of being such a provider shall be in addition
104 to the fees allowed in Code Sections 17-6-30, 42-8-34, and 42-8-100.

105 (2) The fees connected with the electronic pretrial release and monitoring program shall 106 be timely paid by a defendant as a condition of his or her ongoing participation in the 107 electronic pretrial release and monitoring program in accordance with the terms for such 108 programs as approved by the court. Failure to make timely payments shall constitute a 109 violation of the terms of the electronic pretrial release and monitoring program and shall 110 result in the defendant's immediate return to custody.

111 (3) Defendants who have an extraordinary medical conditions requiring ongoing medical 112 treatment or indigent persons, as defined by the court, and who are selected by the court
113 following the indigency standards established by the court may have such electronic 114 pretrial release and monitoring fees paid by the sheriff with the consent of the governing 115 authority.

116 (i) No defendant released under an electronic pretrial release and monitoring program
117 under this Code section shall be deemed to be an agent, employee, or involuntary servant
118 of the county or the electronic pretrial release and monitoring provider while so released, 119 working, or participating in training or going to and from the defendant's place of 120 employment or training. Neither the electronic pretrial release and monitoring provider 121 nor the sheriff shall be civilly liable for the criminal acts of a defendant released pursuant 122 to this Code section.

123 (j) Any person or corporation approved by the chief judge of the court and the sheriff in 124 their discretion who meets the following minimum requirements may be approved to 125 provide electronic pretrial release and monitoring services:

126 (1) The provider shall comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and all 127 rules and regulations established by the chief judge and the sheriff in counties where the 128 provider provides electronic pretrial release and monitoring services;

129 (2) The provider shall provide the chief judge and the sheriff with the name of the 130 provider, the name of an individual who shall serve as the contact person for the provider,
131 and the telephone number of such contact person;

132 (3) The provider shall promptly, not later than three business days after such change, 133 notify the chief judge and sheriff of any changes in its address, ownership, or 134 qualifications under this Code section;

135 (4) The provider shall provide simultaneous access to all records regarding all
136 monitoring information, GPS tracking, home confinement, and victim protection 137 regarding each person placed on electronic pretrial release and monitoring; and 138 (5) The provider shall act as surety for the bond.

139 (k) The sheriff shall maintain a list of approved providers of electronic pretrial release and 140 monitoring services. The sheriff, in his or her discretion, may temporarily or permanently
141 remove any provider from the list of approved providers should the provider:

142 (1) Fail to comply with the requirements of this Code section;

143 (2) Fail to monitor properly any defendant that the provider was required to monitor;

144 (3) Charge an excessive fee for use and monitoring of electronic monitoring equipment;

145 or

146 (4) Act or fail to act in such a manner that, in the discretion of the sheriff, constitutes 147 good cause for removal."

148 SECTION 3.

149 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
